MERRILL

By ROBERTA DEWEY
MERRILL - Leonard Degnan, was a recent visitor at the home of his brother John Degnan.

Merrill families visiting in the Bay Area recently included the Don Wests, and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Hodges and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moore drove to Winchester Bay from there to Portland, back through Bend, where they visited the Louis Moores.

Roy and Clyde Fox, Johnnie and Melvin Rodgers have returned from a fishing trip to Gold Beach. Lily Winter is visiting in Merrill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Loper.

She will return to Olympia, Washington, to complete nurses' training at St. Peter's hospital.

Mrs. Dale West and Sara, and Mr. and Mrs. George Williams were some of the Merrill residents attending the Oregon state fair.

Peggy Carson and Kathy Moore leave Thursday morning for the fair, where they will demonstrate flower arranging Friday morning.

Mrs. William LaPey, Caldwell, Idaho, visited over the weekend at the home of her mother Mrs. Sara Hodges.

A group of Campfire girls who are working in their Torch-bearer's rank fulfilled another requirement when they went to the gravel pit north of Fort Klamath for a three day camping trip.

They were accompanied by their leader Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Naomi French, executive director of Campfire, and Mrs. Troy Qualia.

In the group were Judy Qualia, Margaret Qualia, Donna Carson, Mary McChough, Bonnie Chojnacki, Beverly Moore and Glenda Story.

Holiday visitors here were former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heaton, who now live in Weaverly, California. They visited with the Tommy Coles and other friends.

Paaschal Hodges and Max Hartle reported "no luck" on a recent fishing trip to Winchester Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunicutt and John visited Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Burkes in Empire, Oregon, and went deep sea fishing.

Mrs. James Hodges and her mother Mrs. Ruby Black, and the Hodges children visited in Red Bluff with relatives. James drove south to bring his family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pets Collins enjoyed a week's visit in Coos Bay with their son Frank and his family.

Mrs. Leon Street reviewed the book "Home Below Hell's Canyon" at the September 2 meeting of the Merrill Library Club at the home of Mrs. Robert Trotman.

Plans were discussed for a rummage sale in the near future, and members are asked to meet September 21, at the home of the president, Mrs. Harvey Denham.

To prepare articles for the sale, Mrs. Trotman and her co-hostess Mrs. Dale Walker served refreshments to Mrs. Robert Drago, Mrs. Harvey Denham, Mrs. Dwight Eagle, Mrs. Warren Frails, Mrs. George Milne, Mrs. J. D. Moore, Mrs. O. V. Reeves, Mrs. George Rankin, Mrs. C. E. Sharp and Mrs. William Walker.

Chiloquin

By DARLENE WOLFF
Sue Seaholm left Sunday, August 29, to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seaholm, Bray, California.

Sue, who was graduated from Chiloquin high school in June, may go to Texas for a few months to visit with relatives and is also considering entering nurses training.

She has made her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Niehaus and Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Painode and daughter Shirley, Yakima, were Friday visitors at the Lewis Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Parazzo were hosts in August to Mrs. Parazzo's mother, Mrs. Mary Emery, Mission, South Dakota, whom she had not seen for 20 years, and to her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Whipple and daughter Mary Jane of Le. a. d. South Dakota.

Mrs. Emery has six grandchildren and one great-grandchild here that she had never seen. She stayed two weeks with the Parazzos before returning home.

Rev. and Mrs. Harley Zeller, Williamson River, left Friday afternoon for a laymans weekend at Soda Springs Methodist camp. Their older son, James Zeller, conducted Sunday services at the mission and at Beatty, as he has several weeks this summer. James Zeller will teach this year in Tulelake.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Romine and daughters traveled to Centralia, Washington over the Labor Day weekend to attend a funeral.

Marcine Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erling Erickson, Agency Lakeshore district, has signed to attend OTI this fall, beginning a secretarial and business course. She was graduated this spring from Chiloquin.

Ted Siemsen, valedictorian at Chiloquin this spring, will attend Oregon State College where he will major in pharmacy. The family, Washington over the Labor Day weekend to attend a funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Siemsen, Ted and Dick, took a last family outing over Labor Day and camped on Jackson Creek.

Among those camping at Huckleberry Mountain over Labor Day were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kirchner, Donna and Diane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott, Mrs. Earl Hall, Janet and Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Isgrigg and two daughters moved this week to Idaho, where they have relatives. Ramona is still wearing her arm in a sling, recovering from a fall from a car July 3. Isgrigg's home is being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey, Louise and Arthur, who run the Chief Theater.

Newcomers to Chiloquin, but not to the area, are Mr. and Mrs. Ross McIntyre and three young children. McIntyre will teach the 5th grade this year, replacing Mrs. Sam Rife, and will be the only new person on the faculty for the lower six grades. McIntyre's, who are living in the Gieger apartments, moved here from Sprague River.

Sally and Bill Swanson will arrive this week from Hillsboro where they have spent the summer with relatives. George and his father, Leonard Swanson, moved back to Chiloquin a week ago, after spending the summer in Ashland, where Leonard took treatment. He is much improved and has a wheel chair he can manipulate.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Diullo and children drove last Sunday to Crescent to visit with relatives and to bring Mrs. Diullo's mother, Mrs. James Bowman, home. She had been visiting there and in Bend for the past few weeks.

Frieda Kirk has returned from another session as camp counselor at the Methodist youth camp at Maupier, on the Oregon Coast. Frieda counseled for three camps this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Draper and Danny have moved to Williamson River from Anderson, California. Draper has a hay baling operation in this area.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen, Agency Lakeshore, are her two daughters from California, Mrs. David Lertora, Chinese Camp and Mrs. H. O. Patterson, Berkeley.

BONANZA

By CORA LEAVITT
Bobby Liskey was able to leave the hospital September 2, after being there over a week, recovering from serious injuries when he was bucked off a horse.

Bob will miss the first week of school, he will be a junior this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor and Steve, and Bud Taylor, Everett, and Mrs. Tom Nelson, Klamath Falls, visited last week with Mrs. Eva Philpott and family. Mrs. Tom Taylor is Mrs. Philpott's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. King Hubble spent several days at Boise, Idaho, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Mason of Nebraska has been visiting her granddaughter Mrs. Roy Whitlich and family.

Mrs. Arden Bradbury has returned to her home in Longview, after visiting her sister Mrs. Lloyd Hubble and family.

Mrs. Helen LeBow, Burney, California, visited relatives in Bonanza last week. She has been receiving medical care in Klamath Falls. The LeBows lived in Bonanza several years ago.

Mrs. Walter Casebeer is home from the hospital and recovering nicely from major surgery. Her mother, Mrs. Hathaway, is here from Mills City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dick arrived September 4 from Fort Lewis, Washington to visit relatives and friends.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas have returned to their home at Berkeley, after spending several weeks with their son Reg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nix and son have returned to their home at Shingletown, California. She came for the funeral services of her mother Mrs. Lu Sparks.

Mrs. Bill Bechold, Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Merrill Stewart spent several days in Portland. They took Jenny and Jimmy Hunt home, following a visit of several weeks with their grandparents the Bill Becholds.

Joe Nork is here from Fort Lewis, Washington, to visit his parents the Ben Norks.

Mrs. Doris Hodges, Coralee and Bruce, Mrs. Cora Leavitt and Mary Anne visited Wednesday with Mrs. Jerry McCarrie and Mrs. Leonard Schooler and alike.

Deep sympathy is extended to the Ernest Walkers, on the death of their 3 months old son Galen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Givan and Nancy and Mary Anne Leavitt spent two days at Lakeview visiting relatives and attending the rodeo.

Keith Rice, Bob Colwell, and Ed Scott were among the horseback riders to go to Lakeview for the rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry VanBuskirk and family of Tulelake spent September 4 with the Bill Burnett family.
