KF Resident's Mother Dies

Mrs. Alfred Reed, mother of Nelson Reed and grandmother of Scott W. Reed, both of Klamath Falls, died at her home in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania at the age of 87.
Mrs. Reed first came to Klamath Falls in 1911 with her husband and four sons on a hunting and fishing vacation. After her son, Nelson, came to Klamath Falls to live in 1925, Mrs. Reed made a number of trips to the Klamath Basin with which she had fallen in love on her first visit.
During her trips here she made many friends about whom she always inquired. For many years she had been much interested in everything that happened in the Klamath country.
Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed are leaving by plane for Pittsburgh to attend services for his mother.

PTA

GILCHRIST PTA
By HOPE N. BRADER
Mrs. William Taylor called a pre-school executive committee meeting at her home in Chemult recently for program planning and selection of chairman for the coming year. Those motoring from Gilchrist for the evening were Mrs. O. C. Jordan, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Hill, secretary; and Charles Shotts, treasurer.
It was decided to have a potluck get-acquainted dinner at 6:00 p.m. on the evening of September 14th at the school cafeteria. Dinner will be followed by an open house trip through the school and especially the new north wing. The regular meeting will follow and the 1954 membership drive will officially begin.

This is the "Golden Jubilee Year" in PTA work over the nation and the theme for the year "Better Homes, Better Schools, Better Communities, for a Responsible Society," will be closely followed. The theme sentence is "A community is more than a community, it is part of the lives and hopes of the people."
Appointed chairman are the following: hospitality, Dorothy Houston; ways and means, Mrs. Oren Sample and Mrs. Norman Whitfield; program and room mother, Mrs. O. C. Jordan; publicity and historian, Mrs. V. I. Brader; parliamentarian, Anne Dolzal; membership, Mr. and Mrs. John Anding; scrapbook, Mrs. R. E. Jessup; founders' day, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Harris; health, Mrs. Dave Frederickson; PTA magazine, Mrs. Oren Sample.
It was decided to devote one meeting to a safety program and follow the wishes of Governor Patterson in his recent request to the state PTA council.
