

BASIN BRIEFS

December 3-7 inclusive.

Verle Sagers — has just been released from active duty with the Air Force and has rejoined the circulation department of the Herald and News in charge of the mailing room. He was with the paper four years before entering the service. He and his wife and Rocky, their 13-month-old son, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gallagher, 3429 Reid-Cliffe, while they look for a permanent home.

A Record — at Marylhurst College is held by Judy, Sue and Cecilia Vandenberg, daughters of Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg. They are the only group of three sisters enrolled; their eldest sister, Mrs. Stanley (Mary) Neuling, is a Marylhurst graduate and Mrs. David Vandenberg Jr., the former Muriel Wilton, is also an alumna.

New Book — Sarah Kiner Hardy of Medford is author of a new book, just published by Vantage Press, New York. The book, "A New Land Needs Singing," is largely written from material from her parents' stories of the early days around the Big Bend country.

Meeting — Oregon Elementary Principals Association will hold its annual conference in Salem, October 11-12. Dr. Alice Keliher, professor of education, New York University, will be headline speaker.

Topic — "What Civil Defense Means to Me" is the subject of the 20th annual national high school essay contest, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Prizes at the national level total $2,000. Essays must be submitted to local or regional contest chairmen not later than April 15, 1955. Headquarters of the auxiliary is 406 West 34th Street, Kansas City, Missouri.

W. D. Purvine — director of OTI, has been invited to serve as a panel member for discussion of the topic, "Trends and the Future in Vocational - Technical Education," at the December 2 meeting of the American Technical Association in San Francisco. The association is affiliated with the American Vocational Association and holds its meetings prior to the opening of the annual AVA convention which convenes this year registrar, Mabel Winston.

Newcomers — Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Ivory and three children are new residents of Olney. Ivory is employed on the Dennis Babson ranch.

Major Surgery — Bill Olsen, floor manager at J. C. Penney, is in Klamath Valley Hospital, where he underwent major surgery recently.

Ill at Home — Correl (Bud) Smith, shop foreman of the newly established East Main Automotive Service, has been ill at his home for the past week.

Visitors — Lt. and Mrs. Robert F. Sjodin, San Francisco, arrived in Klamath Falls today for a brief visit with his sisters and their families. Mrs. Sverre Munson, 1345 Sergeant, and Mrs. Chet Robertson, 108 South Laguna. Lt. Sjodin is an electronics supervisor stationed at Treasure Island.

Summers PTA — will meet Friday, September 17, at 2 p.m. at Summers School. William Kurtz will show colored slides of Oregon.

Visitors — Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Vail, Longview, Washington, were visitors last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Robertson.

Children's Pet Parade To Be Held In KF Saturday

There'll be a Pet Parade in Klamath Falls Saturday morning, but you'll have to go to Couger Field to see it. All children up to 14 years of age are eligible to enter with their pets.

This year, for safety's sake, because a great number of small children are expected, the parade will be held on the field. Members of the Exchange Club and the police department will be on hand to supervise the youngsters.

All Klamath Falls city and suburban food stores, the Klamath Falls Exchange Club in conjunction with its youth activities and Swift & Company are sponsors of the parade.

Practically everybody is participating. Through Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of city schools, bulletins announcing the parade have been distributed through elementary grades and junior high. The KUHS band, through the courtesy of its members and Andrew Loney Jr., director of music education in the high school, will be on the program Saturday morning.

In addition, the U.S. Marine color guard will parade, the colors being brought from Medford especially for the occasion. The the Pepsi-Cola distributor. Hot dogs will be free, also through the courtesy of Fluhrer's Bakery and Swift & Company. Bleachers are being moved out onto the field and there will be ample parking space.

Judges will be Mayor Paul O.

Landry, Chief of Police Orville Hamilton, and S. R. Balsiger, president of the Klamath Exchange Club. Entries may be made by all youngsters up to 14 years of age with pet; all pets must be on a leash or rope, if possible.

D. M. Hayes, Swift & Company, has come from his San Francisco headquarters to assist Paul L. Stewart, local Swift & Company manager, with final arrangements. "No snakes, please," is their only admonition to the entrants.
