Follies Play Cast Told

CHILQUIN — Mrs. Andrew Ortis, casting chairman for Punnybone Follies, to be presented as a benefit for a swimming pool fund by the Chilquin Park and Playground Association, has announced the cast for the Saturday evening show which will be given at 8:00 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Gary Heglund and Dona Clark will take the part of the comical couple who are always getting into a stew. A pair of zany, involved in crazy situations are Carl Stanfield, who makes the girls swoon, and James Weddie, the perfect clown, in the parade of stunts.

The lovely lady of song, Susanne Palmer, Klamath Agency, keeps her glamour showing as the girl with the golden voice, singing her favorites, and assists the master of ceremonies, Leland Ortis.

Another feature will be Clifford Sargeant and Janice Kendall Hale. Fort Klamath, popular singing cowboy and his fair lady, with their trick horse, Black Beauty.

A number of Chilquin area's young girls will appear in the young girls' show. Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher will be the accompanist for the program and Mrs. Gerald Wolff is the magic lady of toyland, who assists the pre-schoolers and the little folks in a skit sure to appeal to the tiny members of the audience, their parents and friends.

In a stirring tribute to the American flag the Camp Fire Girls and the Boy Scouts will be assisted by honor scout Victor Sisson Jr., Klamath Agency.

The impressive length of the casting shows promise of a good show for Saturday night. Plan to attend. It's a benefit for the swimming pool fund.

Malin GOC Hold Regular Meeting

MALIN — The volunteer ground observers at Malin met at the school, September 13, for their regular meeting.

Sgt. Trainer, USAF GOC representative made various reports to observers for their service. Wings were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Frances Kolkow, Stanley Petrasek, Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. Lee Martin, Mrs. Enoch Petrasek, and Mrs. Bonnie Stephens in recognition of at least 30 hours of sky watching.

Merit awards for 1,000 hours were given to post supervisor Bonnie Stephens, Mrs. Ted DeMerritt and Dorothy Elmore; for 500 hours to Mrs. Irene Freitag and Mrs. Tim Hickey; and for 250 hours to Mrs. Matilda Nedobek.

At present there are only 16 observers and they are trying to keep the post going on a 24 hour basis. More help is needed and if anyone is willing to give a few hours a week, they should contact Mrs. Ted DeMerritt or Bonnie Stephens.

The next meeting will be held on October 13. If some of the past members of the group have hours which have not been recorded they should try to attend this next meeting and report their hours so that the proper awards can be made to those entitled to them.

United Fund Chief Names Campaign Division Heads

Several division heads were announced by United Fund's campaign chairman, W. S. McBride, and county chairman, John Heyden, at a board meeting Thursday evening at the YMCA.

Named to head the special gifts division is Jim Patterson, district manager, Northern Life Insurance.

A payroll deduction committee, headed by the UP board president, Elton Smith, includes Stuart Bowe, manager Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.; Wilbur Kesteron, assistant manager, Klamath Basin Pine Mills.

Roy Premo, treasurer, Lorenz Co.; Ted Durnett, public relations, Weyerhaeuser Timber Co.; Jack Roper, Roper and Roper; Jay Thomson, grader, WTC.

Division 9, laundries, will be headed by Estin Kiger, Superior Troy Laundry and Cleaners; division 11, motor trades, Bob Mest, president, Dugan and Mest Co.;

division 12, personal and professional, Jack Otterbein, insurance agent.

Division 17, B. county schools, Everett Peery, in charge of special education in county schools; division 18, utilities, Truman Runyan, assistant manager, The California Oregon Power Co.

Division 19, transportation, Marion Forster, cashier, Great Northern Railway; division 20, miscellaneous, Willard Ward, Klamath Basin Funeral Home.

In the county, Heyden has announced the following heads:

Gilchrist area (including Crescent Lake, Chemult), O. Sample, Gilchrist Timber Co.; Malin-Merrill area, Jerry Rajanus, county commissioner.

Keno area (including also Warden, Stewart Lenox, Weyerhaeuser, Pioneer Community, Mrs. Earl Kerns, Henley-area (Olene, Pine Grove, Poe Valley), Roy Gooding, Gooding Poultry Farm.

Additional community heads will be announced.

Speaking for the Camp Fire Girls board, Truman Runyan told the board that agencies working with school age children are facing problems that are becoming exceedingly critical.

"Either our overhead must be increased in future years or we will have to curtail our program," Runyan said.

He emphasized that he was not offering a criticism of the budget committee, which cut the Camp Fire Girls' request (as well as most agency requests), but merely presenting a problem.

United Church Classes Slated

A united area training institution for all Presbyterian churches in the Basin will be held at First Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, Sunday, September 19, at 3 p.m.

Delegates from Merrill, Malin, Tulelake, Mt. Laki, Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, Lakeview and the local church will be in attendance.

The training institution will be conducted by members of the synod staff from Portland, including the Rev. Dr. G. Henry Green, synod executive; the Rev. Dr. John Furnas, synod director of Christian education; and the Rev. Donald Peterson, director of evangelism.

The churchmen will conduct institutions in four areas: Christian education, missionary education, stewardship and promotion, church officer training.

Delegates will be guests at the evening meal, to be served in the church.

Olga and Jim Bradshaw called for square and folk dancing, and the evening concluded with the serving of refreshments. Twenty-seven members and 16 guests were present.
