JANE BOWIE RECENT BRIDE OF STERLING E. HEIDEGGER

Early September bride was Jane Bliss Bowie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Craig Bowie, 1444 Crescent. She became the bride of Sterling Evans Heidegger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harold Heidegger, Portland, September 4.

Lovely setting for the 4:30 p.m. ceremony was in the Portland home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Bowie, Dr. Paul Wright of Portland First Presbyterian Church, officiant read the service before a background of white floral arrangements and lighted white tapers.

All white was the chosen color scheme; and Jane's dress of nylon net over tulle was designed with a fitted bodice with brief sleeves and a sweetheart neckline with lace detail at the dropped shoulder line. Several skirts of net were generously gathered over the basic tulle underskirt to achieve

BEVERLY MARTS BRIDE OF BILL HOWARD BLACKWELL

Beverly Rae Marts, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marts, 1607 Summers Lane, became the bride September 5, of Bill Howard Blackwell, son of Howard Blackwell, this city; and

Mrs. E. M. McCoy, Eureka. The Rev. Dale Hewitt officiated at the double ring ceremony in First Presbyterian Church at 4 p.m. Only close friends and relatives witnessed the simple, but impressive rites at the informal wedding.

DAR Meeting

Eulonia Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, held its first fall meeting Monday evening, September 13 at the home of Mrs. Alva Custer, with Mrs. Guy Barton, regent, presiding. During the regular business meeting, plans for the next meeting were discussed. This meeting will be held Friday, October 1, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Cooper and will be a potluck dinner.

Guest of honor will be the Oregon state regent, Mrs. Albert H. Powers of Coos Bay.

After the business session on Monday Mrs. Hugh Estes introduced Betty Juckeland, Sheila Howard and Joan Estes who presented the program for the evening. These three girls gave a panel discussion of their trip to Girl's State which was held in Salem, last June 14-20. The meetings each day were started with the impressive raising of the flag and ended with the lowering ceremony each evening.

The 218 delegates from all over the state organized city and county governments, then drew up bills for their legislature. They learned all features of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of their state government. On Friday night of that week an inspiring candlelight service was held in the rotunda of the capitol building.

The panel discussion was most interesting and ably presented by the three young women. Refreshments were served later by the three hostesses of the evening, Mrs. Bert Thomas, Mrs. R. E. Wright and Mrs. L. C. Hornby. Members present were: Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. Philip Brixner, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mrs. Alva Custer, Mrs. Hugh Estes, Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. Lewis Hornby, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. Bert Thomas, Mrs. James Thorton, Mrs. William Wales Jr., Mrs. R. W. Waggoner, Mrs. Charles R. Waters, Mrs. R. E. Wright and Mrs. Aletha Shannon. Mrs. Helen Mueller and Eva Burkhalter, Mrs. R. S. Looney of Fort Klamath was welcomed into the chapter as a new member.

Birthday Party

LANGELL VALLEY — Janice Schmidt was three years old Tuesday and her mother invited a few friends in to help her celebrate the occasion. The little folks played and had a good time, later enjoying the beautiful cake and other goodies.

Others present were Debbie Randall, Kathleen Walsh, David Seater, Billy Brown and Doug Schmidt.
