

AN EVENT OF FALL . . . was the wedding of Jeanette Rusteen to Robert Buseick in Klamath Lutheran Church September 5. The double-ring candlelight service was read by the Rev. Richard E. Graef before a background of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and fern.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rusteen, this city; and bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Resing, were here from Stanfield, Oregon for the wedding.

Pictured above, the bride in her lace, satin and tulle gown;

top circle, the couple leave the bride's home for their Carmel-Monterey honeymoon.

Circle, center right, from the left, Bill Morris, best man; and ushers, Jack Rye, Elgin, Oregon; and John Buseick, bridegroom's brother, Stanfield.

Lower left, Joan Monroe, Sharon Huff, bridesmaids; and Elmina Raymond, maid of honor, Lorrain, the couple cut the first piece of the ornate wedding cake.

— Photos by Ferebee

SOJOURNERS TEA COMMITTEE MEETS

Mrs. L. D. Leslie, general chairman of the Sojourners annual fall tea, entertained at a 10 o'clock breakfast Tuesday morning to discuss plans.

The tea, titled "Harvest Bounty" is slated for October 2, at 1 o'clock in the banquet room of the Willard Hotel.

Committee chairmen are: Mrs. Walter Hoag, card tables; Mrs. Bert Henson, tea table; Mrs. Joe Thomas, prizes; Mrs. John Ashley and Mrs. Roy Carter, decorations; Mrs. A. Douglas Tennant, reservations; Mrs. Lloyd Young, food; and Mrs. Charles Dakin, entertainment.

Mrs. C. E. Chase, president of the club also attended the breakfast.

PLAYERS' CLUB

Sixty-four Players Club members and guests were welcomed at the Library Club room, Wednesday night, September 15, by officers of the club who were hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. Grant Bailly, president; Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, vice president; Mrs. Orman Gildow, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. H. H. Madole, hospitality.

The club room was decorated in "Back to School" theme.

Refreshments were served; and after a short business meeting, an evening of pinocle and bridge were enjoyed. Prizes went to Mrs. J. T. Thomas and Mrs. Troy Cook for bridge; and to Mrs. Joe Matlick and Mrs. Frank L. Perry for pinocle.

BUSEICK-RUSTEEN RITES IN KLAMATH LUTHERAN

A romance which started three years ago at Crater Lake during the summer of 1951, culminated in the marriage of Jeanette Rusteen to Robert Buseick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Resing, at 4 p.m., September 5 in Klamath Lutheran Church. The Rev. Richard E. Graef officiated at the double ring ceremony, witnessed by a host of friends and relatives.

Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rusteen, 1931 Homevale, and her father gave her in marriage. He escorted her to the altar which was banked with white gladioli, chrysanthemums and fern — illuminated by lighted tapers in tall candelabra.

Mrs. Arthur Denison, organist, played "Crown With Thy Benediction," as a special solo.

The bride's gown of Chantilly lace over tulle and white satin, was made with a fitted bodice, low oval neckline and a very full skirt. A Juliet cap of pearl encrusted lace held the fingertip veil of illusion.

A small bouquet of stephanotis tied with white ribbon and centered with a white orchid, was carried atop a white Bible.

Childhood friend of the bride, Elmina Raymond, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of dusty rose taffeta, with beige lace bolero and mitts. Sharon Huff and Joan Monroe, bridesmaids, wore frocks of bronze changeable taffeta identical in style to the maid of honor's. Beverly Mattos, flower girl, wore a replica of the senior attendant's dresses. All carried heart shaped arrangements of net and chrysanthemums.

David Resing, brother of the bridegroom was ring bearer.

Bill Morris, college classmate of Bob's served as best man. Jack Rye, also college classmate; and John Buseick, bridegroom's brother, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rusteen wore a blue net and lace dress, with blonde accessories. Bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Resing, wore a turquoise knit dress with white accessories; and both wore corsages of pink and white roses.

At the reception in the church parlors, Judy Larson served the cake; Pat Prather presided at the coffee service; Beverly Ellis served punch; and Mary Ellen McColgin registered the guests.

For their Carmel - Monterey honeymoon, Jeanette left in a blue-gray wool flannel suit with white accessories. The orchid from the bridal bouquet was worn as a corsage.

The Buseicks will live at 1941 Second Street, La Grande, where both are attending Eastern Oregon College.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Orris Selberg, George Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Petterson and Beverly; and Mr. and Mrs. Ragnar Holmquist, McCloud.

From Oakland, California, were Mr. and Mrs. John Berg and Nancy; from Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butts and Janet; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hornseth, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Westberg, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lofthus and Arling; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cross and Gretchen; Medford; and from Everett, Mrs. Ole Grimsmeth.

Pre-nuptial events honoring

PARTY FOR COLLEGE FROSH

CHLOQUIN — A going - away party for college freshman, Twyla Knight, was held Friday evening in the basement of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church. Hosts were Dwight Souers Jr., Myrna and Lila Kensler and Mrs. Pat Briggs. Mrs. Dwight Souers Sr., assisted. All were from Klamath Agency.

Invited were Janice Leake, Tommy Smith, Klamath Falls; Melvin and Jackie Barney, Sprague River; Clark Roeder, Fort Klamath; Marlene Erickson, Bill and Keith Ray, Dick and Ted Siemans, Agency Lakeshore District; Jim Hoback, Sid Ridenour, Keith Anderson, Modoc Point; Jackie and Corinne Shorey, Victor Sisson, Susanne and Gayle Palmer, all Klamath Agency.

Jeanette included a bridal shower, August 25, given by Jean Monroe and Elmina Raymond, at the latter's home, 1209 Pacific Terrace. Guests were high school classmates of Jeanette's.

On August 27, a surprise bridal shower was given by Mrs. Axel Jacobson and Judy Larson, to which family and church friends were invited.

Take it from me... EVERY MORNING ITS GOOD MORNING BECAUSE OF... FRESH GRADE A MILK, THE BEST YOU CAN BUY, COMES TO YOU ALWAYS IN CONSTANT SUPPLY!

milk

KLAMATH BASIN GRADE A PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

DR. BENJAMIN R. LEMIRE WEDDING TO SEATTLE GIRL OF LOCAL INTEREST

In an afternoon ceremony in St. Anne's Church, Seattle, August 28, Mary Edna Jones became the bride of Dr. Benjamin Robert (Ben) Lemire, former Klamath Falls resident, now of Forest Grove.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bert Jones and the late Mr. Jones, Seattle; and Dr. Lemire is the son of Mrs. John Lemire and the late Mr. Lemire, this city.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Ralph Johnson, Portland. She wore a white nylon tulle gown with a tucked bodice, deep vee neckline outlined in Shiffley embroidery; and touches of same embroidery trimmed the skirt front. The skirt was made with a bustle back which flared into a brush train. Her elbow veil was caught to a half-crown of lace and jewels and her cascade bouquet was of white orchids with stephanotis florets.

Attendants were Mrs. George Scroggie, matron of honor; Mrs. John A. Whittles, Barbara Johnson, Karen Nielson and Renee Thompson, bridesmaids. Susan Gay Martin was flower girl. All wore aqua taffeta ballerina dresses.

Best man was Allen Vuylsteke. Ray and Charles Lemire, bridegroom's brothers; and Doctors George Scroggie and Earl Weiss ushered.

After the reception at the Washington Athletic Club, the couple left for the wedding trip to California. They will live in Forest Grove.

DR. AND MRS. BENJAMIN R. LEMIRE . . . married in St. Anne's Church, Seattle. They are now at home in Forest Grove. — Photo by Maxine Reinard, Seattle

Lions Auxiliary Plans Rummage Sale For Eye Projects

Mrs. Harlan B. Baxter was hostess for the first fall meeting of Lions Club Auxiliary, September 13, with Mrs. J. A. Schubert, Mrs. Don Anderson and Mrs. Eldred Putman co-hostesses.

Mrs. Schubert, president, conducted the business meeting, during which, two eye conservation cases were approved. Special mention was also made of the optical care given during the past year to 29 local children through the auxiliary eye conservation program.

Plans are nearing completion for the auxiliary rummage sale September 24-25 in the Pelican Theater Building; Mrs. Morgan Johnson chairman. Proceeds will go to Lion sponsored optical care for Klamath Basin children; and the institute at Salem for parents of visually handicapped children, an annual summer project at the Oregon State School for the Blind.

Special prizes of the evening were awarded to Mrs. Clarence Humble, Mrs. Jim Olson and Mrs. Keith Coddington.

Mrs. Morgan Johnson will be hostess at the next meeting, October 12.

Travel Talk At ANW Luncheon

The Art and Needle Work Club members were entertained Wednesday at a dessert luncheon, when president, Mrs. B. E. Wattenburg was hostess at her home, 219 Pine.

Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. Lloyd Porter, Mrs. Stewart Biden and Mrs. Lillian Mitchell were special guests for the afternoon.

Mrs. Collier, asked to talk on her trip abroad, held the interest of her listeners with amusing highlights of her tour — augmented with numerous pictures of beautiful spots visited. As the pictures were passed around the group, Mrs. Collier gave a brief descriptive commentary.

Another highlight of the evening was the "scrap book," given to the club by the late Mrs. Lyle (Jesse) Mills when she was ANW president. During the intervening years Mrs. Wilbur Jones, now living in Pittsburg, California, filled many of the pages with ANW clippings, pictures, etc., which offered numerous topics of remiscient conversation and look members and guests on a pleasant trip down "Memory Lane" — marked with many happy meetings in the past, that helped to build the enduring friendships of almost half a century of club association.

Members gathered around the Wattenburg fireplace with their guests, other than the hostess, were Mrs. George B. Hurn, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. A. Z. Powell and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby.

Merrill WOM Chapter 18

MERRILL — Senior Regent Blanche Fies presided at a regular meeting of Merrill Women of the Moose, Chapter 18, September 7. The publicity committee presented its chapter night program. Marlene Vacknitz played the piano, a group of children sang, Ila Frost presented several vocal selections, and Peggy Garson and Kathy Moore did a demonstration on flower arranging.

The Merrill chapter has been invited to visit the Crescent City chapter in the near future. Rose Van Meter has received the appointment as Deputy Grand Regent of Oregon.

Merrill chapter will hold a star recorder's meeting on September 25 at the hall. Following the meeting the ladies joined the LOOM for refreshments.

Altar Society

LANGELL VALLEY—The Altar Society of St. Frances Cabrini Church, Bonanza, met at the home of Mrs. Clay Walker, September 9. President Stella DeBel conducted the meeting.

The society has planned a cooked food and rummage sale scheduled for October 2, at the Odd Fellows Building in Bonanza, starting at 10 a.m.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Walker to the Rev. John Pheasant, Mrs. Eddie Grallan, Katherine Jendrzewski, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Don Ralph, Mrs. Charles Sieber, Mrs. Ben Nork, Mrs. Bob Brett, Mrs. Frank DeBel and Mrs. Jack McCarrie.

MUSIC IS FUN! ACCORDION

PIANO and ORGAN LESSONS

$10.00 Per Mo. One Lesson Per Week

ERNEST ARMSTRONG

2338 Eberlein Phone 2-3222

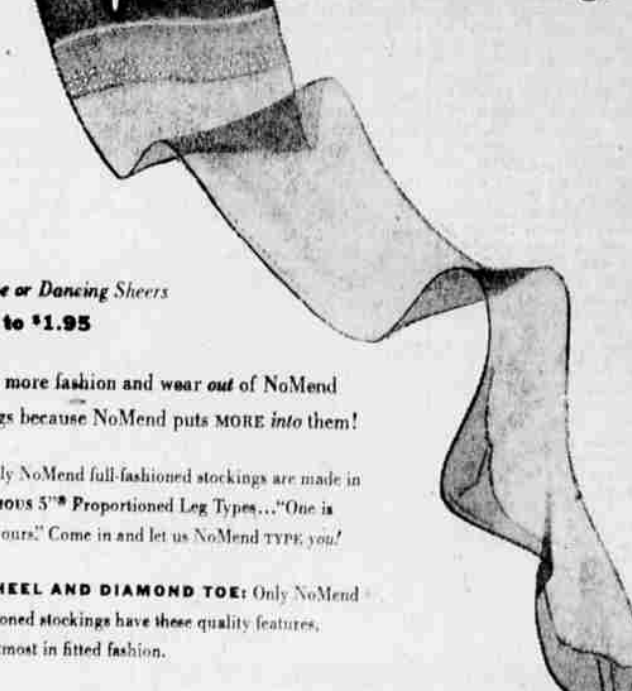

Featured on KFLW, "At the Console," Tues., 9:45 p.m.

Quality and Fashion

go hand in hand

in NoMend

beautiful stockings

Daytime or Dancing Sheers $1.35 to $1.95

You get more fashion and wear out of NoMend stockings because NoMend puts MORE into them!

FIT: Only NoMend full-fashioned stockings are made in the "FAMOUS 5" Proportioned Leg Types... "One is exactly yours!" Come in and let us NoMend TYPE you!

GORE HEEL AND DIAMOND TOE: Only NoMend full-fashioned stockings have these quality features, for the utmost in fitted fashion.

PRE-TESTED: Only NoMend stockings bear the coveted seal of the Better Fabrics Testing Bureau, to assure you of complete stocking satisfaction.

In NoMend's "FASHION APPROVED" Shades for Fall

Put them all together and they spell a more beautiful and far better wearing stocking than you ever believed possible!

"Shop The Store You Enjoy"

500 MAIN

The Town Shop

FREE PARKING

ELIMINATION DANCE

To Select Merrill's Candidate For Queen of the 18th Annual

Klamath Basin Potato Festival

Vote for your favorite:

Mary Lou Turner Joy Haskins Mary Johnson

MERRILL COMMUNITY HALL

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Music by Baldy's Band

10 till 2 $1.00

Per Person, tax included