OES Cascade Crest Chapter Holds First Fall Meeting

The first meeting following summer recess of Cascade Crest Chapter, OES, of Chiloquin was held Wednesday, September 1, in the Methodist Church.

Rosalie Hoback, worthy matron, and Dwight Kircher, worthy patron, presided with regular officers.

A review of summer activities was presented which included mention of the 25th anniversary celebration in June, the annual potluck picnic at the Lawrence Myers home in July and the past matron's luncheon at the Yacht Club in August.

The worthy matron reviewed committees for the year and appointed new members to fill vacancies. She also announced her plans for the remainder of the year.

Dwight Kircher, Layton Hoback, associate patron and George Brantlachi, worshipful master of No. 197 of Chiloquin, discussed progress in renovation of the Masonic Hall.

A letter was read from Louise Irving, worthy grand matron, asking if the chapter desired the district meeting. Because of the work to be done on the hall, the group decided against such a meeting.

The worthy patron introduced and welcomed the following guests: Mrs. Christine Kroggel, Whittier, California; Mrs. Marie Orem, Fort Klamath; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mudge, Madiera, California.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Marion Mudge and Mrs. Hazel Steiger.

Winning is fun. But you cannot leave life to luck. Christianity is the sure thing. The Episcopal Church can help you learn about it.

Jean Owens-Maurice Deller Plight Troth September 5th In First Methodist Church

A beautiful autumn wedding was solemnized September 5 uniting in marriage Jean Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vern Owens, 2939 Fremont, and Maurice (Bud) Deller, older son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Deller, 2025 Eerie. Friends and relatives of the families and college classmates of the couple witnessed the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Methodist Church, the Rev. Lloyd F. Holloway, officiant.

Mrs. George McIntyre, organist, played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" for the processional and the traditional Mendelssohn's March for the recessional. Mrs. Walter Badorek (Jean Adams) sang "Oh Perfect Love" and Mattie's "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. McIntyre.

Jean, given in marriage by her father, was a lovely bride in her exquisite gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon net over slipper satin. The fitted lace bodice was styled with a vee neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The dress was designed with a very full three-quartered length lace overskirt over the floor length net skirt which flared into a misty train.

A lace tiara outlined with scallops of seed pearls and studded with iridescent sequins held in place her fingertip veil of nylon illusion. She wore the traditional blue sarter given to her by an old friend and a "lucky" penny was placed in her slipper. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom.

Large baskets of white gladioli and white larkspur flanked the background arrangement of huge sprays of woodwardia fern softly illuminated by lighted tapers in double candelabra.

Patty Teale, sorority sister, was maid of honor. She wore a mayflower rose color dress made with bouffant nylon net skirt, waist length. The strapless bodice was crystalite and net, worn with a "suggie" bolero of the crystalite. Her hat was of matching material with a tiny ruffle of net with velvet bows the "perky" black detail. She carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mary Hooker and Bernadene Bartz (Eugene) sorority sisters of Jean's, and Virginia Van Doren, a close friend from childhood. All wore dresses and hats identical to the maid of honor's, and carried nosegays of white carnations and pink rose buds.

David Deller was best man for his brother. Ushers were Jim Owens, brother of the bride, John Pihax and Robert Brunner, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom from Portland.

Mrs. Owens chose an afternoon dress of pale pink peau de soie and a small iridescent pink hat. Her corsage was of white cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Deller wore a waist length dress of blue silk lace over taffeta and a pink tulle hat with rhinestone trim.

Her corsage was pink cymbidium orchids.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony where about 300 guests gathered to congratulate the couple.

The couple cut the first piece of their beautiful four tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern circled the base and completed the pretty setting.

Pouring coffee were Mrs. Clarence Bleil and Mrs. M. E. Carlin, suits of bride; and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor.

Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore and Mrs. Eugene Hooker sat and served the wedding cake. At the punch bowl were Meta Jean Frink, sorority sister and former roommate from Medford; and Donna Lee Deller, cousin of the bridegroom from Roseburg. Frances Stearns assisted the guests and Mrs. Jim Davidson passed the initialed boxes of bridegroom's cake.

Assisting were Mrs. Ed Bell, Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. L. A. Murphy and Mrs. Joan Van Doren.

For their wedding trip to San Francisco, Jean wore a dark red wool suit with black suede bag and shoes, a small black velvet hat, white gloves and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Jean has completed two years the University of Oregon where she is affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. Maurice is a senior student at Oregon State College and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. They will be at home in Corvallis where both will continue their college studies.

Out of town guests for the wed-

Deller, Donna Lee and Jim, Maurice's uncle, aunt and cousins from Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart B. Chandler from Castella, California; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. R. Nicholson and daughter Patay; Mrs. Stewart Nicholson and daughter Marie; and Mrs. Ira Orem from Port Klamath.

Also from Eugene were sorority sisters Barbara Bailey, Dolores Tye, Barbara Kennedy, and Patty Jeske. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Springer from Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shepherd; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olson; Bob Sullivan and Norman Koch all from Corvallis.

On Friday, September 3, Mrs. Owens and Jean entertained the bridesmaids and their mothers at luncheon in the Empire Room at the Winema Hotel. Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, September 4, Mr. and Mrs. Deller and Mr. and Mrs. Owens were dinner hosts at Jen-Eds. Places were set for members of the wedding party, the Rev. and Mrs. Holloway; out of town relatives and fraternity and sorority guests.
