

KF Camp Fire Girls Plan Annual Membership March

In the Klamath area 1,006 Camp Fire Girls and adults in the Camp Fire family have embarked on their annual 10-week membership march, according to an announcement made today by Naomi French, executive director. The slogan of the campaign, which will extend through November 30, is "Be Friendly - Make Friends - Join the Camp Fire Girls!"

In announcing the drive to enlist more girls and adult volunteers in the Camp Fire program, Mrs. French released a commendatory message from Francis Matthews, Klamath County juvenile officer. His message reads:

"I strongly urge every civic-minded man and woman in the Klamath Basin to take advantage of the current invitation to join the Camp Fire circle. Camp Fire is a real family affair, where the influence of the home is of paramount concern in the program enjoyed by the girls. Women make their most valuable contribution through their roles as group leaders, guiding youngsters along the trail to happy living. Men, along with women, contribute to the Camp Fire program by serving as group sponsors and by taking an active role on committees where their special skills can be used to full advantage.

"Although there are many girls in our community who are enjoying the fun and friendship activities of Camp Fire, there are countless others who are eager to join groups. These are the girls we want to reach but in order to extend membership benefits to them we must enroll more adult volunteers — the backbone of any youth organization. We who accept this opportunity and respond to the challenge of it are privileged persons. What can be more exciting than to observe and contribute to the blooming of a youthful personality and character? What can be more stimulating than to find that we are able to grow and bloom again ourselves? Let's reach and take that hand, shall we?"

In line with their membership

Unwed Mother

GEO. N. TAYLOR

The beautiful Beth Sheba sent word to King David that as a result of his calling her into the castle, a babe was to be born to them. At that David had Uriah, the husband of Beth Sheba, sent to where he would surely be slain and slain Uriah was. When the days of her mourning were past, David took Beth Sheba to be his wife. But the slaying of Uriah and David's adultery displeased the Lord and he took the newborn babe, leaving David to mourn its death.

ALL SIN—David sinned and the Bible says that somewhere along the way, all of God's saved folks commit some sin and get out of step. Tell God your sin and take forgiveness of him. Christ already died for that sin also. — 1 John 1:8. This Message sent by an Oregon Lumberman & Wife. Adv.
