TRUDY BRAMLETT BRIDE IN LOVELY FALL WEDDING

MRS. JOSEPH MOSER WILKINS

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH was the scene of one of the season's outstanding weddings, when Gertrude Grace (Trudy) Bramlett, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bramlett, became the bride of Joseph Moser Wilkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Waggoner, all of Klamath Falls. The Rev. Galen Onstad read the marriage service in a setting of yellow and bronze arrangements of spider and pompon chrysanthemums effectively accented with shiny croton leaves. In the large circle, the bride and bridegroom exchange happy

OTI. WOMEN SPECIAL GUESTS AT GARDEN TEA

WOMEN FROM OTI... (faculty members and wives of faculty members) were formally introduced to Klamath Falls women at an informal garden tea given recently by Mrs. John H. Martin in her beautifully landscaped back yard, 1111 Pacific Terrace. In a series of cold, wet and unpleasant days, the day of the tea was bright and sunny — perfect for the enjoyment of the outdoor event shared by approximately

200. Tea hours were from 3 to 5 in the afternoon, but a major portion of the guests came early and stayed beyond the established terminal hour, gathered in conversation clusters about the garden. Top pictures were taken looking down from the upper terrace, left; and at the right, those of the assisting girls, Sue and Cecelia Vandenberg with Marcia Wilson

(in the polka dot), on the steps to the upper terrace. Lower left, Mrs. Winston D. Purvine, wife of OTI director, left; Mrs. Walter Hoag, center; and Mrs. James Bayle. Center picture, Mrs. Gerald Cote, OTI dean of women, left; the hostess, center; and Mrs. Robert L. Smith, wife of OTI dean of students. At the right, Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, Mrs. Floyd Wynn, center; and Mrs. H. O. Juckland. — All tea photos by Kettler
