

ROBERTS-HUBBLE RITES IN MALIN CHURCH

ONE LITTLE FLOWER GIRL... Diane Whitmore, doesn't seem to share the note of levity generally expressed by the wedding group above. The bride and bridegroom, center, were married in the Malin Community Church, September 12; and their marriage is of wide interest in the Klamath Basin.

She was Wilma Hubble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. King Hubble, and he is Charles Roberts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts Sr., all of Bonanza. With them in the picture, other than Diane, is the other flower girl, Twilla Hubble, both nieces of the bride; Shirley Hubble, who was maid of honor for her sister; and Don Hubble, their brother, who served as best man.

BONANZA — An early fall wedding at the Malin Community Church, September 12, united in marriage a Bonanza couple, Wilma Hubble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. King Hubble, and Charles Roberts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts Sr.

The impressive candlelight double-ring service was read at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Carl C. DeMott before a background of gladioli and dahlias.

Mrs. Lucille Gray played the wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Herringshaw, who sang "Through the Years" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white slipper-satin gown with square neckline, empire bodice and floor length skirt with a long train.

The fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a crown of orange blossoms. She wore the traditional blue garter, a good luck penny in her shoe and the something "old" and "new." Her bouquet was of red roses.

Maid of honor was her sister, Shirley Hubble, who wore a dress of white satin with blue net overskirt, ballerina length. Her bouquet was of salmon camellias.

Don Hubble, brother of the bride, was best man. Ronald Roberts and Garry Roberts, brother and cousin of the bridegroom, ushered. Candelighters were Lois and Louise Hubble, twin sisters of the bride.

They wore matching yellow dresses, and pink and yellow carnations were entwined on the candles they carried.

Nieces of the bride, Diane Whitmore and Twilla Hubble, were her flower girls, in matching pink nylon ballerina length dresses with pink and yellow carnation headbands.

Mrs. Hubble chose a navy blue suit with white accessories and a white camellia corsage for her daughters' wedding. Mrs. Roberts wore a grey suit with pink accessories and a white camellia corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. After the newlyweds cut the first piece of their three tiered wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Pavitt Newham, sister of the bride.

Mrs. Leon Roberts, aunt of the bridegroom, was at the coffee service and Mrs. Cecil Whitmore, another sister of the bride, served the punch. Mrs. Vernon Hubble, Mrs. Lloyd Hubble and Mrs. Dick Craven assisted. Lois and Louise Hubble carried the guest book.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Roberts wore a beige fall suit with red accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. The young couple's honeymoon trip was through the Redwoods. They are now at home in Bonanza.

Honored guests at the wedding were Mrs. Katie Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDowell and Willard Ball of Central Point; C. F. Roberts, Ventura, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shelton of Wasco, California and Shirley Jean Hubble of Vancouver, Washington.

PIANO RECITAL

EASTSIDE — Mrs. Helen Bradley, local piano and accordion teacher presented three of her piano pupils in a formal private recital at the Bradley home on the evening of September 17 at 7:30.

The honored students were Gloria Ayoutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayoutt, Joyce Robnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Robnett, all of New Pine Creek; and Zella O'Neill daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neill of the Eastside.

This recital was a reward from their teacher for having memorized eight musical selections from both the popular and classical groups.

Dessert Bridge

BONANZA — Mrs. Birdie Burk entertained with a 1:30 p.m. dessert bridge at her home September 15. High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Cecil Haley won the traveling prize.

Guests enjoying the party were Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Claude Bechold, Mrs. Bill Bechold, Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Lloyd Sparks.

Parents-Patrons Reception For Merrill School Teachers

MERRILL — Faculties of both Merrill schools were honored at the annual Parent - Patron teacher's reception Thursday evening, September 16, at the grade school.

OES Manzanita Chapter No. 172

Manzanita Chapter No. 172 OES met Friday night September 17, at the IOOF Hall. Worthy Matron Lois Gueck and Worthy Patron Everett Blehn presiding. Helen McCormack, grand representative of New York in Oregon, Edith Barleen, mother advisor of Rainbow for Girls; and Dorothy Montgomery, Cascade Crest, first time visitor, were given a hearty welcome by the members.

Honoring Obligation Night an addendum was given by Thelma Fink, Ellen Wade, Dorothy Loomis, Vera Fritsch, Lorene McCollum, Letitia Dunn, Irene Ongman and Mina Huff.

Refreshment committee members were Lorene McCollum, Mary Anderson, Helen McCormack and Edith Barleen.

Mrs. George Rankin, president, was general chairman.

Colorful arrangements of fall flowers centered the tables in the cafeteria where the potluck supper was served to almost 300 teachers and parents. The crowd later assembled in the gym for the evening's program.

Mrs. Rankin introduced the teachers and announced the musical program. Incidental music was played by Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty followed by a community sing with Mrs. Lester Moore leading. Jack Ratliff, head of the Merrill Sheep Club, introduced members and told of the awards they won at the recent state fair.

Nancy Dewey and Donna Drago played a piano duel. Betty Ann Chapman entertained with a tap dance routine; and an accordion solo by Jackie Barry ended the program.

Corsages and boutonnières were presented the teachers, and each wore a little red school house name tag. Meetings of the organization are the second Tuesdays of each month, and all interested are urged to join.

Shower For Mrs. Bill Steppe

MALIN — A surprise baby shower for Mrs. Bill Steppe of Klamath Falls was given at the home of Mrs. Mervyn Wilde, Tuesday evening, September 14. Co-hostess was Mrs. Herman Vowell.

Games were played during the evening after which the honored guest opened her gifts. The table was centered with a stork and blue parasols.

The guest list included, Mrs. Don Colwell, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. Basil Brown, Mrs. Carroll Brunton, Mrs. Les Mowdy, Mrs. R. W. Saunders, all of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Dale Sprout, Tulelake; Mrs. Dale Walker, Merrill; and Mrs. Hubert Morelock, Malin.

It's designed on an entirely new beauty-principle... combining princess styling with circular stitching of Nylo-Braid—a miracle new figure-making material, exclusive with Formfit. A look inside and you'll get the "inside story" of the Life Romance beauty secret.

Won't lose its shape even after countless sudings. Won't wilt on hot, sticky days. Always keeps its fresh, dainty look and feel.

New Life Romance No. 566... in cool cotton broadcloth. Inner-stitching of Nylo-Braid for a lovelier, more lasting uplift. Washes beautifully! 32A to 38C. Only $2.00.

VFW Auxiliary

MERRILL — The VFW Auxiliary Post 4056 met September 15, in the recreation hall. Plans were discussed for a rummage sale on October 15 in the building next door to the Ben Franklin store. Katie Merrilees chairman asks that persons having rummage to donate call her.

The club's entry in the Potato Festival parade was discussed and the following committee appointed: Marjorie Hodges, chairman; Luana Ratliff, Marian Knox, Virginia Perry and Margaret Loper assistants.

A membership drive for paid-up dues is now in progress, and it is hoped that they will be able to equal last year's record of 100 per cent when they were awarded a ribbon from the state office.

Joan Trotman is chairman of the drive assisted by Bessie Duncan and Norma Wilson.

Christmas plans for the disabled veteran at Camp White who the auxiliary has adopted were discussed and will be completed in the near future.

Members present included Margaret Loper, Luana Ratliff, Joan Trotman, Bessie Duncan, Nellie Fieck, Frances Brandenburg, Mary Lou Swisher, Myrtle Rippey, Marian Knox, Vivian Cunningham, Katie Merrilees, Barbara McKoen, Germaine Shelton, Norma Wilson, Ida Fleck, Pat Duncan and Marjorie Hodges.
