MALIN RAINBOW INSTALLATION

MALIN—Malin Rainbow Assembly's 17 installation was held at the Malin Masonic Hall Friday, September 10 at 8 p.m., before a host of friends and members.

Barbara Bunnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bunnell, was installed as worthy adviser of the assembly.

A welcome address was given by Mrs. Florence Wilson, hostess for the evening. Past Worthy Adviser Pearl Ottoman was installing officer.

Honored guests escorted to the east and introduced were: Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, grand deputy for Rainbow in Oregon; Jean Loveness, grand love of the Rainbow grand assembly; Roberta Wade, worthy adviser, Klamath Falls Assembly; Patti Smith, Elizabeth McVey and Darla Sarutski, past worthy advisers, Malin assembly; Mrs. Doris Smith, worthy matron Prosperity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; and past mother advisers Malin assembly: Mrs. Agnes Schreiner and Mrs. Ethel Hamilton.

Following the installation of worthy adviser, Barbara Bunnell, other officers were installed as follows: worthy associate adviser, Jean Loveness; Charley, Lucille Weber; Hope, Lynette Lyon; Faith, Carolyn Fargo; recorder, Janice Sarutski; treasurer, Diane Micka; chaplain, Lou Ann Kandra; drill leader, Roxanne Wilson; Love, Mary Ann Evans; Religion, Esther Beasley; nature, Jane Hensel; immortality, Marie Rogers; fidelity, Kathryn Micka; patriotism, Dena Fields; service, Marianna Vacknitz; confidential observer, Joan Freitag; outer observer, Norma Micka; musician, Artie Micka; and choir director, Shirley Mock.

Patriotism and fidelity were the watch words chosen by Barbara for her term; and her projects will be to visit residents at the Klamath Nursing home, taking them candy or gifts; send a Care package overseas; and have a talent show. Proceeds made during her term will go toward purchasing two tables for the Masonic Hall dining room.

The new worthy adviser presented her bouquet of red roses to her mother; and her white Bible, topped with a white flower, to her father. Her parents, sisters and an aunt were then introduced.

Retiring worthy adviser, Pearl Ottoman, was honored with an addenda in which seven of her officers took part. The addenda, written by Mrs. Florence Wilson, was "Wheel of Fortune." Each girl carried colored strips of crepe paper for the spokes of the wheel and Pearl was the hub, symbolizing her as their hub in all Rainbow activities during their term of office together.

Pearl presented a check to Prosperity Chapter to be used to buy equipment for the kitchen. The check was accepted by worthy matron, Doris Smith.

Musical entertainment was by Cora Enman, Henley, at the piano. Following installation, refreshments were served from a lace covered buffet table. Colors of blue and white were carried out in the flowers and candles. A large cake bearing the names of Pearl and Barbara was served with punch and coffee.

Merrill BPW

MERRILL — The Merrill Business and Professional Women's Club met in the Presbyterian Church social parlor September 15, for a 6:45 dinner followed by business meeting.

The program was in charge of health and safety chairman Vivian Trotman, and she introduced her husband Dr. F. E. Trotman, whose topic was "Live Long and Like II." Eva Cook, one of the guests at the meeting gave a short talk urging everyone to register and vote in the coming general election.

Visitors included Dr. Trotman, Mrs. Cook, Flo Ann Perkins, Frances Koertje, Della Winther, Marjorie Comer, Nancy Putnam and Beulah Elliot. Members attending were Della Hodges, Mamie Glanville, Vivian Trotman, Eva Bowman, Myrtle Beasley, Bessie West, Lillian Thomas, Kathleen Brickner, Audrey Lewis, Harriet Fotheringham, Alma Elbert and Helen Brumley.

Pre-Nuptial Tea For Pat Prather

The S.M. (Speed) Harrington home, 4623 Peck Drive, was the charming setting for a recent bridal tea given by Mrs. Harrington for Patricia Joann Prather, bride-elect of Mrs. Harrington's son, Eugene P. Ross.

The lace draped tea table was centered with a heart shaped arrangement of delicate pink rosebuds and snapdragons flanked with lighted pink tapers in silver candleabra, background for the novel miniature bridal party — including bride, bridegroom and attendants. Arrangements of asters and sweet peas placed about the rooms completed the colorful decor.

Mrs. Charles McLin presided at the tea service; and the china she served in soon became the topic of conversation. Dainty cups and saucers of fine china were all different in pattern—but each had a matching plate—and the interesting pieces (all imported) in Mrs. Harrington's exquisite collection were acquired over a period of years.

one at a time, from domestic and foreign sources.

The cakes for the small, intimate tea were personalized with the names "Pat and Gene" inscribed in the prevailing shades of pink.

Invited to greet or meet Mrs. Harrington's future daughter-in-law were Mrs. Lester Tinker, Mrs. Dick Owens, Mrs. Charles McLin, Mrs. Chester Brown, Mrs. E. F. Anderson, Mrs. Jim Worden, Mrs. Lee Huff and Mrs. Carl Holm.

Mrs. Virgil Churchill, Mrs. Dean Lowell, Mrs. Jack Hunt, Mrs. L. H. Valentine, Mrs. Cecil Prather, Mrs. Nora Brown, Mrs. Jerald Nelson, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. J. W. Young and Karla Kay Prather, bride elect's sister.

BRIDGE PARTY

HENLEY — Mrs. Wallace Thompson entertained the Bid or Bye Bridge Club at her country home, Friday afternoon September 10. Arrangements of Mrs. William Jeffcoat's lovely sweet peas decorated the rooms. A frozen dessert and cookies were served to the three tables of players. Those enjoying the afternoon of cards were: Mrs. Fred Beymer, who won high; Mrs. Irvin Campbell, traveling; Mrs. Harvey Wise, low; Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. Vern Berry, Mrs. Clarence Goyer, Mrs. Robert Norris, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. Ronald Whitlatch, Mrs. William Jeffcoat and Mrs. Forest Breithaupt.
