

CHECKING HEMP in readiness for the coming Merrill Rodeo are (l to r) these officer of the newly incorporated Merrill Rodeo Club, Bob Heaton, vice president, Bill Hill, president and Dick Reeves, secretary-treasurer. New corals and chutes have been completed and the field is floodlighted for night shows. There are 30 active members all from well-known Klamath Basin families. The organization proceedings were started two years ago. There will be matched team roping, calf roping, cow riding and team roping events at the first show, open to all comers.

A-3c VIRGIL YADON, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yadon, 3011 Cortez, has entered the USAF Technical School for Aircraft Mechanics at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas. Prior to his enlistment June 4, he attended and was graduated from Henley High School.

'Grassman' To Be Picked

Many Oregon counties have named their "Grassman of the Year" for 1954 and agricultural leaders are currently preparing their candidates' applications for the Oregon "Grassman of the Year" award sponsored by the Portland Chamber of Commerce. A reminder of the October 15 deadline for these reports has been issued by James M. Coon, chairman of the Portland chamber's "Grasslands" committee.

County "Grassman" selected and honored thus far include: Arthur Peterson, Warrenton, Clatsop County; Leo Kaufman, Knusel-Kaufman Dairy Farm, Scappoose, Columbia County; Marvin Young, Venator, Harney County; Larry O. German, Lebanon, Linn County; Louis Wettstein, Ontario, Malheur County; Cecil and Walter Smith, Aurora, Marion County; Herbert R. Ekstrom, Ione, Morrow County; Pete Brandt, Rickreall, Polk County; John and Walter Naegeli, Tillamook, Tillamook County; F. S. Green and Son, Stanfield, Umatilla County; T. S. (Jack) Tippet, Joseph, Wallowa County; Ulrich Ber-weger, Sherwood, Washington County; H. C. Maynard, McMinnville, Yamhill County.
