

MRS. DONALD THOMAS... the former Mary Jean Cochrane, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cochrane, 21 West Oregon. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, Beaverton.

Mary Jean Cochrane Bride In Klamath Lutheran Church

Another — in the parade of pretty September brides, was Mary Jean Cochrane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cochrane, 21 West Oregon. She exchanged vows with Donald Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, Beaverton, in Klamath Lutheran Church September 18.

The Rev. Kent Spaulding read the double-ring service at 4 p.m. before a background of white gladioli with touches of aqua and coral — in the glow of candlelight.

Mrs. Arthur Denison, organist, accompanied vocal soloist, Richard Melum.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace and frothy net over tulle. Floor length, with insets of the lace in the full skirt which billowed from the fitted waistline, the dress was made with a Peter Pan collar, long, snug sleeves, pointed at the wrist — and a strapless-effect under-bodice of satin shimmering through the lace top.

A Juliet lace cap of net, pearl-trimmed, held her fingertip veil of tulle. She carried a small arrangement of white roses and stephanotis tied with satin ribbon.

Barbara Hemrick, maid of honor, former nursing school roommate of the bride; wore a white flowered organza dress over coral tulle. A matching coral tulle sash accentuated the full skirt and the tiny waistline of the bodice which was made with a round neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a basket of coral gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lou's Holzman (Dolores Kilday) and Mrs. Lowry Hoyer, brides' cousins, wore duplicates of maid of honor's dress with aqua tulle; and they carried aqua gladioli. Mrs. Hoyer is a former Klamath Falls resident and was Marlene Peterson before her marriage.

Joe Thomas served his brother as best man; and another brother, John, ushered with Louis Holzgang.

Bride's mother chose a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding; and her corsage was of talisman roses. Light blue shantung was the choice of the bridegroom's mother. She wore gold-tone accessories and her corsage was of talisman roses.

At the reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Dale Webber and Mrs. Henry Gulland poured. Mrs. Walter Hemrick and Mrs. August Larson, bride's aunt and served the cake. Mrs. Harold Brunner registered the guests; Mrs. Jack Cornett and Mrs. Archie Cochrane, bride's aunt, were at the gift table.

For the wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Northern California and Nevada, the bride wore a light blue linen dress with white accessories. They will live in Beaverton, where the bridegroom was graduated from high school in '51. He is presently with the Portland Gas Company. The new Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of KUHS '51, and Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing in Portland.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brunner, Mrs. Emma Broder and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Swanson, all Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Hoyer, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Gertrude Peterson and Clark, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Wilbur, Corvallis (they attended the bride's parents when they were married; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gulland, Santa Clara.

Various showers and parties were pre-nuptial events in honor of the bride; and included a surprise shower given by Mrs. Louis Holzgang in July at her home, 560 Conger, with a guest list of 12.

Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Joe Thomas — surprise shower at Beaverton in August; and a miscellaneous shower at home of Mrs. Jack Cornett, 11 West Oregon, in September.

The after rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's parents at home, Friday evening September 17. It was buffet for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

Mrs. Alice Hamilton, who underwent major surgery for fractures in her upper right leg is improving in a Tacoma hospital. While Mrs. Hamilton's residence is in Klamath Falls, she is well known in this area, having been stationed as lookout for the U. S. Indian Forest Service on Boundary Butte east of Fort Klamath for the past 10 years. Mrs. Hamilton, 71, has made annual trips to Huckleberry Mountain since she was seven years old, and, having resigned her job this year, set up her camp at the mountain in August, planning to stay all summer.

Early this month, while helping a neighboring camper set up a tent, the ridgepole fell across her leg, inflicting three fractures.

She is now able to be up in a wheel chair, according to information received from Mrs. Bert Hamilton, wife of Mrs. Hamilton's nephew. The couple accompanied her to Tacoma.

Mrs. Hamilton will be confined to the hospital for an indefinite period, guards and messages may be sent to Cushman Indian Hospital, Tacoma, Washington.

BULLETIN BOARD

Fix up a special place in the house where the youngsters can display their school work these months. Parents should know that the kindergarten brings home so proudly, together with the pages of perfect lessons that the older children like to display. A bulletin board, with plenty of thumb tacks, is a good answer.

Josephine Robinson is chairman of the day; and reservations not made through the calling committee may be made with her.

June Ellervatt, entertainment chairman, announces that Roberta Blomquist of the Klamath Union High School faculty will present a group of her dramatic students.

Cards will be played after the meeting if time permits.
