BRIDE WITH HER MOTHER

COUPLE AT COLLEGE IN EUGENE AFTER HOME WEDDING IN GARDEN

LANGELL VALLEY — Sunday September 5 was a perfect day for the wedding of Elna Mae Fitzhugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fitzhugh, Langell Valley, and Kaye Chester Robinette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Robinette of Spring Lake.

The Rev. Lloyd Holloway officiated at the double-ring 2 p.m. exchange of vows before a background of evergreens and white gladioli under a natural arch of locust and apple trees on the lawn of the Ivan Boley home. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a waltz length gown of white tulle over satin. Her fingertip veil of tulle and lace was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and white sequins. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid.

The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Ruth Galloway of Tulelake, whose dress of Nile green tulle over satin was patterned after the bride's. She wore a spiderweb cap of yellow carnations, and carried a matching bouquet.

Myron Hurlbut was the best man, and Ernest Mathes and Alton Ward ushered.

Soloist, the Rev. William Ainley sang "Always," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Perry Stampor at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fitzhugh chose a black faille suit, with a corsage of yellow gladioli. Mrs. Robinette wore a gray crepe dress with a pink carnation corsage.

The reception was on an adjoining part of the lawn. The beautiful four-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Orval De Vault, Mrs. Ivan Bold and Mrs. Cecil Haley.

Mrs. DeVault and Mrs. Wilbur Robinette cut and served the cake. Mrs. Perry A. Stampor, sister of the bridegroom, served the punch; and Mrs. Ivan Boley, sister of the bride, poured coffee.

Deanna Campbell passed the bell and Mrs. Ray Davis were at guest book, and Mrs. John Campbell the gift table.

For traveling, the bride wore an autumn suit with the orchid from her bouquet pinned at the shoulder. The young couple enjoyed a honeymoon at Bend, are now at home in Eugene, where both are attending the University of Oregon.
