Malin Teachers Greeted on 21st

MALIN — A large crowd turned out Tuesday evening September 21 at the Malin High School Auditorium to meet and welcome teachers of both the elementary and high school staffs.

The business meeting was conducted by president Frank Hale, who also acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the teachers.

Business discussed and voted upon was to have a food booth at the Merrill Potato Festival; and a rummage sale during harvest.

During the next month a membership drive will be held in the elementary school rooms; and the room bringing in the most membership dues from parents will receive a prize. Special guest for the meeting was Sergeant D. Trainer of the Ground Observer Corps, who spoke on the urgent need for more sky-watchers.

Corsages made by the Malin Garden Club members were presented to the women teachers and a boutonniere to the men, as they were introduced: Dorothy Gordon, first grade; Stella Brown, first and second; Margaret McHenry, second; Irena Jelinek, third; Elsie Mook, fourth; Betty Miller, fifth; and Frank Hale, principal. A. E. Street, high school principal introduced Barbara Cooper, Norma Petrusek, Mildred Toell, Jim Conroy, Art Robinson, Don Miller, Robert Bitney, Charles Dobry, Barbara Welmer and Mrs. Robert Bitney.

Ella Johnson and Lela Thurman, teachers at the Malin Labor Camp were also introduced, as well as cafeteria cooks, Mrs. Joe Illian, Mabel Cunningham and Nell Woods. Recognition was given Janitors, Joe Illian and Jim Fowler. School board members are Bill Rajnus, Ed Stastny and Vats Kallina.

A girls' quartet sang "Carolina Moon," accompanied at the piano by Marie DeMott. The four were Eureka Cook, Dianne Micka, Barbara Bunnell and Joan Freitag. Marie DeMott also played two piano solos entitled, "Water Carnival" and "Gypsy Violins."
