

One Hunter Fatally Shot As Brother Mistakes Him For Deer; Seven More Die

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gordley Bean, 30, of Gaston, was the first shooting victim of Oregon's deer season. He was wounded fatally when mistaken for a deer by his brother, James Bean, Corner Graham Young of Washington County reported.

Seven other hunters have died of natural causes and another was killed in a traffic accident while en route to a hunting camp. Bean was clad in dungarees, a green and black checked shirt and a dark hat, Young said. His wife and 5-year-old son were in the hunting party but did not see the accident which occurred early Sunday near Forest Grove. The heart attack victims were: George Lee Croft, 68, of Bend, reported missing Saturday and found dead in the woods 60 miles south of Harper Sunday. Alvin James Thomas, 68, Milton-Freewater, found dead in his car north of Tullgate Saturday. Olney A. Lake, Portland, who died Sunday of a heart seizure while on a hunting trip near Bend. Frank Peral Peek, 70, North Bend, stricken Monday while hunting in the Scottsburg area 30 miles east of Reedsport. Ward L. Graves, Lakeview, who died in a hospital Sunday following a heart attack suffered Saturday at his hunting camp in the Lakeview area.

Crime Buster Backs Ullman

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee Monday criticized the Eisenhower administration's power policies and urged election of Albert C. Ullman, the Democratic nominee, as Eastern Oregon Congressman.

Kefauver, speaking at Ontario, said the administration "has" officially abandoned to a little group of power barons the opportunity to decide how much power will be produced, where it will be produced and how much they will charge for it. He said that election of Ullman would "show the people of Eastern Oregon have repudiated the administration policy to give away Hells Canyon Dam and our other river resources to monopoly interest."

NAAWP Boss On Stump For Action

BALTIMORE (AP)—With the experience of one integration battle behind him, a Southern-born ex-Marine took over leadership last night of a battle to segregate Baltimore public school pupils. W. Bryant Bowles, president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, climbed on the back of a truck at an auto raceway to boast to a crowd of 800 that under his leadership Negroes were forced out of schools in Millford, Del., "without a fist being swung."

"We told them in Delaware we'd help them if they would avoid violence and we're telling you the same thing," Bowles said. Police Commissioner Beverly Ober did some telling of his own. Speaking over all three of the city's television stations, Ober warned that under city law any person disturbing any public school in session is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who induces or attempts to induce any child to absent himself from school also is liable to prosecution, he said.

AL ULLMAN'S WEEKLY DISCUSSION ON ISSUES OF VITAL IMPORTANCE TO YOU

has he flunked?

A look at the record shows why my supporters believe that the freshman Congressman from Eastern Oregon—Sam Coon—is going to be flunked out at the end of his freshman term. "Who has Sam Coon done for Eastern Oregon?" they ask. First, let's look at agriculture. The Congressman from this district should have some record of achievement for farmers and ranchers. Let's look at the record.

Knowing full well the right acreage control program of the administration, Coon voted to reduce farm parity by another 1 1/2 per cent. This will cut the earning power of farmers of Eastern Oregon by six to eight million dollars next year and will reduce the purchasing power of many to the zero point. This move strikes at the future of every little businessman in Eastern Oregon. The vote against the farmer was inescapable.

What did Coon do for the taxpayers of Eastern Oregon? First, he voted for the tax cuts for big corporations and the dividend holders. Second, he voted against the tax cuts for working people and small businessmen. Of the total tax reductions, not more than 5 per cent of the people of Eastern Oregon will receive any appreciable benefit.

What has Coon done on resources—on land, timber and water? He has gone down the line with Douglas McKay on the greatest sellout of our Eastern Oregon resources since we took the land from the Indians. He favored and worked for a bill on public forests sponsored by the big cattle operators—a land grab by special interests.
