

Italy, Yugoslavia Settle Long Dispute On Trieste, Boundary Stays 'Same'

ROME (AP)—Italy and Yugoslavia formally settled their bitter nine-year dispute over the Trieste Free Territory Tuesday and agreed on its division between them.

The division virtually coincides with the occupation boundaries established in 1945, with Italy getting the key Adriatic port of Trieste and Yugoslavia retaining the zone she has occupied since World War II.

The settlement, signed in London at noon Tuesday, and announced simultaneously in Rome and Belgrade, is expected to make possible the closing of the last gap in the Western defense line across Southeastern Europe. Although both Italy and Yugoslavia are strongly anti-Russian, they had refused to cooperate militarily in the past because of their rivalry over Trieste.

The next step may be inclusion of Italy in the Balkan anti-aggression alliance which Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey signed in August.

The agreement was a triumph for U. S.-British diplomacy, which prodded the two Adriatic sea neighbors through long negotiations in London, Washington, New York, Rome and Belgrade.

At midmorning, Italy was taking the news of the agreement calmly, despite Fascist and Communist opposition to the settlement. Extraordinary police forces were on duty in Rome, Trieste and all major cities.

The Fascists oppose the compromise because Italy doesn't get all the territory. The Reds are against it because Moscow is

Under the agreement:

1. The Port of Trieste and the rest of zone A, except for a small strip on the southern border near Lazzaretto, go to Italy. The zone has been under British-American military occupation since World War II.

2. Zone B, along with the small Lazzaretto strip, becomes Yugoslav. The zone had been under Yugoslav control since Marshal Tito's partisans swarmed in on May 1, 1945.

3. The 3,000 Italians in the Lazzaretto strip can return to Italian-controlled territory and can be compensated for their holdings if they desire. Some already have begun moving.

4. Yugoslavia will have full access to the port of Trieste.

5. Minority rights are guaranteed for both Italians in Yugoslav territory and Yugoslavs in Italian territory.

6. The 3,000 American and nearly 2,000 British troops in zone A will be withdrawn in stages over the next three weeks.

7. The United States and Britain in a supplementary statement announced they consider the settlement as final. Neither Italy nor Yugoslavia officially waived its claim to that portion of the territory assigned the other. However, both actually expect the new boundaries to exist indefinitely.

OUR CHALET—International Girl Scout and Girl Guide Center, Adelboden, Switzerland, in the picturesque Alps was visited last summer by Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, regional representative for Girl Scouts in Klamath Falls. Girls from all parts of the world who qualify are chosen to visit the chalet.

Girl Scout Lodge Visited

High in the Swiss Alps near the town of Adelboden, nestles a beautiful lodge operated by and for Girl Scouts and Girl Guides of all nationalities. International friendship has always been a goal of the Girl Scouts, and Our Chalet, as it has been named, gathers representatives from all countries to its summer encampment. Skiing is close by, and the beautiful surrounding meadows and high mountains send its visitors home inspired.

Visitor to Our Chalet in May was Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, regional representative for Girl Scouts in Klamath Falls. She states that the lodge was a gift to the international organization by Mrs. James J. Storrow of Boston in 1932, and that its creed is "Each race, each creed, each nation, beneath this roof are one." All Girl Scouts dream of visiting it some day, and travel by sea, rail and bus to partake with girls of all countries and tongues of its outdoor activities and heart-warming stay at the chalet, but they must have an official introduction and make reservations in advance. Visitors other than scouts may

Wife Tells Of Brutal Whippings By Husband, Says She Chained To Bed

PORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP)—A 28-year-old mother told authorities yesterday her husband whipped her with sticks, gun butts and a rubber hose and chained her in bed with him at night.

Mrs. Doris Blackmore was hospitalized in serious condition. She is the mother of five children ranging in age from 2 to 8.

Her 33-year-old husband Cecil pleaded innocent at his arraignment to charges of assault with intent to do bodily harm. He was held in county jail after failing to post $5,000 bond.

In a signed statement, Mrs. Blackmore said the beatings took place over a two-month period, "sometimes twice a day." She said her husband twice broke gun stocks in beating her over the head and shoulders.

Under Sheriff Claude Emrick said Blackmore orally admitted beating his wife but denied breaking the gunstocks on her. The officer quoted Blackmore, a farmer, as saying he was jealous of his wife but did not explain why. Other investigators reported they found no support for such a motive. Mrs. Blackmore accuse her

SCD Sponsors Speech Fest

For the third consecutive year the three Klamath County Soil Conservation Districts are sponsoring a high school speaking contest. This year the topic to be presented by the students is "Water Problems in my District and on my farm (or ranch)."

The Klamath County finals are being presented this Friday evening October 8 at 8 o'clock at Henley High School. Students from Chiloquin, Bly, Bonanza, Merrill, Malin and Henley high schools will compete. The two winners of Friday's program will compete with the two Lake County winners the evening of October 15 at Bly High School. Prizes will be awarded the first and second place winners.

Supervisors of the Klamath County Soil Conservation Districts invite the public to attend this speaking program. Remember the time and place: 8 o'clock the evening of October 8 at Henley High School. Refreshments will be served.

Briton Sees Future Hope

SEATTLE (AP)—American and British differences over handling of the problem of Red China eventually will be resolved, the British ambassador to the United States said here Tuesday night.

But, Sir Roger Makins told the Foreign Affairs Symposium, it will take "patience, negotiation and hard work."

The ambassador said the British believe "that the Communist regime in Peiping has come to stay" and that it should be treated just as Communist Russia, which both Britain and the United States recognize, talk and negotiate with.

"There is," he said, "an increasing body of opinion elsewhere in the world" that failure to admit Communist China to the Chinese seat in the United Nations "is an unrealistic policy."

STRIKE
LONDON (AP)—Precious food supplies and valuable dollar-earning exports piled up on ships and on London's sprawling piers Wednesday as striking dockmen slowly brought the vast port to a standstill. The strikers planned a mammoth parade along the waterfront to air their grievances on overtime and working conditions.
