

Nevada On Boil Over Politics

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Nevada Democrats carried to the State Supreme Court today their battle for an election in November to fill the two-year balance of the late Democratic Sen. Pat McCarran's term.

The high court arranged to hear an appeal on an injunction won yesterday by the GOP against putting senatorial candidates on the November ballot. The court indicated it would rule swiftly.

With the Republican majority in the Senate only three seats, the legal maneuvering has taken on added drama and injected fuel into an otherwise lusterless Nevada election campaign.

At stake is whether Republican Gov. Charles Russell's appointee to the Senate, Reno Republican Atty. Ernest Brown—an Eisenhower supporter—will fill out the term or whether an election will be held next month to decide the successor.

Lester Summerfield, former GOP national committeeman from Nevada, won the preliminary round of the great legal hassle yesterday when Dist. Judge A. J. Macsirelli granted a permanent injunction.

Only last week, the State Superior Court rebuffed Summerfield's attempt to obtain a permanent injunction and sent him back to the lower courts first.

The Democrats are backed by a ruling from State Atty. Gen. William Mathews—a Democrat—that Brown's appointment is good only until the winner of a senatorial race is certified and takes office. That would be Jan. 3, 1955.

Summerfield maintains Nevada law provides that Brown stay in office for McCarran's full unexpired term.

House Blocking House In Chicopee

CHICOPEE, Mass. (AP)—James J. Gloster says he barely can get into his home because somebody left a two-family house on his front lawn.

Police investigating Gloster's complaint yesterday found construction men were moving the house as soon as possible but he declared: "I'm not going to let them move it now. I'm bringing court action against them for trespassing."

Pilot Avoids City With Flaming Ship

CHICAGO (AP)—An Air Force pilot whose F86-D jet caught fire 24,000 feet over Chicago last night, prevented the flaming plane from crashing in the metropolitan area by guiding it to the open countryside.

The pilot, 1st Lt. Edward F. Schroeder, 25, of St. Louis, parachuted to safety on a farm about 10 miles west of O'Hare field, on the city's northwest side. He suffered minor bruises.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exercising or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Two Die In Road Smashup

SALEM (AP)—Two California cars met head-on 11 miles south of here shortly after noon Wednesday, killing a San Francisco couple. Three of four in the other car were hurt. Coroner Leston W. Howell identified the victims from papers as E. W. O'Quinn, San Francisco, and Mrs. O'Quinn, presumably his wife. O'Quinn was 62.

Those in the other car were from Yucalpa, San Bernardino County, Calif. Salem Memorial Hospital listed them and their condition as:
