GOLDEN BRONZE FURNITURE sets the mood for candlelight dinners or buffet meals. Golden bronze blends with any interior color scheme and takes to contemporary or traditional room arrangements. Warm and muted in feeling, this tubing color has an affinity for a variety of other background colors and textures, permitting coordination with wood panelling, real or simulated brick walls, smooth or rough paint surfaces as well as wallpaper. The natural look of golden bronze is repeated in the table top, available in rich walnut or in different shades of woodgrain patterns and in the tweedy Spuntone upholstery. Citron, avocado or mocha are the colors for the textured chair fabrics. The tubing color is magnetically bonded and specially processed to avoid chipping, scuffs, rust and corrosion. Table top is made of Daystromite, a laminated plastic which is ripple-proof and warp-proof and resists stains, scratches and heat up to 275 degrees. Chair fabrics are washable. The line is available locally. — Photo courtesy Daystrom Furniture, Olean, N.Y.

LANGELL VALLEY

By CORA LEAVITT

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dutton of Madera, California, visited Sunday with the Bill Burnetts and the Jack Weimers.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowen spent a week visiting in Washington.

Mrs. Lula Brown and daughter, Mrs. Alice Berger, are visiting her two sons, Claude and Marvin Brown, ther families, other relatives and friends. They are from Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Johnson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and Mrs. Smith on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Walker spent Sunday at McCloud, California, with their daughter, Mrs. Jim Martin and family.

Mrs. Elliott House spent last week at Saginaw, Oregon.

J. C. Anton arrived Saturday from Hollywood, to visit his brother, O. C. Johnson and other relatives. He is now at Emmett, Idaho, visiting his nephew, Al Dearborn and family.

Mrs. Lloyd Gift is still at Cascade Apartments in Klamath Falls, and is much improved from her serious illness. She is able to be up part of each day in a wheel chair. So far no visitors except family are allowed. She wishes to thank her friends for their many kindnesses to her during her illness.

STRIKINGLY STRIPED in ricrac and buttoned to the waist in front, this Lanz original for fall is made of a delightful cotton print, imported from Austria and exclusive with Lanz. The three-quarter sleeves can be worn pushed up as here, or smoothed over the elbows. The print comes in either red or blue backgrounds. The line is handled in Klamath Falls.

Sour Dough Bread

When Mrs. Preston Walker was here recently with her husband, who is publisher of the Grand Junction (Colo.) Sentinel, she told how she makes French bread, using sour dough starter that came from Klamath Falls.

Using a regular recipe for two loaves of bread, scald one cup of milk, add 1 tablespoon melted butter, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt and, when luckewarm, a yeast cake that has been softened in ¼ cup lukewarm water. For the other cup of liquid she uses sour dough starter and proceeds as usual except for allowing the loaves to rise on a cookie sheet and slashing the tops diagonally. A pan of hot water is placed in the oven during the baking. (Note that soda is not added).

Results we got were good, judging from the voluntary compliments in a household which is never exposed to bakery bread.

VARIATION

Now from the Territorial Enterprise, published by Lucius Beebe in Virginia City, Nevada, comes Helen Evans Brown's recipe for sourdough bread. Here it is:

Dissolve a cake of yeast in a cup of warm water and add 4 cups of starter, 4 or more cups of flour, and 2 teaspoons of salt. Allow to double in bulk, then knead lightly, adding enough more flour to keep the dough from being sticky. (If possible, unbleached hard wheat flour should be used for this bread.)

Form into two long loaves, put on a greased cookie sheet and allow to double in bulk. Slash the tops with a razor blade, making several diagonal gashes. Put in a cold oven along with a pan of boiling water. Turn on oven and set at 400 degrees.

When the bread becomes firm, brush it with water. Repeat several times during the baking. When the bread is beginning to brown, reduce heat and cook until done—this state has arrived when the bread gives off a hollow sound when thumped.

Completely Irresistible
