Whisky Savings Prove Illegal
 LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Living close to a whisky distillery was just too much temptation for James Riggs, a janitor at a Bardonia Baptist church.
 When the distillery emptied a barrel and put inside, the father of 11 children would get the few drops remaining in the bottom.
 Finally, drop by drop, he built up a reserve of eight gallons of whisky. But officers found it in his home.
 After pleading guilty in federal court yesterday Riggs was sentenced to six months in jail for illegal possession of liquor.
