

REALTORS CONVENTION

REALTORS CONVENTION last week brought a host of real estate men and women to Klamath Falls for a lively series of meetings and social events. Pictures here were taken at the Klamath Yacht Club tea October 1, in honor of the visitors. Hours were from two to four-thirty.
Novel entertainment was the OTI "Sassy Souvenir Review" staged by OTI Faculty Wives and student models. Top left, from the left, Mrs. Richard Horn, Portland; Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Rudy Calaba and Mrs. Lee Ohmart, all of Salem. Mrs. Ohmart is the wife of the outgoing president of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards.
Other picture includes, same order, Mrs. Ron Fisher, entertainment; Mrs. Stephen Sabo, general convention chairman of womens activities; Mrs. Ragnar Johnson, wife of the Oregon Real Estate Commissioner; and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, hospitality chairman of the tea. (Story on inside page).

OWGA TOURNAMENT AT REAMES

THE "OWGA" on the fancy molded salad stands for Oregon Womens Golf Association . . . but Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, member of hostess committee, is stealing the thunder from the decorated dish with what appears to be a clever card—in reality a piece of cheese (small prop suggested by the photographer).
From the left, Mrs. P. D. Mead, chairman of day's social activities; Mrs. Frank Tarr, table decorations; Mrs. Ed Brosterhous, chairman of the snack bar; Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. L. D. Stephens, table decorations; and Mrs. John Robinson, chairman table decorations committee. Picture taken at the buffet luncheon on the day of the tournament.
