

MR. AND MRS. J. R. ROBBINS . . . Emmett, Idaho, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail, to Roland E. Biehn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Biehn, 2714 Kane Street. The affianced, both graduates of Boise Junior College, have set no wedding date. —Photo by Parker, Boise

THE ENGAGEMENT . . . of Barbara Baxter to Donald Mills, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Godfrey, 1842 Lexington Street. Prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mills, 624 North Second Street. The betrothed are both seniors at KUHS; and have set no date for the wedding.

MRS. CALLIE CLARK . . . Chilcoquin, announces the engagement of her daughter, Dona Marilyn to Jack Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Horton, 206 Michigan Avenue. The wedding date has been set for December 26, in the Chilcoquin Methodist Church, when Horton will be home on leave from Fort Riley where he is stationed in the army. Photo by Floyd

RECENTLY REVEALED . . . was the marriage of Elma Lee Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oris O. Moon, 3917 Frieda Avenue; to Jim Porras, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Porras, Redondo Beach, California.

Mrs. Moon went south to be at her daughter's wedding, which was in the Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach. The 8 p.m. service, September 10, was witnessed only by members of the families and very close friends.

An after-wedding dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents for the intimate group. The bridegroom attended school in Klamath Falls; and both of the newlyweds are KUHS graduates.

After a brief honeymoon to Santa Barbara the couple is now at home, 1205 Goodman, Redondo Beach. Porras was a student at Oregon State College and the University of Oregon.

AAUW Annual Fellowship Tea Scheduled for October 16th

The American Association of University Women annual Fellowship Silver Tea will be at the home of Mrs. Julien Eccles, 220 Conger Avenue, Saturday, October 16, Tea hours from 3 to 5 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all women in the Klamath Basin to attend.

PROSPERITY SOCIAL CLUB

MALIN — Prosperity Social Club regular monthly social meeting, was held September 23, at the home of Mrs. Howard Henderson. Emma Wilde, president, conducted the business meeting. Due to the success of the September food sale, members voted to stage a repeat October 16, at Wilde's Store. A solution was sought as to the best way to invest the money presented the club by the Rainbow Assembly.

As kitchen equipment for the Masonic Hall is badly needed, money received from club projects, will at present go there. Present for the meeting were, Nell Retherath, Frances Kalina, Mildred Deby, Margaret White, Ann Fruits, Thelma Clugston, Doris Smith and Gladys Halousek. Next meeting date of Prosperity Chapter, OES, is set for Thursday evening, October 14.

OES Manzanita Chapter No. 172

Master Mason's night was celebrated in conjunction with "Friendship Night" by Manzanita Chapter OES No. 172 at the IOOF Hall, October 1. Worthy matron, Lois Gueck, and worthy patron, Everett Biehn presiding.

Among the many distinguished members and visitors the following were honored, Letha Murphy, grand committee member of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Helen McCormack, grand representative of New York in Oregon; Dorothy Murphy, worthy matron, Alpha Chapter, No. 1, Ashland; and Lois Thomas, worthy matron, Tulalake. Doris Smith, worthy matron, Prosperity, Malin; Rosalee Hoback, worthy matron, and Dwight Kircher, worthy patron, Cascade Crest Chapter, Chilcoquin; Rena Oldham, worthy matron, and Ray Owens, worthy patron, Alpha Chapter; Ethel Hamilton, district deputy of the Rainbow for Girls; Alva Oldham, district deputy of the grand master of Oregon; and Larry French, worshipful master, Crater Lake Lodge No. 211.

In a unique initiatory ceremony, six Master Masons, Elwood Gueck, worthy matron's husband; Ed Chubb, Clifton Ogman, George Marion Grant, Richard Loomis and John Lichtenstein, were initiated into Manzanita Chapter. The refreshment committee, Oma Taylor, Maude Cox, Aime Hart, Doris Wallin and Lois Murphy were busy serving apple pie and cheese to the large crowd assembled in the dining room.

Four Candles Light Cake

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Howrey Roberts entertained September 30, for her daughter, Joan, on her fourth birthday anniversary; and invited a group of Joan's friends and their mothers to share the celebration. The afternoon of games and fun was highlighted with the appearance of a beautiful birthday cake served with other party "treats" to Joan and her brother, Timmy. Mrs. Art Monroe and Carolyn, Jerald and Matt; and Mrs. Walter Ritter and Marsha and Bruce.

CIC Meeting

FORT KLAMATH — Members of the Civic Improvement Club met October 1, for the regular meeting of the organization with the president, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, conducting the afternoon business session.

August and September financial reports were given by the treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, and showed that the banquet sponsored by the club on September 18 was a decided success.

Announcement was made of a Republican meeting in the clubhouse on Tuesday evening, October 12, sponsored by the Wood River Unit of Republican Women. Public is cordially invited.

For Klamath has been invited to enter a float in the October 23 parade of the annual Potato Festival at Merrill.

After some discussion, it was decided that the C.I. Club would sponsor the community project. Tentative plans were also made for a public square dance sponsored by the club to help the United Fund Drive Local chairman of the drive, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, will arrange for music and a caller for the dance; refreshment committee, Mrs. Wilbur B. Work Club, for a dessert luncheon, October 6.

Guests arriving on windy Wednesday afternoon, were received in a house warm with candlelight, colorful arrangements of fall flowers and the glow from an open fire to welcome them into the living room for before- and - after luncheon conversation.

Mrs. Mary Wise, Eugene, who is houseguest of her sister, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, was out-of-town visitor for the afternoon.

Others present were Mrs. George E. Hurn, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. Robert H. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby. It was decided to revive the old custom of a club book-exchange among members; and Mrs. Hurn terminated the meeting with an invitation to meet at her home, 439 Pine, October 20.

ANW Club

Mrs. Marion Hanks, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Everett Minner and Mrs. D. N. Clemens, was hostess to the Art and Needle Work Club, for a dessert luncheon, October 6.

Guests arriving on windy Wednesday afternoon, were received in a house warm with candlelight, colorful arrangements of fall flowers and the glow from an open fire to welcome them into the living room for before- and - after luncheon conversation.

Mrs. Mary Wise, Eugene, who is houseguest of her sister, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, was out-of-town visitor for the afternoon.

Others present were Mrs. George E. Hurn, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. Robert H. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby. It was decided to revive the old custom of a club book-exchange among members; and Mrs. Hurn terminated the meeting with an invitation to meet at her home, 439 Pine, October 20.

Shower For Mrs. W. Cosebeer

BONANZA — A lovely stork shower was given at the Bonanza Library October 1, in honor of Mrs. Walter Cosebeer. Hostesses for the evening party were Mrs. Jerry McCarty, Mrs. Leonard Schooler, Mrs. Lloyd Sparks, Mrs. Ivan Bold, Mrs. Cecil Haley and Mrs. Don Schooler.

Gifts were piled in a pink and blue basket, and little baby-boogie vases with pastel flowers were used on the tables and a tiny buggy and stork were on the mantle.

Mrs. Bob Delinger helped Mrs. Cosebeer open her gifts. An evening of visiting followed the opening and admiring of the gifts. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Cosebeer, Elma Rueck, Betty Pepple, Ben Wm. Marnette Sohn, Sarah Ross, Helen McFall, Stella Deisher, Ida Wu, Louise Kelly, Virginia Thomas, Irene Hartley, Ruth Pepple, Jeanette Stewart, Carrie Schmitz, Norma Bechholdt, Virginia Hartley and Margaret Ann Whitlatch.

Jane Fernlund, Florence Horn, Mary Sparks, Mabel Maxwell, Bonnie Wu, Esther Brown, Margaret Burnett, Minnie Schooler, Ida Casebeer, Eva Arthur, Addie Puddy, Elizabeth McGill, Mary Noble, Jean McFall, Cora Leavitt, Bobbette Gift, Velda Haley, Clara Bold, Agnes Schooler, Lenore Sparks, Bernice McCarty, Nonie Schooler and Lenore Sparks.

LVWC Meeting

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Elliott House entertained the Langell Valley Women's Club September 30. The business meeting was conducted by president, Cora Leavitt at which time members voted to not have a dance in October; to give five dollars to the Emergency Relief Fund; and the same amount to the United Fund.

A thank you letter was read from Bobbette Gift for the get - well present sent to her by the club. Pinchle was played following the meeting. Margaret Burnett won the first prize; and Cora Leavitt, traveling. The hostess served refreshments to Elvada Lindsay, Hattie Walker, Irene Baker, Edna Hood, Nettie Davis, Margaret Burnett, Alice Hankins and Cora Leavitt.

Mrs. Marion Lindsay will be hostess to the club members at her home, October 21.

INVITATIONS and ANNOUNCEMENTS Processed or Engraved

Three Day Delivery SHAW STATIONERY Company 729 Main Ph. 2-2586

ANNOUNCEMENT was recently made by Mr. and Mrs. John Walter Mills, 2220 Warring, of the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Loreen Fay, to William Fredrick (Bill) Ballheim, Lebanon. Nuptial rites are scheduled for December 4, in Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Bride-elect is a graduate of KUHS and OTI general office. Ballheim attended schools in Lebanon and Portland; and is a graduate of OTI in electronics. —Photo by Floyd

Sisters Set Nuptial Dates One Month Apart For Fall Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Hayes, Dorris, have announced the forthcoming nuptials of Mrs. Hayes' daughters, Joann and Jane Gray. According to dates set, as this goes to press, Joann was married to Philip Lefler, October 7 in Spokane, where she has been attending the Sacred Heart School of Nursing.

Her husband, a law student at Gonzaga University, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lefler, Spokane. Jane, the other affianced daughter, will exchange vows with Robert Preston in Dorris on November 6. Preston attended Shasta Junior College in Redding; and is presently an engineer for the state of California. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Preston, Tulare.

The sisters are both graduates of Sacred Heart Academy; and each was valedictorian of her class. Joann was graduated in 1951; prior to starting her nursing training. Jane, after she was graduated in 1953, attended Holy Names College in Spokane.

New Son Shares Shower Honors

BONANZA — Mrs. Jimmy Dye, Mrs. Charles Roberts Sr., Mrs. Jake Warner and Mrs. Billy Custer gave a baby shower at the Benson Dixon home on Wednesday evening for Mrs. George Simmons and new son, George Philip. A social evening followed the opening of gifts.

Refreshments were served at a late hour to Barbara Warner, Lois Van Sipe, Patty Schmidt, Emma Ralph, Wilma Roberts, Donna Dixon, Thelma Alsop, Leah Custer, Mary Sparks, Alta Dixon, Lizzie Schmor, Sylvia Sutherland, Lisa Sexton and Joyce Logue. Mary Schmidt, LaVonne Sexton, Mary Anne Leavitt, Isabel Hazel-tine, Irene Carl, Alma Dye, Mabel Maxwell, Esther Brown, Thelma Thomas, Margaret Werner, Fern Hubble, Edna Roberts, Mildred Kelleeson, Becky Baldwin, Scotty Bray, Nisha Robinson, Cora Leavitt and Mrs. Ed Propst.

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 51

At the recent meeting of Henley Bethel No. 51, Job's Daughters, plans were made for the official visit of grand guardian, Dorothy Crump, from Portland, October 18.

Honored Queen Maureen Lyon led the discussion on the dance slated for November 27. A letter was read from past honored queen, Ruth Roenick, telling of some of her experiences in nurses training in San Francisco; and her future plans to be home for the holidays.

Pattie Buck gave a report on the successful apron sale at the Big Y Market.

Bethel No. 51 daughters expressed appreciation for the outside help given during the sale — especially to Ronald Phair for the space in his market.

Joan Taylor and Hazel Jo Delameter entertained at the piano. Fall flowers which were used profusely to decorate the hall were given by Mrs. Myron Taylor.

A social "Daughter's Hour" and refreshments served by the committee concluded the meeting.

Afternoon Party For Relatives

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Claude Brown gave a party in honor of her mother-in-law Mrs. Lula Brown, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Berger, visiting here from Long Beach. Other old friends and relatives invited for the social afternoon, were Mrs. Ruby Brown, Mrs. John McFall, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Francis Lilly, Mrs. Wes Dearborn, Mrs. Lula Penner, Mrs. Frank H. Brown, Trudy Brown, Judy Roberts, Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Mrs. Bob Sealer and Mrs. Merle Settle. Strawberry shortcake and coffee were served by the hostess later in the afternoon.

For SAVING PLANS It's The EQUITABLE AND JOHN HOUSTON

INTRODUCTORY BOX $1.00 made-to-order face powder by

Charles of the Ritz

Hand-blended right before your eyes to match... to highlight your very own skintone... based on a formula created exclusively for you.

OURS ALONE

stars glamour for the festive season

Like this Cleopatra cap, calculated to turn masculine eyes your way. From a gala group signed by Doree, always top fashion, always priced 12.95 to 17.95

millinery, second floor

A and B Paint Store
1229 E. Main Ph. 3324
Sherwin-Williams Paint Headquarters

SPECIAL "GET ACQUAINTED" OFFER!

THIS COUPON WORTH 2.00 ON ANY PERMANENT WHEN PRESENTED AT—

SANDRA'S BEAUTY SHOP
MRS. ANNABEL WALLACE—BETTY LOU MEYER
337 East Main Phone 5335