Troy V. Cook took both ends of the team scoring events in the Alley Katz League by rolling a 2421 pin series and then taking a 897 high game.

Second place in series went to Louie's Food with a 2363 score, while Potter's Market registered with a 837 second place high game. Individual action was led by Dorothy McBride with a 494 high series and Pauline Keifer with a 206 game. Lynne Albert was second with a 466 series as was Vivian Wise with her 177 game. Splits were taken by Agnes Vaskak the 5-10, Joan Beard the 5-7, Murella Albert the 5-7-9, Jennie Pastega the 4-7-10 and Gertrude Banta the 5-7. One other oddity came up last night as Cecelia Durack rolled the lucky 11th in the seventh frame for the fourth straight week of bowling.

Oklahoma Whips Texas; U.C.L.A. Tops Huskies

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

Unless an unexpected disaster overcomes Oklahoma, the Sooners should win the mythical national college football championship this year.

With only three weeks of the season gone, time probably has run out on Notre Dame. The one defeat the Irish suffered at the hands of Purdue probably will deprive young Terry Brennan of a title in his first year as a head coach.

Oklahoma already is over the big stumbling block of its schedule, and, although Bud Wilkinson's team still has seven games to go, none of the remaining teams figures to be in the class of Texas, which fell before the Sooners 14-7 last Saturday.

NOT PUSHOVERS
Oklahoma still has Kansas, Kansas State, Colorado, Iowa State, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma A&M on its schedule. Some of these certainly are not pushovers, and that greater quality, the one-platoon system, could work against any club.

But if the Sooners can lick an outfit like Texas without the aid of Gene Calame, they ought to be able to take anyone else with him. He probably will be back against Kansas.

Jim Harris took over for Calame.

Henley Hornets Top Eagle Point

Henley's Hornets used a smooth running ground attack with a top flight passing game to overrun Eagle Point last Saturday afternoon at Eagle Point by a 26-12 score.

Halfback Gary Cunningham led the Hornets' attack with two touchdowns against Eagle Point. The first one of 59 yards around his own left end came in the first period and the second came in the fourth quarter on a 13 yard off-tackle play.

The other two TD's came on pass plays from Louie Zaroninski to Clarence Toliver in the second period, and from Zaroninski to Les Hricelac in the third. The first Hricelac covered 30 yards and the second about 33. Zaroninski converted twice for the Hornets. Both of Eagle Point's touchdowns came via the air lanes as they passed for their first TD in the second quarter and then again hit pay dirt with an aerial in the final quarter.

SCORE BY QUARTERS:
Henley 7 7 6 6 —26
Eagle Point 0 6 0 6 —12

Golfers Tied After 19 Extra Holes

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — It will be John Langford of Beaverton, Ore., against Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B.C., next Sunday in an 18-hole playoff to determine the winner of the $1,500 British Columbia Open Golf Tournament.

They played 19 extra holes Sunday, after finishing the regular 18 with par 72, without a decision and were forced by darkness and a heavy rain to postpone the finale 24 until next Sunday.

lame and the sophomore substitute made his gloomy coaches eyes light up. Harris' passing was a revelation and he'll be heard from in the future.

The rest of the Notre Dame schedule is loaded with booby traps and the only hope the Irish have of coming out on top as the experts predicted in the preseason Associated Press poll is to sail through their opposition and for the Sooners to be upended at least once.

IMPRESSIVE
Notre Dame was impressive in its 33-9 victory over Pitt. The victory showed that Brennan and his crew were capable of rebounding after a humiliation. That's a good sign, but the Irish still have to tackle Michigan State and Navy in the next two weeks.

At the moment, UCLA and Wisconsin are Oklahoma's chief rivals for national honors. But even their position is precarious. The Uclans barely got past Washington, 21-20, and Wisconsin had considerable trouble beating Rice 13-7.

Both UCLA and Wisconsin stay in their own leagues for the rest of the campaign. The Uclans have five more Pacific Coast Conference games left, starting with Stanford, while the Badgers still have to get by half a dozen Big Ten foes.

If things keep going as they are, the Coast race could go right down to the final game when UCLA and Southern California meet on Nov. 20. The Big Ten, still the other hand, could be decided this week when Wisconsin and Purdue come to grips.

FIRST-CLASS
Purdue was not figured as a real first-class title threat before the season started, but passer Len

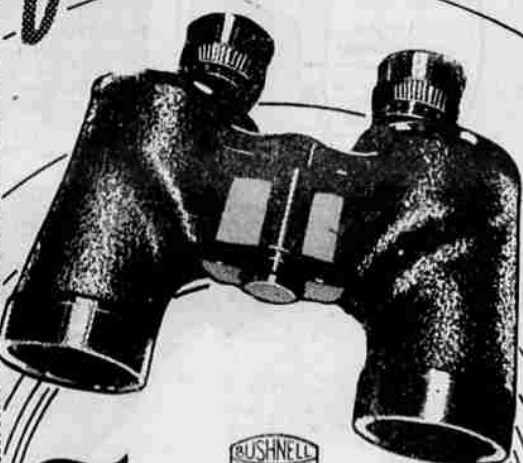

Dawson changed all that. The only trouble is, he can be stopped. Duke proved that when they all but grounded him in their 13-all tie with the Ballmakers.

In other games, Iowa, regarded as a major stumbling block to Wisconsin in the Big Ten, dropped before Michigan 14-13, and Florida dropped a 14-7 decision to Clemson. Florida was figured to be a Southern power after its fine victories over Georgia Tech and Auburn.

Chiloquin, Malin Tie

Chiloquin's Panthers proved to be the team to beat in Malin's try for a second straight County League championship Saturday afternoon at Chiloquin as they held the favored Mustang to a 6-6 tie in conference play.

Chiloquin countered in the early stages of the first quarter as they took the ball and carried on a downfield drive of 70 yards for the first score of the afternoon, with Dick Siemens going over from the 3 yard line. The conversion attempt was no good.

Both teams played on even terms during the entire ball game and only twice did the strong Malin offense push deep into Chiloquin territory, once in the third quarter and again late in the fourth period when they scored their only TD of the game.

Led by Pat Madden, Malin started a downfield scoring drive of their own and the Malin fullback climaxed the 80 yard move with a short plunge over the Panther goal line. The Malin conversion also failed, making it 6-6.

Malin 0 0 0 6 —6
Chiloquin 6 0 0 0 —6
