Losses went to between 1 and 2 points in several areas of the list. Plus signs were not too numerous, and they usually were small.
Trading contracted as prices fell away from a higher level early in the day. It came to an estimated 1,900,000 shares.

Siamese Twins Separated

MEMPHIS (AP) — A team of neurosurgeons successfully separated the Miller Siamese twins, joined at the head in a tense four-hour operation here Monday.
The twins automatically were placed on the critical list but surgeons said they stood the operation well.
Siamese twins joined at the head have never survived separation surgery.
Claudette was reported in slightly better condition than Constance. The weary surgeons said the brains were connected only by a few blood vessels—and were essentially separate.
The twin Negro girls, daughters of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of Memphis, were born May 8. They were joined at the head so that their bodies lay at a 45 degree angle.
A minor operation was made last weekend to free a skin flap. The flap was drawn over the head defect following the separation.

Snorting News Names Mays, Bobby Avila

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Willie Mays of the world champion New York Giants and Bobby Avila of the American League champion Cleveland Indians, 1954 batting leaders, Sunday made up the top players in their leagues by The Sporting News.
The national baseball newspaper also named Giant pitcher Johnny Antonelli and Bob Lemon of the Indians as the No. 1 hurlers in their leagues.
Mays, Antonelli and Lemon won the honors by wide margins in the newspaper's poll of managers, players, umpires and sports writers but Avila wasn't far ahead of Larry Doby, Cleveland outfielder, and Yogi Berra, New York Yankee catcher.

Grains

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean prices soared on the board of trade Monday as a result of the Midwest's wet weather.
Heavy rains were expected to cause a further delay in harvesting the bean crop. Grain men thought there might also be some reduction in yields because of shattering of bean pods.
Other grains mostly had a firm tone. The rains also will delay corn harvesting and that cereal was up for a small gain.

Thieves Take Two Safes From Merrill

MERRILL (AP) — A 3600 pound steel safe secured to the rear of a pickup truck by a log chain that bumped down four miles of county roads after daylight Sunday, failed to attract the notice of early morning duck and deer hunters or early farm risers.
The safe, taken between 5 and 6 a.m. through a rear door of the Spud Cellar, was one of two taken from Main Street business establishments in one of the most daring robberies here in years.
The second safe was taken from the Griggs market. Chief of police Doug Brunley, Merrill, state police and Sheriff Murray Britton reconstructed the story as follows:
Darrell King, operator of the Spud Cellar, left his place of business about 5 a.m. planning to leave for Las Vegas. Following preparations he returned to the tavern and discovered two guns of his lying on a counter. A third gun and his big safe were gone.
Marks on a rear porch revealed where the safe had been rolled to the ground.
Entrance to the building had been through a rear door.
King reported the loss to Brunley who gave chase, following marks in the roadway where the big safe had been dragged. Four miles from Merrill on the Liskey road Brunley sighted a pickup in a borrowpit with several men attempting to roll the safe into the back the vehicle from the ditch bank.
His speed took him past the car and the occupants of the pickup, a loaded pickup back into the roadway. The quick start dislodged the safe which rolled into the ditch. King stated it contained approximately $2000.
In the meantime, Bob Woods, operator of the butcher shop in Griggs Market, had discovered the loss of the second safe, a steel and concrete cylinder containing in excess of $200.
Officers found this one, broken into and the money missing, at a point beyond where the first safe was found.
Entry to the food market was through a rear door where a steel bar had been sawed through.
Officers immediately threw up a road block around Merrill but at press time today no arrests had been made.
Officer Brunley stated following the robbery that a passenger car also seen at the cafe was apparently involved.
All of the dead and injured except Mrs. Parker were from the Bakerfield area. Mrs. Parker is from Ventura.
Thornhill is survived by a daughter Gail and a son Robert Lane of Bakerfield, California; his father, William B. Thornhill, Delano, California; seven brothers and two sisters.
The body was forwarded to Delano, California by O'Hair's Memorial Chapel.

BPA Chief Speaks To Trade Group

WENATCHEE (AP) — Bonneville Power Administrator William A. Pearl assured the Pacific Northwest Trade association conference here Monday that the Northwest's power situation for the coming year is "greatly improved" over the previous year.
During the coming year, Pearl said, "we can look forward to serving all the firm loads and the bulk of the interruptible loads, even under critical water conditions, although some steam will need to be used for interruptible load."

The improved power outlook is due to addition of more than one million kilowatts of new generation installed by public and private utilities in the last 15 months, Pearl explained.

While noting that a limitation has been placed on contracts with BPA's industrial customers providing that new loads of 10,000 kilowatts or more cannot be taken on in any one year without the administrator's approval, Pearl said "industries requiring medium amounts of power can secure it and should be encouraged to locate" in the Northwest.

But any industry requiring 50,000 or more kilowatts "can look to the Northwest if there is a distributor willing to install capacity for its plant," or some arrangement is worked out whereby it contributes to the region's power supply.

Pearl was less optimistic about the long-range power outlook. By 1961, he said, dams now under construction will all be producing at full capacity, but to "meet the increased demand for power subsequent to this date, new starts are essential in the near future."

Touching on the prospects of electricity from atomic energy, Pearl said "it is the opinion of Bonneville engineers...that atomic power is not likely to replace our present hydro."
"However, when all our low-cost hydro sites are developed, it is possible that nuclear power may enter the picture at a price competitive with coal, or with higher-cost hydro generation."

Business Group Hears Solon

Businessmen of Klamath Falls recently heard the views of State Senator Richard L. Neuberger as he made a bid for support in his campaign to unseat U.S. Senator Guy Cordon in Klamath Falls Monday.
Neuberger was the guest of honor at a businessmen's luncheon sponsored by the Central Labor Union at noon in the Willard Hotel. C. D. Long, president of the labor organization, was chairman.

Sunday at a reception also sponsored by the Central Labor Union in the Pelican Cafe, the Democratic senatorial aspirant, accused Cordon of planning to "turn over the national forests and national parks to the big timber monopolies."

Neuberger said Senator Cordon recently announced that Oregon's timber policy "should not be one that holds great areas as playgrounds for residents of the other 47 states."

The Portland campaigner asked his audience:
"Does Cordon want us to stop protecting such magnificent playgrounds as Crater Lake National Park, Rogue River National Forest and the Columbia Gorge?"

Neuberger added that Cordon's policy offers a direct threat to Oregon's annual $125,000,000 tourist trade.
A Neuberger rally is slated for 8 p.m. Monday in Klamath Falls Armory. Sam Morris, chairman of the Neuberger - for - Governor Club, invites all persons interested in good government to attend the rally.

"Everyone," he said, "who is going to the polls in November should hear both sides on all important issues."

Expert Gives Air Figures

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Economist testified Monday that Southwest Airways carries more passengers on its California-Oregon route than any other feeder airlines does elsewhere.
James J. Ray Jr., testified at a Civil Aeronautics Board hearing in support of Southwest's application to continue local air service to a score of cities between Los Angeles and Medford, Ore.

Ray presented figures showing Southwest has the highest average passenger load, the highest average ton-mile load and more passengers per employee than any other feeder.

Henry Hill, counsel for United Air Lines, brought out on cross examination, however, that Southwest has a greater need for government mail pay subsidy than Mohawk and Piedmont Airlines.

Ray said that was because both Piedmont and Mohawk obtain a higher yield per revenue plane mile than Southwest. In general, he said, feeder lines in the East get better yields than those on the West Coast.

United and Bonanza airlines have applied to take over Southwest's route.
