Young Farmer Wins Award

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Success story, American style: Seven years ago Burd W. Schantz's father died, leaving much of the burden of operating the family farm on his son. At the time, Burd was 12. Today the farm is a $30,000 enterprise and young Schantz, now 20, is the 1954 Star Farmer of America. He was named Star Farmer last night at the annual Future Farmers of America convention. His selection as the outstanding youth in the 371,000-member organization culminated a long struggle. After his father's death he and his mother decided to operate the 65-acre farm near Alburta, Pa., jointly. The farm had been devoted mainly to poultry production. Burd decided to add dairying. He purchased a registered Holstein heifer for $150 in 1947 as the start of a herd. Today the herd numbers 42 head, including 22 registered animals. "Every time I'd get some money from the chickens," he said, "I'd put it into the dairy." By working long hours in addition to the finishing his schooling, Burd also converted the farm from a horse-power operation to machinery. He has two new tractors plus considerable other equipment. This is what his vocational agriculture instructor, Raymond Heimbach, had to say about the Star Farmer award: "He's earned it. Burd works from 5 o'clock in the morning to 8 o'clock at night most days." A $1,000 check went with the award. What's Burd going to do with the money? "Why, I'll reinvest it in the farm," he said, "that's what I've tried to do all along—plow my back in the place, earnings or a good part of them. It's been the secret of whatever success I've had."

Senator Reports On Europe Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today that on a 10 weeks' overseas tour he found increased prosperity in Western Europe and saw no trace of "anti-Americanism." Just back from a trip into 12 countries, Sparkman said, "It was clearly evident that Western Europe is definitely on the upside and improving economically." He said he found Europeans "just are not agitated to the same extent we are" about the possibility of a Russian attack. He said one factor may be that "they are used to a war in every generation, and just less prone to become agitated." "I saw nothing of anti-Americanism," he said. "I never saw a sign of unfriendliness, nor resentment against U.S. air bases in Europe."
