Democrats Raise Victory Cry In Pennsy Vote Race

Editor's Note - This is another of several stories by roving Associated Press reporters analyzing the campaign in key states.

BY DON WHITEHEAD
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania is a good example today of a state where the Democrats have whooped a victory cry so insistently that even a number of Republicans appear to be halfway convinced they may be right. As in Ohio and Michigan, Pennsylvania Democrats have seized on two themes and hammered so hard on them that they have taken the initiative in establishing the major campaign issues.

Theme No. 1: There is a groundswell of sentiment toward the Democrats because the voters are disenchanted—not with President Eisenhower himself but with his Republican administration. Theme No. 2: The Republicans are responsible for a breakdown in the economy, and policies which have thrown men out of work, given less take-home pay to others, and reduced the farmers' income; therefore these voters are turning to the Democrats.

The effectiveness of the Democrats' strategy lies in its simplicity and the fact that no one, not even the Republicans, can be sure until election day that they aren't right. The Democrats face a 2-3 disadvantage in registrations. The Republicans have been so busy trying to explain the slack in employment as a transition from war to peace that the record of the Eisenhower administration and the end of the war in Korea have been relegated to secondary importance. Local issues are prominent. In the last 70 years, the Democrats have elected only one governor in Pennsylvania. George H. Earle in 1934.

But this time they are waging a slam-bang campaign for the governorship and are far more optimistic than the Republicans generally in their claims of congressional seats.

National and international issues have faded into the background and local issues are dominating the gubernatorial campaign between Republican Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood and Democrat George M. Leader—with the state's unemployment the main issue. The Democrats and Republicans aren't far apart in estimating the number of jobs lost. The Republicans say somewhere near 350,000, the Democrats about 377,000.

Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr., GOP congressional chairman and GOP chairman in Pennsylvania, said if there were no unemployment, there would be nothing to this ball game. "And, despite the unemployment, the Republicans insist the state's economy generally is sound and improving, and that the Democrats are exaggerating the situation to gain votes."

On the surface at least, the Republicans have patched up their intraparty squabbles and are united in their support of Wood although, privately, politicians say there still is bitterness between the supporters of U.S. Sen. James Duff and Gov. John S. Fine. Fine has taken little part publicly in the campaign.

The battle for the governorship has almost totally eclipsed the fact that the outcome of the congressional races in Pennsylvania might mean the difference between Republican or Democratic control of Congress for the next two years. Neither of the state's two GOP senators is up for reelection this year, but there are contests for all of the state's 30 House seats now divided 19 Republican and 11 Democratic.

Five of the Democratic House seats are in Philadelphia districts where the Republicans have one of the seat held by Rep. Hugh Scott Jr., former GOP national chairman. The most optimistic Democratic claim is that they will reverse the party's positions in Congress and that the Democrats will come out of the November election holding 19 of the 30 seats.

But some sideline opinion is that the Democrats are going to be disappointed if they seriously think they can make such a sweeping shift. One GOP strategist said: "If things go well for us, we'll pick up two or three Democratic House seats and hold onto those we have. If they go badly, we may lose three seats. I wasn't too encouraging a few weeks ago—but I think things are looking better for us all the time."

Joint Protests Sent Countries
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—The United States, Sweden, Norway and England have sent protests to Chile, Ecuador and Peru over their recent joint statement claiming sovereignty over waters within 200 miles of their coasts, the Foreign Office reported today.

The three South American countries in their joint declaration threatened penalties for foreigners fishing within these limits. Thomas praised Defense Secretary Wilson as a "man of integrity," with "great fortitude and ambition, who never begins a project without bringing it to a successful close."

Crew Saved After Ship Collision

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A Dutch cargo ship collided with a barge last night off Milwaukee harbor and sank, but Coast Guardsmen rescued her 29-man crew uninjured. The 258-foot Prins Willem V, carrying a mixed cargo, plunged nose down into 80 feet of water after the collision with a Sinclair Oil Co. barge being towed by a tug. The tug was undamaged.

Cmdr. Edward Clark of the Marine Inspection Division headed an investigation of the crash, which occurred on a clear night. There was no immediate explanation of the cause. Coast Guardsmen said the ship's starboard bow was caved in and the barge's bow was wrecked. The Willem was outbound; the tug and barge were heading into the harbor.

The crash occurred three miles offshore. A spokesman for the Orange Line, owners of the Willem, said the ship had been placed in the merchant service in 1946, when it was raised from Rotterdam harbor, where the Germans had scuttled it during the war.

Boatswain J.C. Bruce Witte of Milwaukee, in charge of one of the Coast Guard crash boats, told what he saw. "The Willem's starboard bow was caved in and she was starting to list when we got there," he said. "The captain and one man still were aboard and we nosed up on the listing side and took them off. She was going down then and after we backed off she nosed down and under."

"The barge was damaged on the side and the forward end was partially submerged. It was still fastened to the tug by the cable. Golden Seal 100% All Wool Blanket Special. Comes in new and wanted popular colors. Size 72x70. 4-lb. weight with wide acetate satin binding. $11.95

Fir Production Shows Decline
PORTLAND (AP)—Douglas fir production is running more than a billion board feet behind last year, the West Coast Lumbermen's Assn. reported Wednesday.

For the first nine months of the year production totaled 6,739,803,000 feet, compared with 7,916,722,000 in the same period of 1953 and 7,630,106,000 for the same period in 1952. In September weekly production was 90.3 per cent of the 1949-53 average. Unfilled orders totaled 777,792,000 feet at the end of the month, when gross stocks were estimated at 813,934,000 feet.

"The crew of the Dutch ship was off and then towed the lifeboats in its own lifeboats, five in one and 22 in the other. We took them in. It wasn't very rough, the swells were running about six feet."

Polio Vaccine Tests Eyed

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter
BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The next 11 weeks can hold a big part of the key to how good the new polio vaccine is, an expert in the vaccine tests said Thursday. A fair number of cases are still expected before Jan. 1.

And those occurring in the polio test areas can be of major importance in getting the final, vital boxscore on the vaccine, said Dr. Robert F. Korns, deputy director of the Polio-myelitis Vaccine Evaluation Center, University of Michigan.

Because of that, and other peculiarities of the polio, the public will probably have to wait another six months before it can be known whether the vaccine works, or how well it works, Dr. Korns told the American Public Health Assn. Usually, about 10 per cent of polio cases in each calendar year occur after Nov. 1, he said. But this year the polio peak came late and a higher percentage of cases than normal is expected between now and the year's end.

An unpredictable number of them will occur among children in 217 vaccine test areas, involving 1,800,000 youngsters. Of them, about 435,000 got the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of Pittsburgh. Another 210,000 received a neutral substance which could not have any effect, and another 1,175,000 not given anything are being watched as "controls" or comparisons.

The test is whether the vaccinating children have less—or more—paralytic polio compared with non-vaccinated ones.
