

IN SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH . . . Jo Ann Sisemore became the bride of James Gillis Hannigan, October 9, the Rev. T. P. Casey officiant at the 10 a.m. Nuptial Mass. Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Paul Hesselgasser, Brothers, Oregon. Jo Ann was given in marriage by her uncle, L. Orth Sisemore, brother of her father, the late Jerry Sisemore. Bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ogden E. Brooks, Sprague River.

Group picture was taken at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orth Sisemore before the wedding. From the left, Bonnie Brassler, bride's sister; Patsy Nicholson, bridesmaid; Eileen Susbauer, maid of honor; and Marilyn Mason, bridesmaid. — All Sisemore Photos by Guderian

O
C
T
O
B
E
R

B
R
I
D
E

SISTERS AT COLLEGE

MARGARET GERBER PINS POSIE ON SISTER SYLVIA . . . at "Bent Twig" tea where they were among Mills College students feted at Reinhardt House alumnae headquarters on California campus last week. "Bent Twig" is a traditional title bestowed upon Mills students who have family members in alumnae ranks. Their Mills family connection is cousin, Mrs. Charles T. Hoard, Elk City, Oklahoma. Margaret is a junior; and Sylvia enrolled as a freshman this fall. Both are graduates of KUHS; and are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Gerber, 329 High Street. Marilyn, who is Margaret's twin, is a junior at University of Arizona. —Photo by Tagney, Oakland

CONGRESSMAN AND MRS. COON POPULAR KF VISITORS

"EASY TO MEET" Congressman Sam Coon and his charming wife, Opal, piled up popularity and election votes as they made the rounds of precinct coffees last Tuesday.

Shown above at the sixth "coffee" in the day's circuit they continue to charm everyone with their unassuming and genuine neighborliness. From the left, standing, Mrs. Robert Borgman, Congressman Coon, Mrs. Lyle Kollstrom and far right, Mrs. Coon. Seated, same order, Mrs. W. D. Miller and Mrs. Gilbert Fleet.

Campaigning for reelection from the Second Congressional district; Coon, with his wife, spent the entire day from 9:45 a.m. until 5-something-p.m., paying scheduled visits to 11 Klamath homes. —Photo by Kettler