

VERY SPECIAL GUESTS at Marcelyn Wiggins' wedding, were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Moak, who went to Reno to attend the ceremony. They are pictured above, far left and right. Second from left, bridegroom's mother, Mrs.

Lillian Haines; the new Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines; and bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Wiggins. — Photo by Gross, Reno

OF INTEREST to many family friends of Marcelyn Wiggins, will be news of her marriage in Reno, October 5, to Robert R. Haines. Immediate family and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony in the Riverside Hotel bridal suite; where she and her husband pose for the first picture after the wedding.

MARCELYN WIGGINS BRIDE OF ROBERT R. HAINES ON 5TH

An engagement of several years culminated in the marriage, October 5, of Marcelyn J. Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wiggins, 820 Eldorado, to Robert R. Haines, of Minnesota, Honolulu and San Francisco.

The wedding ceremony in the bridal suite of the Riverside Hotel, Reno, with Lawrence Layman, officiant, was witnessed by the bride's parents, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Moak; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lillian Haines, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ferrari, Mill Valley; Mrs. Ruth Lusch and John Peterson, San Francisco.

The bride was born in Klamath Falls, is a graduate of KUHS; and attended University of Oregon for two years. She has lived in San Francisco for the past seven years; currently employed at Westinghouse Electric Corporation in the bay city. Haines is with Mercury Electric Corporation.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Haines wore an afternoon frock of champagne silk taffeta with matching accessories. During the ceremony she carried a spray of orchids; later worn as a shoulder corsage.

A beautifully arranged wedding supper was served later at the Riverside. After their wedding trip, the couple is at home, 1280 Union Street, San Francisco.

ALOHA SOCIAL CLUB

Aloha Social Club has voted to sponsor a cooked food sale to be held all day Saturday, October 23, at two locations: the Quality Food Market, 830 Main; and J. C. Penney's Store, Main and Eighth.

Letha Murphy, grand committee member of the endowment fund of the Grand Chapter OES of Oregon and chairman of the food sale stated that money received from the sale will be used to help open an endowment fund to maintain the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove. At the present time the home is entirely dependent upon donations.

Every Eastern Star chapter in the state has been asked to have one money making project to contribute to this purposeful fund — assuring constant care for the aged guests at the home.

Merrill WOM Chapter Night

MERRILL — Women of the Moose, Merrill Chapter No. 18, met in regular session October 5, with 10 officers, six chairmen and 19 co-workers answering roll call. One visiting co-worker, Margaret Arner from El Centro, California was also present.

An interesting program was presented by co-workers Rose Baley, Ila Frost, Blanche Richardson, Lillian Thomas and Rose Spolek, for chapter night program, honoring the new candidates. The minutes of the executive board meeting were read and adopted, as was the auditing report of the first quarter.

The ritual and library committees announced that a rummage sale was held October 8 and 9, at the Balsiger building in Tulelake. The Academy of Friendship meeting was October 8, at the Moose Hall. Members brought Christmas gifts for Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

A report was made on the activities of the community lounge in Klamath Falls, which serves the entire Klamath Basin. The chapter voted to donate $10 to support the lounge.

Gifts were presented to Rose Van Meter, deputy grand regent, and to Rose Baley, for staging the chapter night program, in the absence of the regular chairman.

Following the meeting, members retired to the Moose Hall where the men served refreshments. Next meeting slated for October 19.

BASIN COUPLE WED IN RENO

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Dehlinger are receiving congratulations from friends following their marriage in Reno, October 9.

Bride is the former Barbara Jean Weimar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Weimar, Riddle; and niece of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weimar, Bonanza. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dehlinger, Healy.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dehlinger accompanied the couple to Reno. The new Mrs. Dehlinger is a teacher at Malin.

DINNER HONORS ANNIVERSARIES

LANGELL VALLEY — A dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, October 12, honored Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, who were celebrating their wedding anniversary; and Mrs. O. C. Johnson, who were married 51 years, October 11. The occasion was also the birthday of Bill Burnett.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Marie Kay, Monte and Richard Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Groth, Mrs. Adele Kent, Phil Luke and Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt and Mary Anne.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Lillian Thomas, Eva Bowman, Helen Brunley, Vivian Trotman, Bessie West, Audrey Lewis, Kathleen Bricker, Myrtle Beasley and Alma Elfert.

A kick-off breakfast to observe National Business Women's Week October 10 to 16, was last Sunday morning at the Mar-Max Cafe. Mrs. Beulah Elliott told of her trip to the Biennial Conference held in St. Louis, last summer. Places were set for 14 members and guests.

Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES

Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES welcomed visitors from numerous Eastern Star chapters throughout Oregon, California and Idaho at the stated meeting and Friendship-Night at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, October 12. Trelises of red roses were placed about the chapter room for decorations.

Host and hostesses greeting guests were: Jack Schulze, Phyllis Pool, Betty Hunter and Claris Williams.

Visiting officers invited to assume the regular stations of Aloha for opening ceremonies were from ten neighboring chapters: Eva E. Poole, worthy matron, and Ira B. Poole, worthy patron of Oregon Chapter 57 from Canyonville, presided in the east.

Distinguished and honored guests seated in the east with Rena Oldham, worthy matron, and Raymond Owens, worthy patron, were: Doris Caldwell, grand adept; Helen McCornack, grand representative of New York in Oregon; and Letha Murphy, grand committee member of the Grand Chapter OES of Oregon.

Worthy matrons, Lois Gueck of Manzanita; Eva Pond of Adair, Jacksonville; Rosalee Hoback, Cascade Creek, Chiloquin; Doris Smith of Prosperity, Malin; Dorothy Murphy of Aloha, Ashland; Myrtle Smith of Oriental at Lakeview; and worthy patrons, Jess Smith of Prosperity; N. R. Smith of Oriental and John Daugherty, Aloha Chapter.

The Friendship girls under the leadership of Imogene Boothby presented a beautiful drill.

Vocal solos were sung by Jewel Howard accompanied by Alma Cofer; and Ruphane Mannering, Chiloquin, accompanied by Athel Roser.

A boy's trio, David Tendis, Gerry Barker and Stewart Campbell offered several lively instrumental selections.

Officers of Aloha Chapter assisted by the visiting officers formed a chain of friendship around the altar as Margaret Sheridan sang an appropriate song.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room from tables decorated with bouquets of autumn flowers and tiny gold chains of friendship.

Committee members were: Irene Markam and Beatrice Denton, co-chairman; Ethel Henry, Ruth Stanley, Ruby Kenyon, Martha Stearns; Mickey Zigler, Leta Goehring, Myrtle and Hazel Schiefelstein.

Camp Fire Girls At Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN — The Camp Fire Girls Leaders Association met a week ago at the home of Mrs. Dwight Kircher with Mrs. Naomi French, county Camp Fire director, as guest. Mrs. Kircher was elected president of the group, replacing Mrs. W. B. Hescocock, Fort Klamath. Mrs. Earl Hall will be secretary-treasurer, the office formerly held by Mrs. George Braut-lacht.

It was decided to have a Daughter banquet this fall with final plans to be checked at the October leaders meeting, which will be held October 20, 1:30 p.m., at Kirchers. Mrs. Gerald Wolf is general chairman of the banquet.

Mrs. Eugene Marchington will fill the vacancy on the committee of awards, assisting Mrs. Leroy Olinger and George Hobbs.

Local groups this year will be as follows: second grade Blue Birds; Mrs. Lloyd Peters, leader; The third and fourth grade Blue Birds will be led by Mrs. Reno Minato and an assistant for the group will be found. The fifth grade Camp Fire Girls are led by Mrs. Gerald Wolf and Mrs. Earl Hall. Mrs. Dwight Kircher and Mrs. Victor Sisson are the leaders of the sixth, seventh Camp Fire group with assistance through the winter months of Mrs. Dwight Sowers Sr. Mrs. Frank Strahan and Mrs. Hescocock, Fort Klamath, will again lead the high school Horizon Club.

It was voted by the association to buy a duplicating outfit and to give financial assistance to any group that may need it during the year.

Attention was called by Mrs. French to the leaders of the many training sessions offered this fall. Funds for Camp Fire development have come through the United Fund.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH LELAND CARROLL JR. . . whose wedding in First Christian Church, Portland, is of interest to the Oregon State College varsity basketball player's local friends.

Bride is the former Alice Shelline Rickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl August Rickson, Portland. Ralph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Carroll, 3904 Bisbee.

The wedding was in First Christian Church, Portland. Officiating clergymen were the bride's uncle, Dr. Milton Marcy and Dr. Mryon Cole.

Attendants from Klamath Falls were Brent Hedberg, best man; and William (Bill) Wright, was one of the ushers.

The couple is living at Corvallis while Ralph is continuing his studies at Oregon State College. —Photo by Edris Morrison, Portland store hours 9:30 to 5:30

Advertisement for Miller's dresses featuring the slogan 'live a little... dress up a lot with.....' and illustrations of women in elegant gowns.

Emma Domb Originals

Exclusive with Miller's 14.95 to 49.95

Use every dance date as an excuse to wear our glamorous short or long formals! You'll have a wonderful time . . . and so will he, for our gowns add color to every dance floor . . . romance to every evening! Come and try our romantic gowns in fragile lace . . . dramatic gowns in stiffened satins . . . beautiful gowns in every lush fabric and exquisite color!

FASHION SALON, Second Floor

Advertisement for Rudy's formal wear, featuring 'Smart Dinner Jackets and Tux Trousers' for $29.95.

Advertisement for Shaw Stationery Company, offering 'FOR YOUR WEDDING' invitations and announcements.

Advertisement for Hollywood Bread, featuring a portrait of actress Joyce Mackenzie and the slogan 'FOR THOSE WHO PREFER FINE QUALITY'.