

THE SKULL AND CROSSBONES will fly over the Klamath Yacht Club next Saturday night, October 23, with a motley crew manning the decks.

A wide and wild variety of costumes is expected to frustrate the judges who will award prizes galore; and the committee urges all members not prepared to get busy on those costumes right now.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Guderian are chairmen; and Wes points to the sign with Mrs. Guderian in foreground, looking at "Mr. Bones".

Back row, from the left, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dexter, Mike Holland and "Cutlass Carl", Mrs. Holland in front of H. B. Dexter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, who will serve with them, not pictured.

Cocktails at 9 p.m., dancing to Sync Halaas' music from 10 to 2.

Sojourners Tea At Willard Includes Style Show and Cards

One of the outstanding social events of the fall season was the "Harvest Festival" Sojourners tea, style show and afternoon of bridge in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

In keeping with the autumn theme, decorations were in rich shades of the season; and focal point was the tea table centered with a striking arrangement.

Mrs. L. D. Leslie, chairman, was assisted by committee members Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. L. F. Carter, Mrs. R. L. Carter, Mrs. Bert Hansen, Mrs. Lloyd Young, Mrs. Gus Vlahos, Mrs. Don Piper, Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mrs. J. E. Thornton, Mrs. Walter Hoag, Mrs. A. D. Tennent, Mrs. C. U. Dakin and Mrs. G. A. Nichol.

Highlight of the afternoon was the glittering display of costume jewelry from the Town Shop modeled with appropriate costumes and with commentary by Clarice Moon.

Mrs. D. A. Richardson, Mrs.

Bob Cheyne, Mrs. J. E. Thornton and Mrs. Bert Hensen demonstrated with jewelry changes how a basic ensemble can be completely altered in appearance.

Tea was served at 4 o'clock from the tea table, centered with artificial grapes and harvest figurines. Pouring were Mrs. C. E. Chase, president; and Mrs. Bert Hensen, past-president.

Afternoon guests were Mrs. A. B. Castel, Mrs. L. W. Bethune, Mrs. J. P. Stillwell, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. June Wallework, Mrs. Josephine Reginato, Mrs. Mazie Parks, Mrs. Ruth Lobanigh, Mrs. Vera Anderson, Mrs. Eloise Elliott, Mrs. Marie Perry, Mrs. Natella Guderian, Mrs. Minnie Surles. Out of town guests included Mrs. Kathryn Garner, Wisconsin; Mrs. Murrel Hooper, Tulelake; and Mrs. J. D. Williams, Eugene.

LIONS CLUB AUXILIARY

Mrs. Vern Moore was hostess for the Lions Club Auxiliary meeting, October 12, with Mrs. W. E. Wiesendanger and Mrs. Living Burke as co-hostesses.

Featured guests of the evening were Mrs. L. L. Hickok, The Dalles, state president of the Lions Auxiliary; and Mrs. F. L. Thompson Jr., Sutherlin, third vice president, making an official visit to the Toketee and Lions Club Auxiliary of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Hickok has chosen "We Serve — Lovingly" as her theme for the year and spoke of methods of implementing this motto as it applies to the auxiliary's state project — the annual summer institute for parents of visually handicapped children at Salem.

Mrs. Hickok presented a very informative talk, accompanied with pictures, regarding the background and function of the Oregon State School for the Blind. Mrs. Vern Moore, Eye Conservation chairman, presented four eye cases which were approved. The next regular meeting of Lions Auxiliary will be held November 9.

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 104 Pays Tribute To 50 Year Members

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 paid special honor to 50 year members at the regular meeting, October 7.

After the opening ceremony of the evening, conductor, Helen Blass, and warden, Helen Mick, were instructed by Noble Grand Lorene McCollum to escort the 50-year members to an adjoining room and prepare them to receive the honorary degree given for a half-century of service to Odd Fellowship. They returned to the meeting (arrayed in gold mortar board caps and capes) where they were introduced as the "Class of '50." The noble grand presented each member of the "class" with a diploma for "years of faithful service and achievement." Each diploma bore the seal of the lodge. Each member of the honored "graduates" also received a leather-bound pocketbook with the Rebekah emblem embossed in gold on the cover.

Sister Laura Uerlings was especially honored as one of the two living charter members; and Ida Grimes was awarded a 50 year pin in recognition of her long service to the lodge.

Certificates were given to the following sister charter members, Laura Uerlings, Nellie Wattenburg, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Kate Whiteline, Alma Cofer, Jennie Hurn, Ida Grimes, Elizabeth Pierce, Iona Mae Wells, Charlotte Martin, Rose Keesee and Elizabeth Ramsby. All are past noble grands. Due to illness, Martha Pool Cowley, also 50 year member, was unable to personally receive her certificate.

SOROPTIMIST

Orth Sisemore, chairman of the budget committee of the United Fund spoke to members of the Soroptimist Club at the meeting Thursday, October 14.

Dena Backes, first vice president presided in the absence of Alice Lamm, president, who is in San Francisco.

Reports on the district Soroptimist meeting held at Salem, October 9-10, were given by Dena Backes and Isabelle Brixner. Theme of the meeting was "Stand Tall and You Can See Far." Mrs. Lamm extended an invitation for the district meeting to be held in Klamath Falls in the fall of 1955. Members of the local club voted to give all possible support to OTI. Visitors were Pearl Young, Stockton, California; Francis Worth and Mildred Klum of the Ashland Club.

Local Couple Weds In Reno

Recently received here was news of the marriage in Reno, Nev., of Patricia Morris and Everett Leach.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Morris, 1750 Gary. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark L. Leach, Midland.

The bride's parents and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Crain, attended the early morning ceremony.

Both the new Mr. and Mrs. Leach attended Klamath Union High School. They are at home now at 180 Old Fort Road.
