BPW District Conference Held In KF

The Southern Oregon District Conference of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs opened with registration at the Willard Hotel at 6 p.m. Saturday, October 16.

Dinner followed at 7 p.m. with 50 women present from the Southern Oregon district which includes Grants Pass, Medford, Lakeview, Merrill and Klamath Falls.

State officers present included Natalie Burns, state president; Cora Pirle, state vice president; Laura York, state past president; Marjorie Bizzard and Vivian Logsdon.

Club presidents in attendance were Audrey Lewis, Merrill; Helen Bradley, Lakeview; Harriet Watson, Medford; Helen Carlson, Grants Pass and Beulah Elliott, Klamath Falls.

The local president opened the meeting and introduced Imogene Boothby, Klamath Falls, president of the Southern Oregon district. Mrs. Elliott also welcomed conference members and reported highlights of the national biennial meeting held in St. Louis, Missouri, in July.

The state president gave in detail a report of the business session of the biennial meet and May Dawson, Grants Pass, explained the citation points to the group.

Brief reports were given by each visiting officer.

The Merrill club, co-hostess for the evening, provided entertainment. Harold Hendrickson, principal of Merrill High School, presented the Tulelake barbershop quartet from Tulelake which has been designated the official choral group for the Klamath Basin Potato Festival next weekend in Merrill. Later Hendrickson presented two sacks of Basin bakery to the state president and the state vice president.

Entertainment also included several folk dance numbers in costume by the A and I Folk Dance Club, led by Bill and Shirley Mayhew. Marianna Kerr led delegates in folk dancing after adjournment.

A fall theme was used carrying out harvest time using leaves, grasses, fruits and cornucopias.

The Sunday session opened with breakfast at the Willard Hotel at 8 p.m. Following invocation Ellen Sullivan sang, accompanied by Leola Thompson.

Club presidents from each town gave reports and plans for the coming year.

Cora Pirle, state vice president, was main speaker on the subject, "Membership with Personality." She stressed working as a team to help build the ideals of the federation and promote growth of the club with strong personality among members.

The conference, which climaxed BPW Week, closed with the appointment of Bessie West, past president of the Merrill club, to the state nominating committee.
