Grains

CHICAGO - Soybeans and corn retreated while wheat moved higher on the board of trade Monday.

Losses in soybeans were large. In corn they ran to more than a cent. Both grains were influenced by improved harvesting weather over the weekend in the Midwest. In addition, country offerings of cash corn were very large, bookings totaling 390,000 bushels. Brokers felt the strength in wheat reflected the Canadian crop situation, although continued firmness in cash grain prices was a help. Oats and rye did not show much price change. Lard firmed on trade reports of substantial recent buying by Great Britain. Wheat closed 2 1/2-3 1/2 higher, Dec 2.15 1/2-2.19, corn 1 1/2-2 1/4 lower, Dec 1.53 1/2-1.57, oats 1 1/2 lower, Dec 80 1/2-81, rye 1 1/2 lower, Dec 1.37 1/2, soybeans 6 to 7 1/2 lower, Nov 2.71 1/2-2.71, and lard 12 cents lower to 28 cents a hundred pounds higher, Oct 14.65-15.70.

WHEAT - Open High Low Close Dec 2.15 1/2 2.13 1/2 2.16 2.18 1/2 Mar 2.19 1/2 2.21 2.18 1/2 2.20 2.22 May 2.18 1/2 2.21 2.18 1/2 2.19 2.21 July 2.08 1/2 2.10 1/2 2.08 1/2 2.10 1/2

Red Cross Service Chief Named

Julius D. Guintoni, employment expert at the local Oregon State Employment Service office, has been elected chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, succeeding Mrs. Orth Sisemore.

Guintoni has served as a director of the Red Cross chapter here for the past three years. He is a past president of the Inter-Agency Council, holds membership in the Suburban Fire Department, Exchange Club, and is serving as chairman of the public employees division of the United Fund-Red Cross campaign which gets underway Wednesday.

NEWLY ELECTED chairman of the Red Cross home service committee is Julius D. Guintoni.

The home service phase of Red Cross work, which Guintoni will chair, deals directly with servicemen and their families. Types of service given include reporting and communication, assistance with emergency leaves, hardship discharge applications, obtaining government benefits, counseling and financial assistance.

Figures from the Red Cross office show 573 cases were handled during the past year; 64 referrals were made to other agencies to avoid duplication in service. Total financial assistance extended in the year amounted to $2,487.

The Home Service Committee meets monthly for review of cases work. Volunteer committee members include Mrs. Sisemore, Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mrs. Alma Sweetman, Haary Bechen, Mrs. Hubert Kidd, Mrs. Charles Hahn and the Rev. Dwayne Proett.

The program is financed by voluntary contributions to the United Fund-Red Cross campaign each year.

Klamath GOP Rallies Planned

Republican rallies are being arranged for Gilchrist and Chemult for Wednesday evening. Time and place will be announced later. Bill Lorenz of Chiloquin is in charge of arrangements.

Dorothy Lowell Speech Planned

Residents of Pelican Bay district will have an opportunity Tuesday night to hear the political views of Mrs. Dorothy Lowell, Democratic candidate for state representative. Mrs. Lowell will address a mass meeting in the Pelican School slated to start at 8:30 p.m. Special invitations have been sent to members of the Toastmistress Club. All residents of the Pelican Bay area are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

GOC Potluck Dinner Held

Several Klamath Falls Ground Observer Corps members had a potluck dinner Saturday night hoping to raise money for the purchase of Mrs. Bernice Berry, the first of their members to complete 500 hours watching for airplanes.

The group met at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loyell, 3212 Delaware. Mrs. Loyell is supervisor for the local corps.

Attending were the honored guest, her husband and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beard and two daughters and June Dea Mager.

The event was a family party, because a watcher's family deserves part of the appreciation for an individual's work. Mrs. Loyell said, "Any watcher who spends 500 hours in the tower in a period of less than two years must have had the cooperation of the family."

Coon Request To Be Heard

Florn M. (Curley) Coon, 51-year-old Klamath Falls barber, accused of beating his wife to death during a sordid sex and drinking party in a downtown hotel last Tuesday is scheduled to appear before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor Tuesday at 10 a.m. and announce whether he wants a preliminary hearing. Coon is charged with second degree murder.

District Attorney Frank Alderson said Monday that investigation by city police showed that two men who participated in the all-night party in a downtown hotel last Tuesday had nothing to do with her death. Coon is reported to have admitted to Police Chief O. W. Hamilton and City Detective R. N. Adkins that he had beaten his wife on previous occasions.

A report on an autopsy performed on Mrs. Coon's body by Dr. George H. Adler, county coroner, showed besides injuries to her brain and abdominal organs, she suffered a broken nose and cuts and bruises about the face.

Police say Coon told them two gallons of wine were consumed during the party. He also said he and his wife got into a fight and she struck him several times. The accused killer denied he knew his wife was dead when he called Dr. Adler and arranged for her to be treated at Hillside Hospital for alcoholism.

While Dr. Adler was waiting at the hospital for Coon and his wife to appear, the physician received word the woman was dead. Shortly afterward, Dr. Adler examined Mrs. Coon's body in the hotel room. He said she had been dead for several hours.

Coon is held in the county jail without bail.

Suspect Held In Double Murder

LOS ANGELES - James Merkuris is in jail today awaiting arraignment on charges of murdering his former wife and her second husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Forbes.

Merkuris, 40, was brought here from Arkansas yesterday. He lost a fight against extradition following his arrest by FBI agents in Hot Springs. He denies knowledge of the double slaying in which Mr. and Mrs. Forbes were shot to death in their ceramics shop Sept. 20. Police say Merkuris has been identified tentatively from pictures as the man seen leaving the ceramics shop about the time of the slayings.

Churchill Reshuffles Key Aides

LONDON - A wholesale reshuffle of the British Conservative government brought seven new members into Prime Minister Churchill's Cabinet today.

A total of 17 other ministerial posts changed hands in a big shakeup read by most political observers as a sign Churchill's re-orientation is not in the cards at this time although he will be 80 Nov. 30.

The most significance in this connection was attached to the appointment of Housing Minister Harold MacMillan to succeed letting Earl Alexander as minister of defense.

MacMillan, a 60-year-old book publisher, has been considered a likely successor to Anthony Eden in the post of foreign secretary if and when the latter appears to the aged Churchill steps up into the premiership. But, as the independent, usually well-informed London Times commented: "It is unthinkable that Sir Winston Churchill would have moved him to such a key post as the minister of defense if within a short time he were going to be moved out again."

It generally is conceded that Churchill will continue to head the government indefinitely in quest of what he has described as "this last great prize I seek to win"—lasting peace between the Western world and the Soviet Union.

In addition to MacMillan, other new Cabinet members are: Minister of housing and local government—Duncan Sandys, 46, Churchill's son-in-law.

Minister of education—Sir David Eccles, 39, formerly minister of works. He managed arrangements for Queen Elizabeth's coronation.

Lord chancellor—Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, 53. He will preside over the House of Lords and serve as the nation's highest judicial officer. Minister of food and agriculture—Derick Heathcoat-Amory, 54. Home secretary and minister of state for Welsh affairs—Gwilym Lloyd-George, 59. Osbert Peake, 57, minister of pensions and national insurance. He already held the post, but the shakeup gives him Cabinet rank. Four ministers who desired to return to private life resigned. They were: Alexander, 62-year-old wartime field marshal, who quit the defense post; Lord Simonds, 73, lord chancellor; Sir Leonard Heald, 57, attorney general; Miss Florence Horsbrough, 63, minister of education.
