

AL Clubs Awaken To Facts

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—Seven rival American League clubs have awakened to learn that, after all, they are doomed still to play 77 games against the Philadelphia Athletics in Connie Mack Stadium next season. This means that, in most cases, they will come away dragging a deficit for the trip, and it accounts for the pronounced absence of jubilation around the league.

The visiting club in the American League is paid off at the rate of approximately 29 cents for each ticket sold. The lusterless Athletics in the campaign recently closed enticed a total of only 223,000 fans through their home turnstiles, and it requires only a little simple arithmetic to show why the popular cry was "On to Kansas City!"

Breaking down the total, we find that an average of only 4,200 fans per game watched the A's battle their way into the league cellar, and that the visiting club collected only $1,218 for each nine-inning effort.

A league executive who has had great experience in transporting and feeding athletes estimates that it takes about $2,200 to carry the usual baseball party of 31 or 32 from New York to Philadelphia and to support it there during a three game series. This doesn't count getting it out of Philadelphia again.

At the end of a typical three-game season in the Quaker City, then, the visiting club's road secretary carries off a check for $3,554 during the past season. That is, he is taking the amount away from the park. After he had bailed his little group out of the hotel he had only $1,454 to show for three days of sweat and tears.

This doesn't sound too bad until you stop to consider that player salaries go right on even when the club is only beating the A's. As no team makes its great public debut, there is no way of computing accurately what the tab for a long weekend in Philadelphia comes to, but you wouldn't want to pick it up.

Razorbacks Astounding Grid Team

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A band of young Arkansians who had been picked to hold up the Southwest Conference from the bottom today are rising atop that tough football loop with a record of four straight triumphs.

The astounding University of Arkansas Razorbacks soundly thrashed the University of Texas 20-7 at Austin Saturday to maintain their undefeated, untied record and rate seventh among the nation's top teams in the Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

Coach Bowen Wyatt's crew actually has a five-game winning streak, starting with the conquest of Tulsa University in the final game of the 1953 season.

So far this year, Arkansas has defeated Tulsa 41-0, Texas Christian 20-13, Baylor 21-20, and Texas. Before the season opened, Wyatt told newsmen that 7 of the 10 Razorback foes would be the physical superiors of Arkansas.

"We might be as strong by the end of the year as we were at the close of last season," said the coach. Arkansas won only three games and lost seven in 1953.

Wyatt pointed to inexperience at tailback and center—where only sophomores hold forth—and lack of talent at the ends, where there were no lettermen available, as weak spots that Arkansas would find impossible to overcome.

Furthermore, Arkansas had lost by graduation, the Southwest's top scoring punch of tailback Lamar McHan and end Floyd Sagesly, both all-conference selections.

Wyatt's green sophomores have played this year above all expectations, and two ends, Teddy Soutter and Jerry McFadden, have developed into first-line performers.

Arkansas' alert defense has been the secret of its success. In four games, the Razorbacks have intercepted 12 passes and recovered 12 of 16 fumbles by their opponents.

Leading the offense has been Henry Moore, a 185-pound junior who has both speed and power. Moore leads the conference in scoring with 36 points and is the team's top rusher.

Portland U Wins Cross Country Meet
PORTLAND (AP)—Portland University defeated Oregon State College 33-23 in a cross country meet here Monday.

Portland's Jim Senko finished the three-mile race in 16:32 minutes. Jeff Larson of Oregon State was second in 16:52.

Well Drilling
Hot Water Wells, Specialty
E. E. STOREY
Phone 3990

REWARD
for the return of yellow male Labrador. Has small growth on back, answers to name of "Rusty." Lost Saturday East of Henley near USBR Diversion Canal.

CALL 4620 or 2-0142

SPORTS

Tornadoes Move Into Prep Grid Poll Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Medford replaced South Salem, ranked first the first three weeks, as the No. 1 team in the Associated Press Oregon high school football poll this week.

Medford, which became the first class 1-A team to qualify for the state playoffs with a 13-0 win over Klamath Falls last Friday, edged South Salem in the balloting, 91 points to 86. The Southern Oregon team won only three first-place votes from the 19 sportswriters voting while South Salem got four, but received slightly more runner-up support.

South Salem whacked Lebanon, 34-6, to match Medford's six victories and no losses.

Marshfield and Prineville, also with 6-0 records, continued to hold third and fourth spots, each polling a first-place vote. Prineville clinched its third consecutive class 2-A district 8 title by downing Lakeview, 14-0, for its 23rd straight triumph. Marshfield routed Reedsport, 64-7.

College Grid Briefs

EUGENE (AP)—Coach Len Casanova sent his University of Oregon Ducks through a light scrimmage Monday in preparation for Saturday's meeting here with the strong San Jose State Spartans.

Casanova said the Ducks came through last Saturday's contest with Southern California in good physical shape although the extent of a side injury to Ron Peterson and a wrist injury to Dick James had not been determined.

CORVALLIS (AP)—The battered and bruised Oregon State Beavers were promised a week of heavy workouts Monday by coach Kip Taylor as they faced the awesome fact they'll meet the UCLA Bruins here Saturday.

Quarterbacks Jim Withrow and Ray Westfall, who missed most of last Saturday's game against Nevada, were recovering from injuries and are expected to be ready for the Uclans.

SPOKANE (AP)—Coach Skip Fieldy, whose University of Idaho Vandals haven't licked Washington State on the gridiron since 1925, warned Monday the Vandals will be playing for keeps against the Cougars come Saturday.

The 1954 renewal of the Palouse rivalry, scheduled at Pullman this year, pits two teams with mighty disappointing records. Idaho has yet to win a game and WSC has won only two of five contests.

Stanley told a sportswriters and sportscasters luncheon his Vandals weren't quite in the same league as the Cougars but "we'll be in there and the kids will give it a fight. I'll say one thing for this squad, the morale is tremendous."

WSC's head man, Al Kircher, countered with the statement that the only thing "in which we've been consistent is our inconsistency."

The Cougars, he added, are "not in any position where we can get overconfident about this Idaho game."

Both coaches said their squads were in fair physical shape and in top mental condition.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Coach Bob Bronzan says his San Jose State football team has a fair chance to beat Oregon at Eugene Saturday.

"We are beginning to click both in running and passing," he said. "Last week's open date gave us a chance to iron out a lot of rough spots. We've been concentrating on defensive moves against the good hook passes thrown by Oregon's George Shaw. If we come up with a top all-around team effort, I think we can win."

Ring Rule Appears Doomed

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing's three-knockdown rule which, except for championship bouts, automatically ends a bout after a fighter has hit the deck three times in one round appeared doomed Tuesday—at least in New York State.

"The automatic three-knockdown rule must go," thundered Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission. "Knockouts must be left to the discretion of the referee. I believe it is difficult to differentiate between a knockdown and a half push."

Christenberry found himself involved in a comic opera situation after Monday night's scheduled 10-round welterweight scrap at St. Nicholas Arena between Gerardo Dreyer of South Africa and Ramon Tiscareno of Los Angeles.

Dreyer was declared the winner on TKO when Tiscareno went down for the third time as the bell ended the first round. Then things happened fast. Before quiet was restored, Dreyer's manager and second were suspended, referee Pete Scizzo pleaded "don't put me on the spot," and the 1,000 or so spectators, along with the television audience, weren't quite sure exactly what had happened.

The best explanation is that Scizzo caused the confusion himself. He properly declared Dreyer the winner under the rule stopping a fight when one fighter is knocked down three times in one round. Instead of leaving well enough alone, Scizzo glanced toward Christenberry, who was at ringside, for advice.

The spectators immediately began shouting their disapproval. Scizzo went to Dreyer's corner and told Manager Ketchum and second Ted Bentham.

"I think you'll have to continue," SCREAMING
This set off Ketchum, who began screaming at Scizzo and racing around the ring looking for Christenberry. Meanwhile, Bentham had taken off Dreyer's right glove. For that, he and Ketchum were suspended and ordered to appear before Christenberry Friday. At that Christenberry said he will also take up the 3-knockdown rule.

Why he told Dreyer's corner they would have to continue, Scizzo never did explain. And when newsmen asked Christenberry, he only said:

"See Dreyer, he's the referee." Scizzo then apparently decided that he had acted correctly in the first place and ordered the fight ruled by Christenberry.

MONTREAL — Bobby Courchesne, 121, Holyoke, Mass., out-pointed Dexter Connors, 138, Halifax, 8.

SYDNEY — Billy Peacock, 118, Philadelphia, outpointed Pierre Cossemyns, 118 1/2, Sydney, 12.

WORLD RECORD—This 737-pound striped marlin landed in 35 minutes by Ralph Nakamura of Hawaii is a new world record for a 130-pound line test. It is 14 feet 6 inches in length, 60.4 inches at girth. (NEA)

Ore Tech Meets PSC; Pels Away

Oregon Tech celebrates its homecoming weekend, and the Klamath Union High School Pellicans travel to Reno as the two local gridiron machines move into tough practice sessions this week for the two football games.

This Saturday night, Coach Rex Hunsaker's power-laden Owls will face another stiff test as they meet the Portland State College Vikings on Modoc Field in the Mile High Campus' big homecoming football game.

With two straight wins hung over their shoulders, the Oregon Tech eleven will be seeking to make it three as they will also be trying to keep their conference win-loss record clean.

This seems to be a very tough assignment as the talented Vikings proved they had plenty of strength by whipping Oregon College of Education 14-0 Saturday by a 13-0 margin, and have indicated they might be doing the same this Saturday night when they meet the Owls.

But the Owls have plenty of potential also, even though they are short of bench strength for the type of competition they have been playing, including five halfbacks who are all about equal in ability. Three quarterbacks who have shown plenty in the past couple of games, and above all they have a number of very tough prospects in the forward wall that proves fatal to the opponents ground attack, as was the case last Saturday night when the Owls smothered Lower Columbia 52-19.

Pel coach John McGinnis and his squad will be moving into Reno next Saturday for an afternoon game with the Reno High School Huskies in what will prove to be one of the team's toughest battles of the season.

One particular reason why the Huskies will be tough at Reno is that they have yet to lose a home game this year, all of their losses have come from road games, including a 12-6 loss to Redding, a couple of weeks ago.

The Reno eleven is supposed to be an all senior squad, with one of the best high school quarterbacks at the helm, as Leonard Mardian will direct the Huskies from their dangerous split-T formation against the invading Pels.

Reno lost two of their fastest backs that plagued the Pelican defense last year, one of them is doing his footballing for the University of Nevada and is showing up quite well with only high school experience behind him, but they still have plenty of speed to burn with the running of halfbacks Roy Landeros and Dale Provost.

Coach Richard Trachok and his assistant John Robb probably won't start a line that will weigh as much as Pel line coach Harry Russell's, but word from the Nevada city is that the Huskie forward wall is one of the finest assembled there in some time.

The largest man in the list of possible starters is 190 pounds, but in case reserve strength is needed against the Whitebirds, Trachok has Richard Yates a 6-3, 216 pound senior to close any holes that the Pels may make in the Huskies' forward wall.

The Pels might be playing without the services of two senior lettermen when they go into the Saturday afternoon gridiron battle, but nothing is certain as yet, according to McGinnis.

Elvis Mitchell, who didn't even suit up for the Medford game last Friday may miss this week's game should his ankle injury fail to answer to treatment, while another foot hurt may keep Chuck Gupilli, who did a great share of the ball carrying against the Black Tornadoes, out of the Reno ballgame. All of the other injuries that were received in the grueling battle with Medford seem to be minor.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Ring Rule Appears Doomed

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing's three-knockdown rule which, except for championship bouts, automatically ends a bout after a fighter has hit the deck three times in one round appeared doomed Tuesday—at least in New York State.

"The automatic three-knockdown rule must go," thundered Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission. "Knockouts must be left to the discretion of the referee. I believe it is difficult to differentiate between a knockdown and a half push."

Christenberry found himself involved in a comic opera situation after Monday night's scheduled 10-round welterweight scrap at St. Nicholas Arena between Gerardo Dreyer of South Africa and Ramon Tiscareno of Los Angeles.

Dreyer was declared the winner on TKO when Tiscareno went down for the third time as the bell ended the first round. Then things happened fast. Before quiet was restored, Dreyer's manager and second were suspended, referee Pete Scizzo pleaded "don't put me on the spot," and the 1,000 or so spectators, along with the television audience, weren't quite sure exactly what had happened.

The best explanation is that Scizzo caused the confusion himself. He properly declared Dreyer the winner under the rule stopping a fight when one fighter is knocked down three times in one round. Instead of leaving well enough alone, Scizzo glanced toward Christenberry, who was at ringside, for advice.

The spectators immediately began shouting their disapproval. Scizzo went to Dreyer's corner and told Manager Ketchum and second Ted Bentham.

"I think you'll have to continue," SCREAMING
This set off Ketchum, who began screaming at Scizzo and racing around the ring looking for Christenberry. Meanwhile, Bentham had taken off Dreyer's right glove. For that, he and Ketchum were suspended and ordered to appear before Christenberry Friday. At that Christenberry said he will also take up the 3-knockdown rule.

Why he told Dreyer's corner they would have to continue, Scizzo never did explain. And when newsmen asked Christenberry, he only said:

"See Dreyer, he's the referee." Scizzo then apparently decided that he had acted correctly in the first place and ordered the fight ruled by Christenberry.

MONTREAL — Bobby Courchesne, 121, Holyoke, Mass., out-pointed Dexter Connors, 138, Halifax, 8.

SYDNEY — Billy Peacock, 118, Philadelphia, outpointed Pierre Cossemyns, 118 1/2, Sydney, 12.

WORLD RECORD—This 737-pound striped marlin landed in 35 minutes by Ralph Nakamura of Hawaii is a new world record for a 130-pound line test. It is 14 feet 6 inches in length, 60.4 inches at girth. (NEA)

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Ore Tech Meets PSC; Pels Away

Oregon Tech celebrates its homecoming weekend, and the Klamath Union High School Pellicans travel to Reno as the two local gridiron machines move into tough practice sessions this week for the two football games.

This Saturday night, Coach Rex Hunsaker's power-laden Owls will face another stiff test as they meet the Portland State College Vikings on Modoc Field in the Mile High Campus' big homecoming football game.

With two straight wins hung over their shoulders, the Oregon Tech eleven will be seeking to make it three as they will also be trying to keep their conference win-loss record clean.

This seems to be a very tough assignment as the talented Vikings proved they had plenty of strength by whipping Oregon College of Education 14-0 Saturday by a 13-0 margin, and have indicated they might be doing the same this Saturday night when they meet the Owls.

But the Owls have plenty of potential also, even though they are short of bench strength for the type of competition they have been playing, including five halfbacks who are all about equal in ability. Three quarterbacks who have shown plenty in the past couple of games, and above all they have a number of very tough prospects in the forward wall that proves fatal to the opponents ground attack, as was the case last Saturday night when the Owls smothered Lower Columbia 52-19.

Pel coach John McGinnis and his squad will be moving into Reno next Saturday for an afternoon game with the Reno High School Huskies in what will prove to be one of the team's toughest battles of the season.

One particular reason why the Huskies will be tough at Reno is that they have yet to lose a home game this year, all of their losses have come from road games, including a 12-6 loss to Redding, a couple of weeks ago.

The Reno eleven is supposed to be an all senior squad, with one of the best high school quarterbacks at the helm, as Leonard Mardian will direct the Huskies from their dangerous split-T formation against the invading Pels.

Reno lost two of their fastest backs that plagued the Pelican defense last year, one of them is doing his footballing for the University of Nevada and is showing up quite well with only high school experience behind him, but they still have plenty of speed to burn with the running of halfbacks Roy Landeros and Dale Provost.

Coach Richard Trachok and his assistant John Robb probably won't start a line that will weigh as much as Pel line coach Harry Russell's, but word from the Nevada city is that the Huskie forward wall is one of the finest assembled there in some time.

The largest man in the list of possible starters is 190 pounds, but in case reserve strength is needed against the Whitebirds, Trachok has Richard Yates a 6-3, 216 pound senior to close any holes that the Pels may make in the Huskies' forward wall.

The Pels might be playing without the services of two senior lettermen when they go into the Saturday afternoon gridiron battle, but nothing is certain as yet, according to McGinnis.

Elvis Mitchell, who didn't even suit up for the Medford game last Friday may miss this week's game should his ankle injury fail to answer to treatment, while another foot hurt may keep Chuck Gupilli, who did a great share of the ball carrying against the Black Tornadoes, out of the Reno ballgame. All of the other injuries that were received in the grueling battle with Medford seem to be minor.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LOS ANGELES — Don Grant, 166, Los Angeles, outpointed Charley Green, 161 1/2, Los Angeles, 10.

SALT LAKE CITY — Rex Layne, 206, Salt Lake City, outpointed Willie Bean, 218, Los Angeles, 10.

BROOKLYN (Eastern Parkway) — Paddy Young, 165, New York, outpointed Jesse Turner, 158 1/2, St. Louis, 10.

NEW YORK (St. Nicholas Arena) — Gerald Dreyer, 149 1/2, South Africa, stopped Ramon Tiscareno, 145, Los Angeles, 1.

MONTREAL — Bobby Courchesne, 121, Holyoke, Mass., out-pointed Dexter Connors, 138, Halifax, 8.

SYDNEY — Billy Peacock, 118, Philadelphia, outpointed Pierre Cossemyns, 118 1/2, Sydney, 12.

WORLD RECORD—This 737-pound striped marlin landed in 35 minutes by Ralph Nakamura of Hawaii is a new world record for a 130-pound line test. It is 14 feet 6 inches in length, 60.4 inches at girth. (NEA)

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Should Mitchell and Gupilli not be able to see action against the Huskies this weekend, Russell would probably start either Bill Badorek, Leon Brown, Larry Heaton or Earl Tichenor at the two end spots, while Jack Sunitsch, Scott Hancock or Larry Dearing will get Gupilli's spot if he is not in shape to run against the Nevada foe.

Saxton Plans On Jail Term

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J. (AP)—Johnny Saxton may serve 18 days in jail, starting Thursday morning for traffic violations but he says he's going to take something with him to keep him warm—Kid Gavilan's welterweight crown.

"What you've got to do, you've got to do," said the 24-year-old New Yorker. "I've got to pay that penalty in New York and get out of it over with."

Asked whether the impending term affected him mentally, the strong, muscular youngster replied:

"No. I've been training for four months for this. Those two postponements were annoying but I've set my mind on beating the Kid and nothing is going to stand in my way Wednesday night."

Saxton finished his training Monday with some light exercises in the gym at Launa Byrd's training camp. After it was over he stepped on the scales and weighed a shade under the 147 pounds he must make at noon Wednesday.

Gavilan said he weighed 148 after he completed his training in his camp near Summit, N.J.

Canadian Gridders Led By Al Webster

TORONTO (AP)—Alex Webster, hard running halfback from North Carolina State, and the front running Montreal Alouettes all dominated the scoring statistics of the Canadian Big Four professional football league Tuesday.

Doug Walker's Alouettes have the top two scorers in Webster, who has 60 points on 12 touchdowns and Ray Poole, the tackle kicking specialist from Mississippi who has accounted for 53 points.

In addition to leading the scorers, Webster is setting the pace in rushing with 723 yards gained in 126 tries for a 5.7 average. Gene Wilson, who came to the Toronto Argonauts from the University of South Carolina, is second with 565 yards.

Sam Etcheberry, Denver University's gift to Montreal, regained the passing lead with 149 completions out of 261 for an average of 9.5 yards and 14 touchdowns.

SCIENCE HELPS IOWA HUNTERS, ANGLERS
DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa hunters and fishermen can look forward to years of harvesting the fruits of scientific game management on Lake Odessa, one of the state's top wildlife areas.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers released the 3,000-acre area to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, which turned it over to the State Conservation Department for long-term planning as a management project.

LOOK!
IN JUST 29 DAYS YOU
Can See The '55 Chrysler
Ballard & Bennett

REWARD
for the return of yellow male Labrador. Has small growth on back, answers to name of "Rusty." Lost Saturday East of Henley near USBR Diversion Canal.

CALL 4620 or 2-0142

Hunters Attention! GET SMART—BUY

Those Shot Gun Shells From The Man You Expect To Repair Your Gun

First Consideration Given Those Who Do So...
— FULL LINE — AUTHORIZED GUNSMITH
• REMINGTON For
• WINCHESTER
• PETERS
• AMMUNITION
• REMINGTON
• SAVAGE

— WE CARRY —
• WINCHESTER
• REMINGTON
• ITHICA
SHOT GUNS

RALPH'S GUN SHOP
4621 So. 6th

This Week's Winners JAY HAWK'S

FREE CONTEST IN PRIZES Absolutely Free!

THESE ARE THE WINNING GREEN TICKETS
093636 -- 089750
087871 -- 094824
093840 -- 094286

YOUR HEADQUARTERS FOR ROCKET GAS
JAY HAWK PETROLEUM
2135 So. 6th
Phone 6788

All the new STETSON and RESISTOL Hats for Fall are now in stock at DREWS—See them... trim... businesslike... handsome...

