Wisconsin Rated Second

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oklahoma continued to ride out the storm of upsets and hold down its perch as the No. 1 college football team in the country today.

The mighty Sooners, who trampled Kansas 65-9 last week, polled 1,891 points in The Associated Press' weekly poll of sports writers and sportscasters. They captured 115 first-place votes of the 212 cast.

1,000 VOTES
The next three teams — Wisconsin, UCLA and Ohio State — also stayed in the same positions as a week ago. They all polled more than 1,000 votes on the basis of 10 for first, 9 for second and so on down the line.

Wisconsin had 42 firsts and 1,732 points; UCLA, 23 firsts and 1,590 points; and Ohio State, 8 firsts, good for 1,387 points. Wisconsin and Ohio State collide at Columbus this week.

The rest of the top 10, was well scrambled from a week ago. There are four new members — Arkansas, Minnesota, Army and West Virginia. All recorded upset victories, and now are Nos. 7, 8, 9 and 10, respectively.

DROPPED
Purdue, Duke, Penn State and Navy all dropped out of the top 10 on the basis of defeats. Duke took the longest slide, from No. 6 to No. 19, as a result of its 28-14 loss to Army. Conversely, the Cadets gained the most ground, going from No. 18 to No. 9.

Notre Dame, still striving for national honors, jumped from eighth to sixth after whipping Michigan State 20-19, and Mississippi advanced from seventh to fifth as a result of its 34-7 victory over Tulane.

The leading teams with first-place votes in parentheses:

Football Notes

NEW YORK — With the football season turning into the second and most important half for the ambitious clubs, a conference title, a trip to a bowl and national ranking can be lost by a missed signal, an offside, a turned ankle or a bad bounce in the open.

It is therefore refreshing as well as entertaining to read what George Mason, Alabama tackle, engineering student and young father, has to say: "Nothing worries me and when it does I don't think about it."

A philosopher of the same mould is West Virginia coach Art (Pappy) Lewis. His Mountaineers are unbeaten and he was asked if he thought the club could make it through the season without a defeat.

"Honest," he said, "I'm not worried about anything right now except YMI for next Saturday and the grocery bill."

Notre Dame coach Terry Brennan may not have realized it but he hung a big funeral wreath about the neck of two-platoon football when he explained why six of his regular muscle-guys played 60 minutes against Michigan State in Saturday's 20-19 victory. Said Terry:

"We had to go with men who had the most experience and once we were functioning as a unit I didn't want to change."

Not specialists, just rugged blockers and runners won for Notre Dame. Seventeen men did all the work.

Georgia Tech coach Bobby Dodd explains the many football upsets this season, saying: "Constance exchange of game motion pictures makes scouting thorough and cuts down tremendously on the surprise element."

This figures because Stanford's Chuck Taylor explained his 6-72 defeat to UCLA with the remark: "They did what we expected them to do but they did it better—and more often."

Chicago Race Tracks Make House Cleaning

CHICAGO — A campaign by two major Chicago race tracks to rid themselves of hoodlums who make book on the premises has netted a blacklist of more than 30 men now barred from the race tracks.

The Chicago Tribune said in a story Tuesday the individuals have been barred from Arlington and Washington Park tracks "where they were reported to have been doing a business at the rate of $100,000 a day."

The two tracks have summer meetings of about a month's duration.

EX-CONVICT
Some of the men, the newspaper said, are ex-convicts believed connected with the city's gambling operations.

The individuals were barred permanently after track police said they were seen soliciting and accepting bets on races, the Tribune said. The practice of making book at race tracks deprives the federal government, the state and track owners of thousands of dollars in revenue.

Among the barred men were several previously arrested on charges in Chicago. These include Joseph (Crackers) Mendino, 45; Frank Cerone, 38; Rocco Colucio, 68; John McDonald; Charles English, and his brother, Sam.

OUT-OF-STATE
Several out-of-state individuals also were among those listed as barred by the newspaper.

The Illinois State Racing Board last week said it had found "some indication of gangster presence" in horse racing in the state. Board chairman Paul Serdar said his agency had been investigating the situation and reports that mobsters owned thoroughbred horses, own stock in tracks and raced horses under the names of "stooges."

Shoemaker Moves Higher With Three Wins
SAN BRUNO, Calif. — Jockey Willie Shoemaker's 11th triple-winner day of the Tanforan meeting boosted him within 5 victories of 2,000 in his 6 years of riding.

Shoemaker's three winners were Blue Karim $5.40, Aussie, and $4.90 and First Down, also $4.90.

NCAA Violators To Be Uncovered
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A National Collegiate Athletic Assn. committee was expected to disclose today for tomorrow whether any member school is under investigation for breaking NCAA rules.

The report of the Committee on Rules Infractions will highlight the three-day meeting here of the 18-member NCAA Council. Most of yesterday's opening session was devoted to routine business.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive secretary, said he did not believe the council would recommend any major rule changes to the annual convention in New York Jan. 5.

He also announced the Sugar Bowl, Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference and Drake Relays had agreed to bar violators of NCAA regulations.

"B" MEN REPLACE "M" MEN
UNIVERSITY, Miss. (AP) — Last season players whose last names began with the letter "M" dominated the University of Mississippi football team. This year the "B" men dominate the squad.

Such stalwarts are: tackles Red Rex Boggan and Bo Burgenmeyer, guard Rodgers Brasher and backs John Black, Earl Blair, Johnny Barber, Willis Black and Jerry Baker.

All except Boggan and Brasher are sophomores.

Irish Have Avid Fan

MARENGO, Ill. (AP) — Edward Zenk, 28, considers himself one of Notre Dame's most avid football fans.

He attends every home game of the Irish for which he can get tickets and always carries a portable radio.

Zenk is blind.

"All my life I've followed Notre Dame football," he said. "I played guard on the Marengo High School team and dreamed of going to Notre Dame. A month after I was graduated in 1943 I was drafted.

"In April of 1945, a Jap grenade exploded in front of me. That was outside Manila. I haven't been able to see since then.

"Since 1946 I've attended every Notre Dame game I can. The hardest thing about it all is getting tickets.

"It's difficult to explain what a big kick I get out of the games although I am blind. Sure, I could listen to the radio at home. But there's nothing like taking my portable along and sitting in the stands with the crowd, and listening to all those cheers. That color is something you can't get in the living room of your home with a radio.

Zenk married in 1946 and the couple has two boys, Eddie 7, and Billy, 5.

Zenk's wife attends all games with him.

"She knows a lot about football, but when we go to Notre Dame I prefer to listen to the report on the radio rather than have her tell me what's going on. But at Marengo High School games, she's right there beside me giving me a play-by-play."

Zenk worked in a factory after his marriage, then operated a bowling alley. At present he owns a tobacco shop.

Edmonton Drubs BC Eleven

Edmonton drubbed British Columbia 22-0 while Calgary shaded Winnipeg 12-11 in Western Interprovincial Football Union competition Monday night.

The Edmonton victory at Vancouver clinched a WIFU playoff berth and Calgary's narrow win at Calgary kept alive the Stampeder's faint hopes of taking part in the postseason eliminations.

The Edmonton triumph gave the Eskimos exclusive possession of second place ahead of Winnipeg and Calgary's Stampeder, whose only hope of reaching the playoffs hinges on Winnipeg's losing its last two games.

Edmonton controlled the game at Vancouver from the opening kickoff and scored in every quarter but the third. The Eskimos led 16-0 at halftime.

At Winnipeg, Tom Miner's conversion after Howard Waugh's fourth quarter touchdown gave the Stampeder's their come-from-behind victory. The game ended the regular season for Calgary.

LEARNING BEAR GRID FACTS
DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. George Caporal drove their son, Bob, to St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Ind., for the start of freshman football practice. They noticed some huge characters tearing up and down the field and decided son Bob should try his hand at another sport.

It turned out happily for Bob, when his folks were assured the big boys were the professional Chicago Bears making use of the college facilities for early season drills.

Giant Tops Snider

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie (The Wallop) Mays, the New York Giant's sensational outfielder, captured the National League slugging title for 1954 in a close competition with Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski.

Slugging averages—based on total bases and times at bat—compiled by The Associated Press showed Tuesday that Mays produced 377 total bases in 565 at bats for a .667 mark. Willie cracked out 33 doubles, 13 triples and 41 homers among 195 hits.

Snider, last year's pace-setter, piled up 378 total bases, the most in the majors, in 584 tries for a .547 average. Kluszewski was third with 639 on 366 total bases in 573 at bats.

Included among Snider's 199 safeties were 39 doubles, 10 triples and 41 home runs. Kluszewski collected 187 hits while piling the major leagues in homers with 49. Ted and also had 26 doubles and 3 triples.

Minnie Minoza of the Chicago White Sox took American League slugging honors with a .535 average. The speedy outfielder-third baseman compiled 394 total bases in 568 at bats. Minnie slammed 29 doubles, 13 triples and 19 circuit blows among 182 hits.

Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankee's switch-hitting outfielder, was runner-up to Minoza with a .523 mark. He had 163 hits and 16 doubles, 12 triples and 27 homers in his extra-base output.

Sanders Praises UCLA Grid Squad

Coach Red Sanders gave his UCLA squad a day off for their good (72-0) behavior against Stanford Saturday. Then he praised his boys in a way that won't inspire confidence in the teams his undefeated Bruin bonecrushers will be playing.

Sanders told football writers at Los Angeles Monday that UCLA put out one of "the greatest team efforts I've ever seen." He said it was remarkable how the Bruins changed from offensive to defense football "whenever we intercepted a pass or returned a punt. And the downfield blocking was tremendous."

ONSLAUGHT
Oregon State faces the Southern onslaught in Corvallis Saturday, then California, Oregon and USC in order.

In San Francisco coach Chuck Taylor of Stanford told football writers:

"Stanford is actually not as bad as the score seems. And I doubt UCLA is as good as the result indicates."

Turning to California's Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, Taylor said: "You can have 'em, Pappy."

But Waldorf—whose Bears meet USC in the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday—wasn't having any, at least not until the Bruins invade Berkeley Oct. 30.

He said Southern Cal has a "big fast line and fine backfield. Our running attack is still spotty with not much punch inside the five yard line. We'll have to play out every best even to be in the game."

Sports Notes
A top player in the National Football League, Charles Ane is compelled to wear shoes. In his native Hawaii he played barefoot.

Point of information for fishermen: Turtles are born on land. But, once hatched, they return to water.

The University of North Carolina football eleven this fall is making it tough for sports writers who may stumble on their spellings. Among the Tar Heel players are Stavinski, Marcinko, Muschamp, Boyette, Marcupulos and Kiochak.

Kid Gavilan needed 7 years, 11 months and 88 fights to win the welterweight fight title.
