Friday morning, the Republican senator will hold a press and radio conference at his rooms at the Willard Hotel. His statements will be made on behalf of U.S. Senator Guy Cordon, who is a candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket.

Senator Bennett will be a guest of the Klamath Falls Rotary Club Friday noon at the Willard Hotel.

Friday afternoon he will be given a tour of the Klamath County agricultural development and irrigation projects. That evening he will be guest speaker at the 18th annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival banquet at Merrill.

New Air Mail Petition Told

An early start of the post office department's plan to move first class mail by air along the Pacific Coast has been asked by United Air Lines according to local manager, Cy Palmer.

In a petition just filed with the CAB, United says it is willing to join in the experiment at the post office's proposed rate of 18.98 cents per ton mile.

United says it accepts the proposed rate for flying first class mail on a space-available basis in order to assist the post office in its experiment between certain designated coast cities to improve mail service to the public and reduce post office costs.

At the same time, United asks that CAB establish a 30-cent-a-ton mile rate for similar service between all other small cities the company serves, the same rate United originally requested for service between the smaller Pacific Coast cities.

Pacific Coast cities between which the lower rate would apply include Seattle, Portland, Salem, Bend-Redmond, Eugene, Medford, Klamath Falls and California points.
