PRETTY GIRLS AND NO. 1 POTATOES make a potato festival. Charming Queen Mary Johnson, Merrill's candidate for this year's crown, played at pickin' taters in this picture taken in a Merrill potato field. The tall, dark-haired ruler of the 1954 Klamath Basin Potato Festival to be held October 22-23, will be crowned during the 18th annual banquet in the Merrill grade school gymnasium at 6:30 p.m. opening day of the festival. The crown will be put on her dark tresses by U.S. Senator Wallace F. Bennett, Utah. Members of the royal court are Agnes Unruh, Malin, Maureen Lyon, Henley, Joan Daley, Bonanza and Marylou Steyskal, Tulelake.
