Death Claims Former Resident

Word was received here by Mrs. Fred Ervin, 948 Prospect, of the death of Mrs. Myrtle Kays at the home of Mrs. Kays' daughter, Mrs. George (Helen) Dye, Box 69-A, Fort Bragg, California. Mrs. Kays was about 62.

Mr. and Mrs. Kays had made many years in Klamath Falls for their home where he was a shingler and roofer. They moved to Grants Pass about 10 years ago and he died there.

In addition to her daughter, Helen, survivors include three other daughters, Mrs. R. L. (Irma) Barrett of Grants Pass, Dora, who lives in California, and Harriet at Anchorage, Alaska.

Funeral services will be held at Fort Bragg on Friday.

Sportsmen To Hold Meeting

The Klamath Sportsmen's Association will hold a meeting Tuesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Business to be considered at the meeting includes proposed changes and additions in the constitution and by-laws relating to classes of membership, initiation fees and dues, making two classes of membership.

Dorothy Brauner, secretary, calls attention to the fact that this meeting is one week later than usual. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Chemult Gunners Plan Turkey Shoot

CHEMULT — A turkey shoot, sponsored by the Chemult Gun Club, will be held at the trap club grounds south of Chemult at Beaver Marsh, Sunday, November 14.

There will be chickens for winners who don't want turkeys. Starting time has been set for 1 p.m. so as not to interfere with the morning duck hunting.
