Henley Bethel Job's Daughters

Henley Bethel No. 51, Order of Job's Daughters, opened a recent meeting with a buffet dinner honoring the grand guardian, Dorothy Crump, Portland, on the occasion of her official visit.

Honored Queen Maureen Lyon instructed that the grand guardian be escorted and seated in the east. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of Oregon, was also escorted and given honors.

Four new members initiated were Marilyn Winnifred Meek, Betty Janet Glass, Beverly Dawn Reeder and Sherrill Antionette Schiro. Choir girls and guardian of music, Bonnie Pinchum, participated in the ceremony.

A humorous skit, written by guardian of sociability, Beulah Bahdger, was enacted by Mary Wells, Margie Whittemore, Rebecca Short, Sheila Finchum, Linda Hals and Gwen Balancer, who then presented the grand guardian with a gift of wild plum jelly provided by guardian of paraphernalia, Doris Huu, and an apron made by Bethel guardian, Cole Brown.

An interesting letter was read which Hazel Jo DeLameter had received from the "Grandmother Clipping" at the Marine and Eastern Star home in Forest Grove.

The grand guardian gave an inspiring address on the state-wide philanthropic candy sale which has made it possible to help in the research on leukemia, the adoption of children in Korea, purchase of a seeing eye dog for a young blind girl who is at present state Bethel outer guard of Bethel No. 45. She complimented the girls on their organization of a new Bethel.

The buffet dinner was served by a committee of the mothers club with Mrs. E. Wells as chairman.

FRIENDS OF Lieut. Evan O. Dixon, son of Mrs. Blanche L. Dixon, 623 Prescott Street, will be interested to learn of his forthcoming marriage to Mrs. Jane T. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Turner of Berkeley Hills, Charleston Heights, South Carolina.

Mrs. Moore, widow of William Byan Moore, is the former Jane Ernestine Turner. Lieut. Dixon is assigned to the 86th Air Transport Squadron, Charleston Air Force Base, South Carolina. The wedding will take place December 4.

Sponsors Feted By CF Group

CHILOQUIN — The girls of the Shawanna Camp Fire group gave a Friday afternoon party for their sponsors the past matrons of the local Eastern Star Chapter, October 1, at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Gerald Wolff.

The entertainment was planned on a school theme with each guest signing at the principal's office, getting a report card, cafeteria ticket, later playing games in arithmetic, social science and physical education. Other entertainment included a singing class.

Refreshments were served as the guests went to the Camp Fire cafeteria. Prize winners during the party were Linda Clise, Mrs. Dwight Krieger, and Mrs. Les Hoback, Modoc Point.

The girls, each of whom had a responsible part in giving the affair, impersonated the Chilouquin school faculty and cafeteria staff to carry out the theme.

Attending were Mrs. Lester Hoback, Mrs. Dwight Krieger, Mrs. James Parsley, Mrs. Earl Hall, Jimmy Lynn Doak, Janet Hall, Mcki Jo, Gerry, and Cherry Wolf, Elizabeth Rents, Mary O'Neill, Donna Robinson, Sally Ravizza, Marlene Norris, Sheila Riddle, Judy Adamo, Linda Clise and the guardian, Mrs. Wolff.

ANW CLUB

Mrs. George R. Hurn was hostess at a 1 p.m. dessert luncheon for Art Needle Work members at her home on Pine Street, Wednesday.

After luncheon, members exchanged books for the first time since the "book exchange" was resumed. Club scrap books were another source of amusement during the afternoon.

Mrs. G. E. Hill, North Bend, was a special guest of the day. She is visiting with her son Gerald and daughter-in-law, Margaret, who is the daughter of club member, Mrs. Harold M. Brown.

Members present were Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. Harold M. Brown and the hostess.

MRS. HARRY C. MESNER . . . 2956 Summers Lane, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marian Rae, to Wesley C. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton, Malin.

Both are sophomores at Oregon State College; Marian, a graduate of KUHS, is majoring in business technology; and Wesley in forestry. She is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The prospective bridegroom served two years in Okinawa with the Engineer Corps after he was graduated from Malin High School. The wedding date is set for December 30, in Peace Memorial Church.

You won't worry so much if your home is insured with Hans Norland, 627 Pine St.

MRS. JOHN PASELK and daughter Carol, two. Their home is in Centerville; but they have been in Macdoel since early spring. John Paselk, a partner in the Clements Construction Company, is supervising the highway construction job between here and Dorris.

PI BETA PHI ALUMNAE CLUB

Plans for the forthcoming Settlement School tea October 30, were formulated by the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Kent.

The tea, at the home of Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, 1338 Pacific Terrace, will feature a display of items made by the mountain folk near Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Pi Beta Phi social sorority founded and still maintains the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, and offers courses in weaving, furniture making basket weaving and other handicrafts to the children and adults of the community in addition to a complete public school curriculum. Many families in that area of the Great Smokies are partially supported by the sale of their handiwork.

Items on display and for sale at the tea will include handwoven pine mats, stoles, baby jackets, blankets and bibs, handmade children's furniture and dolls, fireplace brooms, handwoven baskets and handwoven aprons.

Present for the business meeting and dessert were Mrs. Eric Majors, Mrs. Myron Shannon, Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. Lynn Propst, Mrs. Buford Hargus, Mrs. Eugene Gjertsen and the hostess, Mrs. Kent.
