Churches Plan Special Day

Klamath Falls Council of Church Women will cooperate again this year in observance of World Community Day.

Observed annually on the first Friday of November, this year November 5, the local group will hold services beginning at 3 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. A. M. Collier, First Presbyterian Church, is in charge.

World Community Day gives American church women an opportunity to share with others less fortunate than themselves. Gifts include both money and vitally needed clothing, household linens and blankets.

Because of the $99,000 offering given on World Community Day in 1955, families of displaced persons are feeling "placed" again in farm settlements in Austria where a portion of gifts from church women helped buy basic articles of furniture and kitchen equipment.

Because of $61,000 pounds of clothing sent last year in parcels for Peace, victims of earthquake had warm clothing again.

World Community Day is sponsored by United Church Women, a general department of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA. With programs planned around the theme, "Building Lasting Peace," church women in thousands of communities will meet this Friday to pray for world peace and to dedicate their gifts of clothing, material, blankets, household linens and money.

Chairman for the 1956 observance, Mrs. H. H. Kodani, Pacific Palisades, California, pointed out that World Community Day is more than just a day. "It is a daily year-round concern for the suffering of mankind; a concern which cuts across all boundaries — geographical, nationalities, creeds, races."

Reenlistment Policy Told

The U.S. Navy has formulated a new policy concerning the reenlistment of Navy veterans, ENI Don Graham of the Klamath Falls Navy Recruiting Station announced today.

Men who have been discharged from the Navy less than one year and at the time of separation held one of several critical ratings are eligible to reenlist at their former rating.

The ratings listed as critical are: communications technician, electrician's mate, electronics technician, pipefitter, interior communications electrician, mineman, radarman, radioman, sonarman, or teleman.

Graham added that former Navy men reenlisting after only one previous Navy enlistment may now elect to reenlist for two, three, four or six years.

Full particulars about this new reenlistment policy may be obtained from your local Navy Recruiting Office, located on the third floor of the post office building in Klamath Falls.

times wouldn't talk to her for 10 days at a time.

Dressed in somber black, the blonde star took the stand and in reply to attorney Jerry Giesler's questions, testified:

"My husband would get into moods and wouldn't talk to me for long periods—five to seven days for some times, maybe longer—10 days. And if I tried to approach him, he usually said: 'Leave me alone.'"

She said that when she asked the former baseball star "What's the matter?" he replied "Stop nagging me."

"He allowed me no visitors whatsoever. I don't believe I asked someone to our home more than three times during the nine months we were married. On one occasion when I was sick, he allowed someone to see me, but then only under tremendous strain."

"I offered to give up my work in hopes that would solve our problems. But that didn't change his attitude at all."

"I had hoped to have out of marriage love, warmth, affection and understanding. But instead he gave me coolness and indifference."

Giesler asked her how this affected her health.

The screen's No. 1 boxoffice draw replied: "I've been under the care of a doctor for some time."

She added that she tried to make a go of the marriage.

After testifying—faltering for five minutes she was dismissed from the stand. Her business manager, Mrs. Inez Melson, testified that she was a visitor at the DiMaggio home on a number of occasions and declared that the former Yankee Clipper was "very indifferent" and not concerned at all about Mrs. DiMaggio.

She added that DiMaggio caused his wife great unhappiness and mental and physical suffering.

After a 15-minute trial, the divorce was granted by Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes. There was no alimony nor community property. The couple has no children.

DiMaggio did not contest the divorce.

Portland Food Index Declines

PORTLAND (AP) — The Portland index of retail food prices went down 1.2 per cent last month to the lowest level of the year.

The Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics said the index was at 112.1 per cent of the 1947-49 average. That is 1.5 per cent under the figure a year ago.

The seasonal decline of 3.8 per cent on fresh fruit and vegetable prices accounted for most of the decrease. Meats, poultry and fish also were down while dairy products, cereal and bakery products were unchanged.
