

Pelicans Close Season Against Grants Pass

Caveman Battle Tonight

High school football draws to a close tonight on Modoc Field as the KUHS Pelicans play host to an over-powering Grants Pass eleven in the Pelis final game of the 1954 season. Kickoff time is 8 o'clock.

This contest is a District 6 battle, but the outcome will only bring joy to the winners and build their seasonal record higher in the percentage column since no state tournament berth is in the offering, something unusual for this big Southern Oregon ball game.

Medford broke Grants Pass' hold on the district championship this year and took two conference games, one from Grants Pass, 14-7 and the other from Klamath by a 13-0 margin setting themselves in the drivers seat and headed for the state high school football playoffs.

CLOSING OUT

Coach John McGinnis, who is closing out his first season as head man of the local gridiron machine, and his "Never Say Die Kids" will face the "strongest" team they have faced all season when they meet the Cavemen.

Grants Pass, according to McGinnis, was out charging Medford all night long, and except for a last half minute 105 yard run by Medford, the Cavemen would have topped Medford on first downs or yardage, therefore they will be quite a bit for the Pelis to handle come kickoff time tonight.

In the last four seasons, Klamath has been turned inside out by

TWO JUNIOR LINEMEN who will be doing their best towards leading the Klamath Union High School Pelicans to an upset win over the favored Grants Pass Cavemen in tonight's prep football game at Modoc Field are tackle Bob Harshbarger, left, and Larry Heaton a letterman end. Game time for the district 6 game is 8:00.

Stanford Working On Passes

PALO ALTO, Calif. — Coach Chuck Taylor left no doubt Friday his Stanford Indians would concentrate on an aerial attack against Washington State here Saturday.

Taylor named his passing quarterback—John Brodie—to start instead of Jerry Gustafson, the running game specialist.

Coach Al Kircher served notice that his Cougars plan the same style of attack by naming Bob Iverson at quarterback. Iverson has shown more in the aerial department than Frank Sarno, the regular signal caller.

Kircher's squad was due Friday.

Taylor said his decision to depend on Brodie—and the slim quarterback's passing arm—was reached at a coaches' meeting.

"That means I'll be Brodie's game to run virtually the entire distance," Taylor said. "In addition to our wish to shoot with our passing attack we think that when Brodie finds himself he'll be as good a quarterback as there is."

Taylor said no other changes would be made in the Indian backfield, but there would be some shuffling of the line due to injuries.

LINEUP SHUFFLE

MOSCOW, Idaho — Coach Skip Stahley indicated Thursday he will shuffle the University of Idaho football lineup before the Vandals play Utah at Salt Lake City Saturday but he refused to say what changes he has in mind.

The Vandals, who upset Washington State last week and are hoping for their second straight surprise, worked on a passing offense and a defense against the strong Utah ground attack.

TOUGHER

Something that will be making the task of knocking off the Grants Pass eleven tonight tougher, is the past showings of the Cavemen's head, and non-lettermen might get the opening call. The two tackle spots will probably go to Arnold Slaven, 191-pound junior letterman and 229 - pound Gary Krause.

The remaining three positions in the GP line will be filled by Jim Dean and Larry Otis, 191 and 172 pounds respectively at the two guard spots, while Mel Drews a 175-pound senior letterman will get the opening call for the center duty.

ASSIGNMENTS

In Ingram's backfield will be Jim Reid or Chuck Nevi at the quarterback spot, while the two half-back assignments will probably go to Don James and Allan Drews, both of whom are capable of going all the way. The line busting of Lloyd Zimm has garnered him the starting job as the Cavemen's fullback, and is one of the hardest runners in the conference this season, according to his past game showings.

McGinnis and his two assistants, Harry Russell and Gerald Bevans will be using 18 seniors for their final high school football game. The probable starters will be Evis Mitchell and any of the following at the end positions: Leon Brown, Larry Heaton, Bill Badorek or Earl Tichenor.

The tackle jobs will probably be assigned to Bob Harshbarger and Jim McGee, two juniors with plenty of promise, while Erwin Mulen, Martin Gausey and Vince "Pee Wee" Reece will see tackle duty also. All are seniors.

Uclans, Bears In Top Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A 34-man UCLA Bruin football squad arrives at Berkeley Friday to work out for Saturday's game with California — the Pacific Coast's top weekend football attraction.

Other contests match Washington State at Stanford, Oregon at Washington, Oregon State at USC, Idaho at Utah, San Jose State at North Texas State and College of the Pacific at Cincinnati.

Coach Red Sanders termed his Bruins in top condition. Tackle Joe Ray and Capt. Johnny Peterson, center, both will be returning from the injured list for full duty.

The Bruins spent most of this week drilling on formations designed to stop the Bears' Paul Larson to Jim Hanifan passing combination.

California Coach Lynn Waldorf said he may start sophomore back Herb Jackson, who can cover 160 yards in 9.3 seconds. The Bears took Friday off.

Southern California is expected to have little difficulty in handling Oregon State. Main interest in the Trojan camp centers on a brisk rivalry for the starting left half-back slot between veteran Aramis Dandoy and sophomore Jon Arnett. Dandoy finally won out Thursday, narrowly.

Coach Chuck Taylor made it plain his Stanford Indians will rely on passing against WSC by naming John Brodie to open at quarterback. Jerry Gustafson is the running QB.

U.S. Hoop Team Meets Uruguay '5'

RIO DE JANEIRO — Undeclared in their first two games is the final round of the World Basketball Tournament, the favored Peoria (Ill.) Caterpillars, representing the U.S. met Uruguay Friday.

Uruguay has been the hard luck team of the tourney, having been upset by France Wednesday and losing to Canada 67-66 Thursday night on a last second free throw.

The United States led all the way to defeat France 70-49. Jim Minter and Dick Reitherford scored 15 points apiece for the Caterpillars, who played their best game of the tournament.

Brazil established itself as a contender for the world crown with a 68-46 victory over Israel.

Ohio State Meets Northwestern '11'

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College football blithely enters its seventh weekend of the season today with only 10 major teams unbeaten and untied and with every indication most of them will be happy—and lucky—if they still retain their spotless records come Sunday.

The shooting at the unsullied begins tonight when Miami, a surprising contender for national honors, takes on Fordham under a Florida moon. The Miamians, already pointing for their game next season with Notre Dame, are young and potent, having whipped Maryland in their most recent outing. The Hurricanes have won five straight this season.

INTENSE

But the firing becomes really intense Saturday. Then Ohio State, currently the No. 1 team with five straight successes, meets Northwestern, which hasn't won. It is the ideal spot for one of 1954's many upsets, but the Buckeyes have Hop-along Cassidy.

Oklahoma and UCLA, also unbeaten, make up the top trio of college footballers at present with Ohio State and they face opposition of a rugged type. The Oklahomaans are at Colorado where they were tied two years ago. The mile high altitude and Colorado's ground attack may combine to trouble the Sooners.

UCLA, with a prolific scoring machine that has counted 263 points in six victories, is at California, a team which still lists Paul Larsen among its star players and which last Saturday gave Southern California a rugged afternoon. Arkansas, another surprise name

Horsemen Pay High For Entry

By JOHN CHANDLER

CAMDEN, N.J. — Horsemen today must spend money to make money, and about 12 owners are expected to plank down one-half of the necessary $2,000 that will give them a shot at some $155,000 in the racing world's richest gallop.

The objective is the $100,000-added Garden State Stakes over the mile and one sixteenth distance tomorrow, and the total jackpot may hit around $270,000.

The horse liked most is Mrs. Russell A. Firestone's Summer Tan, one of the classiest juvenile colts of the season. Given the best chance of beating Summer Tan is the Cain Hoy Stable entry of Flying Fury and Racing Pool.

Other names expected to be dropped into the entry box include Woody Stephens' Roman Patrol, the Pine Oak Farm's Roman Patrol, the Rokeby Stable entry of Cup Man and Golden Land, Mrs. E. E. Pershall Bel's Simmy, C. V. Whitney's Pyrenees, the Duntreath Farm's Fleet Path, Tallman Wisner and Jack Welch's Money Leath, James Patton's Riches, the Darby Dan Farm's Windsor King and Mrs. Louise West's Bay-side, Bell.

Owners must hand over $1,000 to pass the entry box today, and another $1,000 to start tomorrow in the race to be televised nationally by CBS 4-4:30 p.m., EST.

The winner gets about $154,000 with approximately $50,000 for second, $35,000 for third and $15,000 for fourth place.

SCOTCH GOLF THRIFT

CLEMENTON, N.J. — George Fazio is playing some of his best golf today — and he credits a 50-year-old hickory-shafted putter for the improvement in his game.

"I bought the putter from a little boy I saw playing with it in Scotland," Fazio said. "The putter's shaft has twice been broken and has twice been mended. With each repair, it works better than ever."

Eastern Game On TV

PHILADELPHIA — The nation's TV football fans get their first chance this season to view an Eastern college football game Saturday when Penn entertains Penn State in a traditional neighborhood scrap.

PLAYERS RETURN

PULLMAN, Wash. — Two more players were taken off the injured list Thursday and Coach Al Kircher said the Washington State Cougars will be at full strength for Saturday's Pacific Coast Conference football game at Stanford.

Halfbacks Mert Purnell and Dennis Rath, who received leg injuries earlier in the week, have worked out with the Cougars.

The Penn State Nittany Lions, rated as one of the East's best before losing to West Virginia and Texas Christian on the past two weekends, have revenge on their minds then they tackle the winless Quakers at Franklin Field.

It was last year that the fired-up Quakers upset the Lions from upstate state college, 13-7, in a game they had promised to win for retiring Coach George Munger.

Penn, playing its first season under new Coach Steve Sebo's complicated multiple offense will be out to win their first game under the former Michigan State aide. They've lost on successive weekends to Duke, William and Mary, Princeton, George Washington and Navy.

Other games on the Saturday docket are:

East-Cornell-Columbia, Dartmouth-Yale, Holy Cross-Syracuse, Colgate-Princeton, Ohio University-Harvard, Brown-Lehigh and Bucknell-Boston University.

SOUTH-Maryland-South Carolina, Georgia-Alabama, Tulane-Auburn, Mississippi-Louisiana State, Mississippi State-Florida, Georgia Tech-Duke, North Carolina-Tennessee, Clemson-Wake Forest, Furman-North Carolina State and Villanova-Kentucky.

Midwest — Indiana-Michigan, Michigan State-Minnesota, Missouri-Nebraska, Kansas-Kansas State, Drake-Iowa State, Houston-Wichita and College of Pacific-Cincinnati.

Southwest-Baylor-Texas Christian, Southern Methodist-Texas, Vanderbilt-Rice, Oklahoma A&M-Tulsa and Texas Tech-Arizona.

Far West — Oregon State-Southern California, Oregon-Washington, Washington State-Stanford, Idaho-Utah, Montana-Colorado A & M, Brigham Young - Utah State.
