THE HUNTING WAS GOOD and so was the conversation over at the Warner Valley Public Shooting Grounds the other day when Oscar (left) and William (Bill) Kittredge got together with Norman Minnick (right) manager of the refuge. The shooting grounds, donated to the state by the Kittredges through the Warner Valley Stock Company, has provided good shooting this year and has been consistently good over a period of several years. Oscar Kittredge is currently running for the senate post vacated when Phil Hitchcock resigned to take a position with Lewis and Clark College in Portland.

Nehru Lauded By Newspapers

NEW DELHI, (AP)—India's newspapers hailed Prime Minister Nehru's tour of Communist China as a great historical event. In their enthusiasm papers found little if anything to criticize.

Writers generally seem to believe Nehru convinced Red China leaders they must take steps to assure other Asian countries—such as Burma and Indonesia—that Peiping plans no aggression and has only peaceful intentions.

Indian newsmen also give indications they are impressed by the promises of Red China's Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai to cooperate with India's peace efforts. As a result, newspapers appear fully to endorse Nehru's trip.

Most of these impressions emerge from front page "spot news" stories sent from Peiping by leading staffers of newspapers and Indian News agencies. These staffers were invited to China at the expense of the Peiping government.

Only after Nehru left Peiping did an Indian newspaper display a hint of criticism. The Times of India said Thursday that the Chinese Communists tried to play "power politics" and get Nehru openly to side with the Reds. The newspaper said Nehru properly held his position of "non-alignment."

New Delhi newspapers generally took a more sober view of the visit in their comments Thursday than they had at any previous time in the tour. They said the Communists still must make good any promises given the Indian leader; but suggested there was no reason to believe the Reds would renege.

Wife Sentenced For Slaying

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Socialite Mary Jean Parsons entered the Texas State Prison last night to begin a 10-year sentence for slaying her husband, an army officer.

Mrs. Parsons was convicted last year of shooting her brigadier of six weeks, Lt. Richard O. Parsons, formerly of Pleasantville, N. Y., in the couple's El Paso, Texas apartment.

Winnie Completes Long Commons Term

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill today completed his 30th consecutive year as a member of the House of Commons.

Although Churchill has served a total of 52 years in the lower house of Parliament—more than any other present member. He was elected first in 1909 but missed the years 1922-24.
