REFLECTIONS FROM

THE HARDENBROOKS — Byron and Nell — here from Roseburg for a few days. When I see the Hardenbrooks in town it always makes Klamath Falls seem more like Klamath Falls — they were always such a definite part of Kay Eff when they lived here — and STILL are when just visiting. This trip, as usual, they're busily occupied with dinners and so forth with longtime friends — Plan to leave for home Sunday.

RUTH WEIMAR — another ex-KP resident — sends a heartfelt "thank-you" through this column to the many Basin friends and organizations who were so thoughtful of her during her recent and unexpected stay in the hospital for emergency major surgery. Imagine Ruth with three nurses! — one at a time of course — on 8 hr. shifts. She was with her spouse Earl when first aware of something painfully wrong with her usually robust self — that was on a Friday evening — and the next a.m., Oct. 9 — she was in the operating room. NOW what her KP friends CAN'T imagine — is Ruth, a simply "fabulous" cook, on a diet of Gerber's baby food (plugs) — but to her it's mighty solid stuff compared to previous intravenous meals. That's another KP couple who are still "of us" although not "with" — Home and convalescing — Ruths not, as yet, up to writing all the letters expressing the above "thank-you's."

RUTH BATHANY — has returned to "Harbor Heaven" — and her home on the coast — after two weeks with dir — Ruth Mary — son-in-law Jack Crawford — AND that new girl — Judith Elizabeth — who since Sept. 28 has been "new baby sister" to John, 7 — and Laurie, 8.

SUE GEARY — dir of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geary — home for a few days from Berkeley — where she's with the American Trust Co. and where she is living with her mother's sister — Mrs. Blanche Pullington. Sue was with a local bank before going to the Bay Region — and speaking of banks — her mother's name is Marion — and Republican state representative Ed Geary's wife's name is VOTE TUESDAY! November 2 — and be thankful, that as an American under the United States flag, you have the privilege.

IF POR PIZZA — you have a "pash" — and don't know how to make it — feel too lazy to — don't have a pizza — or don't want to cook — OR if you don't even know what IS pizza! — we suggest that you go out to Sari's — only pizza "place" between Sacramento and Portland where you can get some mighty delicious and satisfying answers. Election day — after you've voted — and are wondering how many voted YOUR way — don't worry or wonder — drive out South Sixth Street and instead of a cry — buy and try a pizza pie!

CATHRYN ELIZABETH . . . is pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Childers, 2823 Homedale Road. The six months old miss has two sets of grandparents living in Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steers, 3807 Bisbee; and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Childers, 4655 Austin.

Summer Lake

By MRS. E. R. NELSON

The Summer Lake rim area was opened for hunting Tuesday morning following the rain which fell here Monday and Tuesday. White geese are coming in and the duck and goose shooting has been good.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKillip, Klamath Falls, were hunting in this area Tuesday. They were supper guests of the E. R. Nelsons before returning home. They bagged a buck and doe.

Mrs. George Carlson, Mrs. Bob Carlson, Mrs. Alvin Weaver and Norma are working part time at the lodge during the hunting season. Betty Hodges, Forest Grove, is a full time employee.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connor, Paisley, were Sunday callers of YOUNG SISTER of recent bride Margaret Ann Takacs who was delegated to register the wedding guests — has an arresting name of her own — she's the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Takacs Jr., her mother's name is Nell — and is named for both of them — Johnelle.

MANY who were at the reception last Sunday, when over 200 friends gathered at Mt. Lake Community Church to help Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hawkins celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary have remarked that it seemed more like an old timers' get-together — with friends of many many years greeting each other — who'd not seen each other in years.

STEPPING right out on his first birthday, was carefree Kenneth Rumelhart, September 9, the day the picture was taken. The enterprising young man is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rumelhart, 1935 Burns Street.

the rose on your hat

The overblown rose blooming in solitary splendor on your smart winter hat at front, back or side is a captivating gimmick to make up to, says Max Factor, Jr. As bold as a headlight, the rose that's worn to be seen deserves the compliment that make-up can pay. You can give it one, says the Hollywood expert, by keeping your complexion light and feminine; by wearing a lipstick shade that matches or blends perfectly with the color of the rose. If the rose is red, wearing green or gray eyeshadow, says Factor, will turn a nondescript make-up into a dazzling one. If the rose is pink or tawny-yellow, blue eyeshadow can be as regaling to the eye.

new houseware gifts

Martha didn't know the new Bon Bazaar carried so many interesting and attractive gift items in their housewares department. Saw some really beautiful copper and brass items! In copper there is attractive shiny copper frying pans of different sizes, creamers and sugarers, servers, salad and jello molds, and planters. Many of these pieces are so attractive they are designed to be hung up to give your kitchen that distinctive look you'll love. Many of these items are spun from solid copper . . . and priced from 1.19 to 8.49! Also saw a copper and brass chaffing dish that's really a work of art and priced at only 18.95. In the brass items there were plaques in different sizes with different and unusually attractive designs such as colonial, fruit and barroom. Priced just 1.19 to 3.29. Then there are planters, highly decorated, for 2.49. And Martha also saw . . .

Colored iron ware

. . . chaffing dishes that also come with a heater . . . so you can cook and serve in the same vessel and know the contents will be piping hot. With these, color surely comes to dinner! Keep everything hot and at the same time appetizing over your "fire at the table" heater. These chaffing dishes come in beautiful colors and have many features you should see for yourself. Priced from 3.95 to 14.95. You'll find many, many other attractive, inexpensive houseware gift items at 4480 S. 6th street, next door to the Oregon Food Store.

The Bon Bazaar

start with daytime wear this season and go right into evening. Fur may be a small collar, a deep collar, cuffs or even a tuxedo front, according to the experts. And, they claim one touch of fur is essential to the ensemble and to suits.

black iron accessories

Wrought iron in furniture is all the rage as you know . . . especially if you like the modern . . . and who doesn't? And to give your home those extra touches that make for extra attractiveness . . . Klamath Furniture is now featuring black iron accessories! You'll find sturdy magazine and book stands, trash baskets, nesting snack tables, hostess carts on casters with clear glass tops and bottom shelves, three-shelf record stands as well as other fascinating items. Oh, yes, I almost forgot to mention one of the most attractive pieces. It's (don't tell anyone) a gossip bench! Since none of us gossip anymore maybe the name should be changed. Anyway, it's ultra smart being upholstered in metallic tweed and boasting sturdy black iron legs. Martha was taken with them and I'm sure you will be too, once you've seen them. See them at 221 Main . . .

furniture design trends

The most noticeable trend in furniture design is the combination of Traditional and Modern styling. In many pieces it is almost as if a fusion had occurred. It is difficult to determine whether an item is Traditional or Modern — the finish is Traditional but the lines are modified Modern. The trend is to the interior of the home that you want.

free sewing instruction

Now you can learn, without cost, just how to use the attachments that come with your sewing machine regardless of the type of machine you have. The lessons would cost 2.50 most places but not at the Singer Sewing Center, 633 Main. The class will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, November 3rd. Everything is furnished by the Center for the practice. Included in this instruction are the proper use of your ruffler, edge stitcher, multi-slotted binder, hemming foot, adjustable hemmer and the shirring foot. Please let the Singer Sewing Center know whether you intend to attend. Either stop in or telephone 2-2513. The time, 1 p.m. On the following Wednesday, November 10th, there will be a free class in the use of the FASHION STITCH which is good news for those of us who would like to learn the easy, proper way to embroidery and do fancy things with a sewing machine. There is no obligation to buy anything at either of these classes. So . . . make a date for Wednesday.

who longs for a tiny, delicate, Dresden-doll look doesn't realize that she can be striking in a way her smaller sisters never can be. Instead of wearing fussy trimmings and ruffles, which she feels make her look more feminine, she could acquire a smart, sophisticated appearance by choosing clothes with slimming lines and smooth fabrics.

long live the rose

To prolong the life of the rose or other cut flowers, don't trust the blooms into the nearest vase, hastily filled with COLD water. Thoughtfully choose a container that complements the flowers and FILL IT WITH WARM WATER! Freshly cut flower stems absorb warm water more rapidly than cold and this extends the life of the flowers. The water should be approximately 110 degrees, or very warm to the hand but not hot enough to burn the skin, according to Bill De Pew of flowers by Bill and Rita. Incidentally, this smart flower shop is featuring foliage plants in their cash and carry department this week. Philodendrons, each just 49 cents. Miniature Ivy plants, each 39 cents. They have many other varieties priced from 29 to 79 cents . . . at 430 Main . . .
