Owls Win Fourth Straight

BREMERTON — Paced by the throwing and running antics of quarterback Ray Rosa, the high-flying Oregon Tech Owls won their fourth straight game here last night by turning back a tough Olympic Junior College eleven by a 32-6 margin.

The unbelievable back from Daly City, California, did everything, but play defense for Olympic as the stellar signal-caller broke loose a barrage of aerials that hit the Ranger defense from both sides and even from behind and to top his exhibition of ball handling off led both clubs in net yardage with 72 yards in four carries.

The first quarter and part of the second period was all Olympic as the Owls looked stunned, but not for long, as the visitors from Klamath Falls scored twice and converted once to run-up a 13-0 half-time bulge over the home-standing Rangers in the Bremerton Shrine game of the year.

With a little more than eight minutes remaining in the second quarter, Linous Allen, OTI halfback intercepted an Olympic pass on the 47 yard line and five plays later Rosa passed to end Paul Weaver for 12 yards and a touchdown. Cal "Sugar Jet" Smith's kick was no good.

The second Owl score came later in the second quarter as Ken Sloan intercepted another Ranger aerial on the OJC 14 yard line. One pass from Rosa to Sloan garnered another TD, as the letterman OTI end stood in the end zone all alone. Ode Canada's kick was good sending the score to a halftime margin of 13-0 in favor of the visiting Owls.

Halfway through the third period, Sugar Jet Smith returned a punt to the OTI 40 yard line, where after one incomplete pass, Rosa pulled a brilliant demonstration of deception and on a "keep-it" play rambled 60 yards for a touchdown on an outstanding run. Canada's kick failed and the Owls led 19-0.

Another Rosa to Weaver pass, good for a gain to the 34 yard line of the Owls set the stage for the fourth OTI score. Rosa dropped back and found Allen all alone behind the Ranger secondary and with a perfect pitch, hit the Owl receiver, who took the ball in on the Olympic 48 and rambled the rest of the distance untouched capping a drive of 98 yards. Again the extra point failed for the Owls, and the score stood at 25-0.

In the waning minutes of the third period Oregon Tech recovered a fumble on their own 13 yard line, and on the first play from scrimmage, George "The Mole" Johnson, all 140 pounds of him took off for parts unknown and before Ranger defensive men could stop the little-barreling-tulback a gain of 65 yards had been garnered, moving the ball to the Olympic 22 yard line.

Rosa, two plays later on the 21, again used his deception to fool OJC defenders and with the same "keep-it" play went into the end zone for the final OTI score. Canada's kick was good this time and the Owls had a 32-0 bulge, with only a few minutes remaining.

After an exchange of the ball, Olympia intercepted one of Dave Thomas' passes on the Owl 27 yard line setting up their only touchdown, but the clock was moving with very little time remaining.

On the final play of the junior college game, quarterback Bob Fayette hurled a desperation pass to Paul Mitchell in the end zone for six points and the lone OJC score. The attempted conversion by the Rangers failed. Making it 32-6 for the final scoreboard figures.

The mark of the game, which was witnessed by some 1000 or more gridiron fans, was the stellar play of both forward walls, and the running and passing of Rosa, who was as "hot as a firecracker." Smith's punt and kickoff returns added plenty of life to the Shrine football game as did Johnson's 65 yard gallop in the fourth period.

Rosa led the individual ground gainers with his 72 net yards, while Johnson had 66 and Smith 40. For the Rangers, who out-downed the

Idaho Coach Pulls Shocker Of Grid Year

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP) — The least we can do is nominate Skip Stahley as Coach of the Half Century. Idaho wants to run him for President.

For a guy who started the season with nothing and lost half of that, the Skipper undoubtedly pulled the shocker of the year by walloping Washington State.

When Skip took the job at Idaho his close friends wondered what they'd wear to the funeral. Now they're scanning etiquette books to learn the proper attire for functions at the governor's mansion.

Material was so thin he might not have been able to suit up 11 men without an influx of junior college transfers. He hasn't substituted freely because he gets lonesome on the bench.

At least a dozen times in 29 years Idaho had been given a 50-50 chance of beating the Cougars. This year the odds were about 1 to 99 and that made victory much sweeter for all the unsuspecting Idahoans.

Stahley is the eighth coach to head up the Vandal hopes since Matty Matthews' 1925 team tripped WSC, 7-6. At that time Skip was a young man five years away from his first coaching job and not one of his 1954 players had been born yet.

When Idaho scored its 10th point visiting Owls, Dan Fitzmorris and Mitchell carried the bulk of the load with a total of 63 net yards apiece.

Vince Martinez Stops Opponent

NEW YORK (AP)—Unless Vince Martinez' future runs into a family-manager roadblock, the handsome Paterson, N.J., welter should be fighting for the title within a year.

Martinez' managerial situation is all messed up at the moment. Billy Daly holds the contract with Tex Peltie as a partner. The boxer's father, Tony, and brother, Phil, are warring with Daly. Neither Daly nor Peltie were in the corner last night as young Vince stopped Carmine Fiore on a technical knockout in 2:32 of the seventh at Madison Square Garden.

Ironically, Al Braverman, president of a rival managers' guild that is battling with Daly's group, acted as a Martinez second.

Martinez gave a brilliant exhibition of boxing skill against Fiore a perfect foil who always came forward with nothing more than the threat of a left hook. Young Vince blocked the hook with his glove and elbow, beat Fiore to the punch with a right hand and jab bed him all night with his stinging
