

Over 200 Friends Attend Golden Jubilee Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hawkins

A WEDDING GIFT... 50 years ago was the tablecloth held by Mr. and Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins, who were honored guests at a reception last Sunday, October 23, in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The cloth, like their friends, has worn well — Now in its fiftieth year in their possession, the treasured linen has acquired added value as a record, inscribed in permanent gold ink with a multitude of names — a lasting testimonial to enduring friendships.

Birthday Party For Daughters

BONANZA — Mrs. Maurice Martin gave a lovely birthday party at the family residence October 23, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Martin's two daughters, Karen 11, and Shirley, 9.

The Halloween motif carried out the decorations and some of the contests and games.

A friend, H. McCoy Jones of Washington, D.C., who had been visiting them several weeks ago ordered two beautiful birthday cakes for the girls' party; and they were the highlight of the refreshment table. While the girls opened their gifts, guests sang

"Happy Birthday."

Guest list included Frances DeBel, Nondice and Linda McFall and their mother Mrs. Jesse McFall, Suzanne Rice, Linda Oberhelde, Virginia, Allan, George and Edward Harris and their mother Mrs. John Harris; Marla Kay Burnett, Susan Miller and her mother Mrs. Jack Miller; Ray and Bobby Rankin and their mother Mrs. George Rankin of Merrill; Barbara, Janice, and Dorothy Jane Reid; Catherine Totell and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Briggs of Klamath Falls.

KEEPING IN STEP WITH THE TIMES, Klamath Falls music lovers hurried to their seats before curtain time on the opening night of the 1954-55 concert season last Wednesday at the Pelican Theater.

Probably the greatest cultural advantage offered Basin residents, this Klamath Falls Community Concert Association program annually brings to localities some outstanding talent in the field of music.

Wednesday's listing featured three outstanding vocalists, Pierrette Alarie, soprano; Leopold Simoneau, tenor; Theodor Uppman, baritone, the Columbia Bel Cantos Trio. Each has had brilliant success in the operatic and concert fields. Individually and in combination, the vocal artists presented a rewarding program for the receptive audience locally.
