LANGELL VALLEY
By CORA LEAVITT

The following Langell Valley Boy Scouts attended the Boy Scout Court of Honor at the Allamont Junior high school gym Friday night. Darrell Horsley, LeRoy Bieler and Bobby Potucek won their second class awards; Charlie Bob Dehlinger won his first class award; merit awards went to LeRoy Bieler and Bobby Potucek on pork production and Charlie Bob Dehlinger for beef, music and home repairs.

Bob Dehlinger is the scoutmaster, his assistant is Bruce Bieler. Russell Walsh attends the meetings held in Klamath Falls once a month. The scouts are sponsored by the Irrigation District, Louis Randall representing the district. Mrs. Cora Ticknor, Medford, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Mae Gale and other friends. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Frank Shelton and two children, sailed from Seattle last week for Japan. Her husband has been there for a year. She was Hazel Loomis before her marriage and grew up in Langell Valley.

Billie Harris left last week for Phoenix, Arizona where she will work this winter. She will spend

VFW Auxiliary Post 4056 Meets

MERRILL — A regular meeting of VFW Auxiliary Post No. 4056 was held Wednesday in the recreation hall.

Each auxiliary in the state has been asked to donate $55 to the building of a home for children and old people, and the local lodge made its contribution to the fund following a successful rummage sale held recently. Tentative plans call for the home to be erected in the Portland area.

Following other routine business discussion, refreshments were served to Launa Ratliff, Margaret Loper, Nellie Fleck, Millie Fotheringham, Betty Hodges, Marian Knox, Rosemary Crawford, Mary Lou Swisher, Katie Merrilee, Bessie Duncan, Frances Brandenburg, June Orem, Norma Wilson, Marjorie Waldrup, Marjorie Hodges and Virginia Perry.

a week in Los Angeles with friends enroute.

Bob Dehlinger and Walter Casbeer were in the Shriners Band in the parade at the Merrill Potato Festival Saturday.

Grand Guardian Visits Job's Daughters Bethel 6

Bethel No. 6, of the International Order of Job's Daughters Klamath Falls, was honored with the visit of the grand guardian, Dorothy Crump, at the regular meeting October 21.

The banquet at which 20 members and guests were served, was preceded by a social hour in the parlor upstairs, when Mrs. Crump was welcomed.

Honored Queen Jackie Ackerman escorted Mrs. Crump to the dining room, followed by new class candidates, other members, and guests.

The tables beautifully decorated in a color scheme of purple and white, Bethel colors, featured the song "Open the Gates of the Bethel." Mary Ann Munson played several accordion solos during the dinner hour.

Presiding at the meeting, Honored Queen Jackie was assisted by Phyllis Poole, past guardian and past grand guardian, as guardian; and Jack Murphy, past associate guardian and associate guardian, Mr. and Mrs. George Boudon. Escorted and given honors were: Mrs. Beulah Faber, Central Point, grand guide, and chairman of the Philanthropic Fund; charter members and past honored queens, Alexis Lyle Runyan and Ailsa Massey Kuykendall; junior past honored queen, Judy Clark; Coie Brown, guardian of Henley Bethel No. 51; with senior princess, Sandra Dehlinger; and junior princess, Beverly Hurlbut, of the same Bethel; worthy matron, Rena Oldham, and worthy patron, Ray Owens of Aloha Chapter No. 61 of the Eastern Star and past guardian, Letha Murphy, of Bethel No. 6, Klamath Falls.

A poem, "Our Mrs. Crump" written by JoAnne Bellinger, was read and dedicated to the grand guardian.

Mrs. Glen Onstad was installed as guardian of publicity by Mrs. Crump, assisted by officers of the Bethel.

Initiation was held for 22 members including Eleanor Bergmann, Carol Brisbon, Patricia Carroll, Sandra Dexter, Trudy Evans, Carole Farley, Helen Marie Faulkner, Darlene Gaster, Suzanne Goeller, Mary Irving, Becky Mack, Sandra Lee Massey, Jancy Meador, Daris Montgomery, Ronnie Olson, Ingrid Peterson, Susan Jane Peterson, Dixie Ann Scapple, Jane Swaney, Carol Sue Taylor, Beverly Ann Westlund and Betty Marie Yancy.

Bethel closed following a brief but interesting talk by Mrs. Crump with refreshments served downstairs.

There will be no November and December meetings. In January a potluck lunch will be served at the home of Mrs. Glen Haskins, with Mrs. C. E. Sharp as co-hostess.

Lost River Garden Club

MERRILL — Mrs. Randall Pope and Mrs. Walter Fotheringham were co-hostesses for the October 29 meeting of the Lost River Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Pope.

The possibility of starting a 4-H Garden Club was discussed; anyone interested is asked to call Mrs. Dale West.

An interesting program was presented during the afternoon, James O'Donahue, Klamath Falls, showed slides on wild flowers and birds and gave an entertaining commentary on the pictures. Mrs. I. W. White talked on "Care of Daffodils" and told of new varieties of bulbs she had grown.

The hostesses served refreshments to Mrs. C. C. Coulson Jr., a visitor, and the following members: Mrs. Don West, Mrs. White, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Mattie Rasmussen, Mrs. George Chin, Mrs. Paschal Hodges.

LV Womens Club

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Marion Lindsay entertained the Langell Valley Women's Club at her home the afternoon of October 21. The short business meeting was conducted by president Cora Leavitt. It was voted to give $5 to the United Fund, and $5 to the Emergency Relief Fund. A thank-you note was read from Bobbette Giff for the gift sent to her from the members. Members voted to not have a Christmas tree this year, and no more dances for sometime.

Cards were played with high prize in bridge going to Margaret Burnett, and high in pinochle to Nettie Davis.

Mrs. Lindsay served delicious refreshments to Adele Kent, Delphine Hoyt, Dale Smelcer, Margaret Burnett, Hattie Walker, Madge Monroe, Nettie Davis, Edna Hood and Cora Leavitt.

The next meeting of the Club will be at the home of Faye Weimer, on November 18, 2 p.m.
