Christmas Tree Charge Deferred

PORTLAND (AP) — Leslie B. Robinson, 33, accused in the theft of 650 Christmas trees from a boxcar at Beatty, Ore., last November, appeared for arraignment in Federal Court here Monday but Judge Claude McCulloch deferred it.

He said he would wait until another man, indicted with Robinson by a federal grand jury last week, is arrested. Robinson is a resident of the Klamath Indian Reservation.

FORT KLAMATH

BY MYRTLE WIMER

Mrs. Warren Wilder, left last week for a visit with relatives at Fraser, Montana, making the trip with friends, Mrs. and Mrs. Merton Porter, of the Crow Indian Reservation in Montana. The Porters are former residents of Klamath Agency, and were here visiting old friends.

News of the birth of a daughter, their first child to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Young, former Fort Klamath residents now living at Central Point, was received here last week. The baby was born October 19 at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Nelson went to Central Point, Sunday, to see the new arrival.

day, to see the new arrival.

Mrs. Jack Thomas bagged a fine four point buck weighing 318 pounds dressed. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Knowles, got a fine buck apiece, and earlier in the fall, 15-year-old son Paul downed a buck with a bow and arrow in the special Hart Mountain area deer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauptman were also included among the lucky hunters who brought home venison early in the season.

Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr., daughters Marianne and Pat, returned to Portland last week with her mother, Mrs. Russell Patterson, who had been a weekend guest at the Miller home here. Going to Portland Tuesday was Mrs. Miller's husband, the family returning here the latter part of the week.

George Bell, recently of Gerber, and well known in Klamath Falls, is now employed by Don Wimer as bartender at the Crater Lake Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr., left Monday for Red Bluff, where they will spend the fall and winter months at their California home.

W. T. (Jack) Frost of the U.S. Department of Agriculture Portland office was a business visitor here last week, contacting Elmore Nicholson in connection with cooperative snow surveys at Seven Lakes to be undertaken this winter. Frost was stationed as ranger in Crater Lake National Park before transferring to the Department of Agriculture in Portland.

Weekend house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Smith were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Fisher and children, Hay Creek, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Culver and family enjoyed a weekend visit from former residents Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ridenour and daughter Kathy, Deming, Washington, here for a duck hunting trip.

Mrs. Francis D. Brown, Crystal, Oregon, and her grandson, Lee Danforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Danforth, Klamath Falls, have moved into one of the Thomas O. Dyche rental houses while Lee attends the local elementary school. Mr. Brown is at their ranch in the Crystal district, 12 miles west of Fort Klamath.
