Merrill Plans Two Missions

MERRILL — The Rev. Father Michael Reilly, St. Benedict's Monastery, Mt. Angel, will conduct two missions in St. Augustine's Parish. Beginning Sunday morning, November 7, Father Reilly will open the first mission with introductory remarks at the 9 o'clock Mass. Services will be held each morning through the week at 7:30; the important lectures will be given at the evening service at 7:30.

The second week of the mission, beginning Sunday, November 14, will be held at St. F. X. Cabrini Church in Honanza.

"Not only is this a golden opportunity for the Catholic people of this area to be confirmed in their faith, but it is an invitation to non-Catholic friends to hear a clear and pleasant explanation of the doctrines of the Catholic Church," said the Rev. Father John Phelan, pastor, in announcing the mission. "Father Reilly is a distinguished lecturer in the Northwest and joins with members of the church in extending a welcome to interested non-Catholics."

Elks Plan Two Special Nights
