Editor Elected Despite Advice
FARMINGTON, Mo., (P)—Voters followed Jess Stewart's editorial advice—with one exception. The exception was Jess Stewart. Stewart, editor of the weekly Farmington Press, yesterday was re-elected St. Francois County circuit clerk despite his editorial campaign for his own defeat. Voters, however, headed his advice to oust all other incumbents in the county—19 Republicans and 1 Democrat went out of office. Stewart, a Democrat, had urged the people to support his Republican opponent and criticized himself for dividing his time between the county office and his newspaper.

Official Warns Of Radio Danger
BOSTON (P)—Motorists with two-way radios were warned today the impulses from such sets can set off dynamite charges prematurely at highway construction projects. Public Works Commissioner John Volpe advised those motorists to turn off their sets in sections where blasting is underway. The warning does not apply to standard broadcast radios.

Bogart Returns To Tough Guy Role In Latest Film

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (P)—The "movie whirl"—Humphrey Bogart is back at his old stand with a gun in his hand. Back in 1936, he made his debut as a tough guy in "Petra of the East" (he had appeared in films earlier, but as a juvenile). He played the desperado Duke Mantee, who took over and terrorized the inhabitants of a roadside cafe. Today he's playing an escaped convict who bullies a suburban family in "The Desperate Hours." Some progress, huh? I told him I didn't think so. "This brought out the Duke Mantee in him. He has a knack of adopting the character he is playing at the time. When he was doing 'Sabrina,' he was every bit the witty, dapper business executive he was playing. Now he was a scuffed, scarred convict and he acted the part. "Now isn't that a bright remark!" he remonstrated. "You reporters are all alike—always go for the obvious." After he played a scene of menacing one of the children in the family, he returned with this observation: "Say a guy starts out from New York, goes around the world and comes back to New York. You'd say he was back in the same place. But I've been somewhere!" He said there was a slight difference between the two jobs. He was paid $50 a week for "Petra of the East." Today he earns $250,000 per picture. Especially at RKO. There they change titles at the drop of a Howard Hughes' whim. Recently they shot a picture called "Where the Wind Dies." It is now in release as "Passion." A film with the reasonable title of "The Big Rainbow" is being tagged "Underwater!" The "I" is part of the title, mind you. I asked Barbara Stanwyck about "Bow Tami to Me," in which she stars. "It makes sense," she remarked. "The picture is about elephants in Burma, and that's a command they give elephants. "But of course we can't educate the American public to that. We're looking for a new title. "Yes, I think titles are important to selling a picture. A case in point is 'Roman Holiday.' It was a delightful film, but the public shied away because they thought it was a travelogue or a religious film." Note: At press time, they landed a new title—"Escape to Burma." Scouts Hold Open House

WEED (P)—Open House, Monday night, November 1, at the Weed Court Club, was sponsored by the Weed Boy Scout Troop 31. Demonstrations of first-aid bandaging, firefighting from flints, and tying knots was presented by the scouts. "Gunning the Flyways," a duck-hunting film, was shown by Milt Mayer of Mount Shasta. Mayer was introduced by Bob Mallory, committee member of the troop. The film was shown following the meeting conducted by Jim Ewing, assistant patrol leader. Jonathan Scribner and Robert Johnson assisted with the opening ceremony. Richard Granstrom and Jonathan Scribner demonstrated the "Be Prepared" slogan of Boy Scouts, by lighting the scout candles, from a fire originally started from flints. Roger Thompson Sr., patrol leader with George Quigley, Robert Johnson and Coy Welborn, gave an exhibition on bandage tying. Gary Calkins directed the knot tying by David Downey and Rea Reents. Larry Lundin, scout executive from Yreka; and Lea Kyle, district commissioner of Weed, were present in addition to the local scout leaders and parents of the Boy Scouts.

Weed Fellowship Party Held

WEED — Halloween costumes, games and square dancing highlighted the evening festivities for the Junior Fellowship Party, held in the banquet room of the Community Presbyterian Church, Friday night October 29. Mr. and Mrs. Art Orr are new sponsors for the Junior Fellowship group of the church. The Rev. and Mrs. George Telle assisted in the evening's activities. Members and guests present and enjoying the typical Halloween refreshments were: Susan and Sally Welch, Jeanne Anderson, Rea Reents, Jon Scribner, David Downey, Myra Sue Bates, Yvonne Sbarbaro, Joyce Linville, Chrissy Kersey, Lynn and Jimmy Dorrell, George Quigley, Robert Turner, Arnold Dais, Marilyn Parkinson, Patsy Spear. Committee for the party included Susan and Sally Welch, Lynn Dorrell and Marilyn Parkinson.
