Power Co. Tax Reported

California Oregon Power Company's 1954-1955 county property taxes will total $1,840,101.01, or $187,642.47 more than the company paid in county taxes last year, according to A. S. Cummins, president of Copco. This is an increase of 11.36 per cent.

Of this amount, Copco will pay Klamath County $274,893.22. This sum is $40,731.04 more than the company paid last year, or an increase of 17.39 per cent.

Copco pays county taxes in Klamath, Coos, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lake and Lane counties in Oregon, and Del Norte, Lassen, Modoc, Shasta, Siskiyou and Trinity counties in California.

"This property tax bill is striking evidence of the extent to which a privately owned utility company contributes to the support of county governments," stated President Cummins.

He added that, because Copco's over-all tax base is ever expanding, its share of the future tax load is certain to increase year by year.
