Chapter Night Women of Moose

Katherine Rawlins, library chairman, women of the Moose, held her chapter night program, Tuesday, November 2. During the evening, Mrs. Rawlins presented as a gift from the local WOM, a beautifully illustrated edition of "Little Women" to the city library. Addie Mae Nixon, city librarian, accepted the gift for the library, and afterward, gave an illuminating and interesting talk on the history of children's books.

Vocal solos by Edward E. Carroll, better known to his audiences as "The Singing Tailor," were a highlight on the evening's program. The singer is a member of Loyal Order of Moose from Montebello, California.

Betty Mozingo, sponsored by Mildred Eklund, was initiated as a new member.

Mrs. Rawlins and her committee served refreshments to 43 members and guests.
