

COSTUME-CONFUSION at the Reames Golf and Country Club Womens Auxiliary annual "Don't Come as Yourself Day" contributed its share to the usual riot of fun. Some could be recognized through the various degrees of disguise employed by ingenious members — but many maintained anonymity for a considerable time as they cavorted around the clubhouse. In the picture above, (not looking like themselves), are from the left, Mrs. Louis Soukup, Mrs. Lloyd Drew, Mrs. George Hillis, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. J. Martin Adams and Mrs. H. L. Robertson.

FETCHING FEMME in the "gorqus" blonde curls is Mrs. R. E. (Gene) Hooker; and others who represent only a few of the enthusiastic many who turned out in assorted "get-ups" October 29, are, from the left, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Marvin Nerseith, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. R. D. Rakestraw.

RG-CCA Stages 1954 Dress Up

Members of Women's Auxiliary, Reames Golf and Country Club showed up at the club, Friday, October 29, in the usual "unusual" assortment of costumes—designed and created to baffle the judges. Actual judges (for safety measures) are unnamed—but Mrs. Roger Hopson, auxiliary president, awarded prizes to the following: Mrs. Loren Palmerton, who came as a duck hunter; Mrs. George Clark, a Neanderthal "lady"; Mrs. Ed Brosterhus, Indian girl; Mrs. James Ivory, Mrs. George Brosterhus and Mrs. Wesley Lorenz as a group of three Indians; Mrs. Russell Torgerson, Hawaiian girl; and Mrs. Stanley Miller and Mrs. Marvin Nerseith as "Liberace and George."

Zuleima Nile Club Luncheon At Willard Hotel on Third

In the spirit of Thanksgiving month many gifts of food "extras" for the Portland Shrine Hospital were donated by members of Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls at the November 3 meeting at the Willard Hotel. Tables for the turkey luncheon were most effectively decorated in a Thanksgiving theme. Club president Peggy Chikote conducted the meeting and asked that on December 1 packages for the Christmas gift box be brought. These are to be gift wrapped and marked as to value; and labeled whether for a boy or girl. Chairman of the day was Letha Murphy, and she introduced her committee as follows: Helen Spiker, Cora MacDonald, Bertha Massey, Blanche Schultz, Helen Cox, Dorothy Bramlett, Geraldine Duncan, Patricia Lindsey and Mary Totton. Entertainment chairman was Katherine Stonecypher. She presented Karen Keller of Tulelake, a talented twelve-year-old, who played several piano solos.

Mildred McDougal, a guest, was introduced by Betty Kelley and presented with a corsage. The final sewing report was given by chairman Elfrida Beeber, thus completing a very successful sewing project. Special prizes were awarded to Elva Kenyon and Lucille Adams, and a corsage was given to Helen Wing, a member who will soon be leaving the local area to go to Warm Springs. Past Queen Mae Moss gave a report on a survey she has made of the needs of the various Shrine Hospitals throughout the country. The club acted on a suggestion by Belle Josephson that a gift be made to the hospital in Mexico City, which is much in need of toys. Vice president Florence West announced that the next Temple meeting will be held in Medford on November 13. There will be a covered dish luncheon and reservations should be made with Mrs. West by November 10.

SOME NOT IN COSTUME came to watch the show—and with the two, who were, Mrs. R. D. Rakestraw, left; and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, next to her; are Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook, former Klamath Falls resident, who was visiting from Roseburg; Mrs. H. E. Hauger, Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm and Mrs. C. C. Kelley.

DAR Eulalona Chapter Plans Food and Apron Sale

The regular November meeting of Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Monday night, November 1, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Goble, 2620 Homedale Road, was opened with the Pledge to the Flag, a Prayer, the American's Creed and the Daughter's Pledge. During the business meeting it was voted to have a cooked food and apron sale in December, full details to be announced at a later date. Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, national defense chairman, spoke for five minutes on timely topics of National Defense, telling various instances of the insidious infiltration of communism in all walks of American life. The program for the evening was in charge of Mrs. William Wales Jr. and her topic was "DAR Approved Schools."

The education of nearly 9,000 young American students is fostered through the Approved Schools Committee of the national society of DAR. Two schools in the southern mountains are owned and operated by the DAR. These are Kate Duncan Smith DAR School in Grant, Alabama; and Tannease DAR School, Tannease, South Carolina. These schools are dependent upon the Daughters for maintenance, running expenses, scholarships, equipment and all other needs. Eleven other schools (five colleges and six pre-college schools) are also financially aided by the DAR. All schools on the Approved School list are definitely for underprivileged children who would otherwise not have the opportunity for an education. Mrs. Wales asked Mrs. Robert Odell, chairman of the American Indi-

PLAYERS CLUB

The splendor of fall colors greeted Players Club members and guests at a recent meeting in the library Club Room.

A forest green table cloth on the center table was the background for a contrasting and striking arrangement of dried fall grasses and pine cones.

Refreshments were served before the short business meeting, after which, cards were played. Prizes in bridge were awarded to Mary Clark, high; and Sylvia Woods, second; pinochle, high, Louise Tickner; and Clefa Pollack, second.

Louise Tickner is from Jerome, Idaho, and was here visiting her sister-in-law, Wilma Groves.

THURSDAY CLUB

MT. LAKE — Mrs. Wallace Thompson entertained the Thursday Club at her home on the Merrill Highway, October 28.

Other members present were Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mrs. Gray Brannon, Mrs. Cecil Cheyne, Mrs. Jack Marshall, Mrs. Bud White, Mrs. Buford Kaylor and Mrs. Charley DeLap Jr.

The November and December meetings will be combined, as everyone is busy those two months.
